

9-11-2001

9-11-2021

TLC Open Conversation: 9/11/2001: Facts & Meaning*Tuesday, August 31, 2021 | 1:40–2:55 p.m. | ZOOM

This semester the Teaching & Learning Center, in conjunction with External Affairs, is facilitating conversations that will raise awareness, deepen our efforts towards justice, and help us understand how many of the choices we face today have been influenced and shaped by 9/11. Join expert scholars and practitioners as they discuss the facts and meaning of 9/11 from different lenses and answer questions.

Contact: Gina Rae Foster | Email: tlc@jjay.cuny.eduThe Art of Braver Conversations*Thursday, September 2, 2021 | 8:00–9:00 a.m. | ZOOM

In this talk co-sponsored by the Dispute Resolution Center and the Association for Conflict Resolution of Greater New York, Braver Angels National Ambassador John Wood, Jr. discusses the organization's philosophy and techniques for brokering trust across the political divide, from kitchen tables to the halls of congress. Hear about the history and the current landscape of American political and racial polarization.

Contact: Maria R. Volpe | Email: mvolpe@jjay.cuny.edu9/11 After 20 Years: Causes, Consequences, and Enduring Challenges*Thursday, September 9, 2021 | 9:30 a.m.–12:00 p.m. | ZOOM

Attend a symposium, sponsored by the John Jay Center on Terrorism, featuring prominent researchers and practitioners in the field of terrorism studies as they address the complex legacy of 9/11 in plenaries and break-out sessions.

Contact: Peter Romaniuk | Email: terrorism@jjay.cuny.eduJohn Jay Flag Planting Tradition*Thursday, September 9, 2021 | 12:30–2:20 p.m. | Jay Walk

Honor the nearly 3,000 casualties of the September 11th attacks by planting American, International and John Jay flags.

Contact: Richard Pusateri | Email: rpusateri@jjay.cuny.eduTo Register: <http://johnjayathletics.com/flagplanting2021>Virtual Screening of World Care's Center 20th Anniversary Documentary: A Story of Triumph over Tragedy*Thursday, September 9, 2021 | 3:30–4:30 p.m. | ZOOM

The World Cares Center, serving thousands of first responders and family members after 9/11, transformed from a safe space and healing place to a leading center for training volunteers and communities to respond to and manage crisis. John Jay students have participated in programs and trainings by the Center.

Join Prof. Lucia Velotti, Department of Security, Fire & Emergency Management, and World Cares Center Founder Lisa Orloff for a talk back and Q & A immediately following the screening.

Email: implementation@worldcares.org | To Register: bit.ly/JJWCC209/11 Embodied Remembrance: Connecting to the Past, Cultivating Presence and Leading with Courage, Wholeness and Ease*Friday, September 10, 2021 | 11:30 a.m. | YouTube

Professor Monika Son shares a contemplative/mindful practice that offers a way of resourcing oneself as we remember the life-changing impact 9/11 had on the John Jay community. This practice supports naming and normalizing thoughts and emotions that may arise at this time, as well as grounding in the inherent resiliency and strength we continue to demonstrate.

Contact: Monika Son | Email: mson@jjay.cuny.edu9/11 20th Anniversary Virtual Ceremony*Friday, September 10, 2021 | 12:00 p.m. | YouTube*Contact: Mindy Bockstein | Email: externalaffairs@jjay.cuny.eduIn-Person Volunteer Service: 9/11 Meal Packathon*Saturday, September 11, 2021 | 8:00 a.m.–7:00 p.m. (2 hour shifts)*Sunday, September 12, 2021 | 8:00 a.m.–7:00 p.m. (2 hour shifts)*Intrepid Museum | In-Person: Registration, Vaccination & Masks Required

Do a good deed in honor of those who rose up in service 20 years ago.

Join 9/11 Tomorrow Together and other organizations in packing meals to address food insecurity in New York City.

Contact: Mindy Bockstein | Email: externalaffairs@jjay.cuny.eduVirtual Volunteer Service: COVID Food Relief in Honor of 20th Anniversary of 9/11*Monday, September 13, 2021 | 5:30 p.m.–6:15 p.m. | ZOOM

Help serve the community from home by signing up to make calls on behalf of the Hunter College Food Policy Center. The Food Policy Center helps connect community members in need to local resources including food and social services.

Contact: Claire Sternberg | Email: csternberg@jjay.cuny.eduThe Legacy of September 11, 2001: Alumni Testimonials*Monday, September 13, 2021 | 6:00 p.m.–8:00 p.m. | ZOOM

John Jay College alumni are invited to share their stories and experiences from September 11, 2001.

Contact: Rosann Santos | Email: rsantos@jjay.cuny.eduWHAT HAPPENED: The September 11th Testimony Project Virtual Drama*Tuesday, September 14, 2021 | 1:40–2:30 p.m. | TBA

View a verbatim docudrama created by and for the John Jay College Community in the months immediately following the 9/11 World Trade Center attack. The September 11th Testimony Project is directed by Professor Amy S. Green and performed by students, faculty and staff.

Contact: Prof. Amy S. Green | Email: agreen@jjay.cuny.eduForensic Science and 9/11 Victim Identification – Seminar 1: Commitment to Families*Thursday, September 23, 2021 | 4:00–5:00 p.m. | ZOOM

The identification of the thousands of victims challenged forensic practitioners to find new solutions. The first seminar in the series will feature Mark Desire from the NYC Office of Chief Medical Examiner. He will discuss the Office's commitment to victim families and the current status of the ongoing victim identification effort.

Contact: Prof. Mechthild Prinz | Email: mprinz@jjay.cuny.edu9/11's Aftermath: Connecting NYC's Calamitous Past with the Present*Thursday, September 30, 2021 | 4:30–5:30 p.m. | TBA

Join a panel of experts as they discuss the 20 years after the terrorist attack in light of contemporary concerns to further our understanding of 9/11's political, psychological, and practical resonance in the present and going forward.

Contact: Prof. Susan Opotow | Email: sopotow@jjay.cuny.eduAnnual In-Person Volunteer Service: DeWitt Clinton Park Beautification*Friday, October 1, 2021 | 11:00–1:00 p.m. | In-Person

Participate in community service. Volunteer students will mulch and plant flowers for "invasive control" at the DeWitt Clinton Park, a site where daffodils were planted after 9/11.

Contact: Cat Alves | Email: Calves@jjay.cuny.eduTo Register: <http://johnjayathletics.com/dewitt2021>Forensic Science and 9/11 Victim Identification – Seminar 2: Forensic Anthropology*Thursday, October 14, 2021 | 4:00–5:00 p.m. | ZOOM

Forensic Anthropologist Dr. Amy Mundorff is the second speaker in the series of Forensic Science talks. She was working at Ground Zero on the front lines in 2001 and will discuss the "role of forensic anthropology in recovery and reconciliation during the 9/11 victim identification process."

Contact: Prof. Mechthild Prinz | Email: mprinz@jjay.cuny.eduBook Talk: High-Rise Buildings: Understanding Vertical Challenges*Monday, October 18, 2021 | 1:30–3:30 p.m. | ZOOM

Join the John Jay Christian Regenhard Center for Emergency Response Studies (RaCERS) and authors Jerry Tracy and Jack Murphy as they discuss their forthcoming book on advancements in firefighting in tall buildings, which is co-authored by two John Jay alumni.

Contact: Christian Regenhard Center for Emergency Response StudiesEmail: cjennings@jjay.cuny.eduIndustry Changes in Security and Protection Management & Law Enforcement Since 9/11*Tuesday, October 19, 2021 | 6:00–7:00 p.m. | ZOOM

There are many John Jay College alumni in the Law Enforcement and the Security/Protection Management industries who were directly and indirectly impacted by the events of September 11th. Alumni in these careers will share how their industries have evolved as a result of the 9/11 tragedy.

Contact: Rosann Santos | Email: rsantos@jjay.cuny.eduPanel Discussion: Emergency Response Since 9/11*Tuesday, November 9, 2021 | 1:30–3:30 p.m. | ZOOM

Join the John Jay Christian Regenhard Center for Emergency Response Studies (RaCERS) in a discussion about the progress in public safety practices and the challenges facing Law Enforcement, Fire & EMS in the post 9/11 era.

Contact: Christian Regenhard Center for Emergency Response StudiesEmail: cjennings@jjay.cuny.eduForensic Science and 9/11 Victim Identification – Seminar 3: Lessons Learned*Thursday, November 18, 2021 | 4:00–5:00 p.m. | ZOOM

The victim identification work of the NYC Office of Chief Medical Examiner was groundbreaking and fostered many scientific innovations. Dr. Amanda Sozer will present "lessons learned after 9/11 and how revised victim identification procedures were applied to other mass fatality incidents"

Contact: Prof. Mechthild Prinz | Email: mprinz@jjay.cuny.eduLearning from Disaster: The Federal Role Post 9/11*Tuesday, December 2, 2021 | 1:30–3:30 p.m. | ZOOM

Join the John Jay Christian Regenhard Center for Emergency Response Studies (RaCERS) in conversation about post-9/11 legislation and federal policy.

Contact: Christian Regenhard Center for Emergency Response StudiesEmail: cjennings@jjay.cuny.eduForensic Science and 9/11 Identification-Seminar 4: Forensic Genetics*Thursday, December 9, 2021 | 4:00–5:00 p.m. | ZOOM

In 2001, DNA analysis was not yet a standard component of disaster victim identification. As the last talk in the seminar series, John Jay College faculty member Dr. Mechthild Prinz will cover the rapidly expanding role of forensic DNA analysis during the 9/11 effort.

Contact: Prof. Mechthild Prinz | Email: mprinz@jjay.cuny.edu