The John Jay College Alumni Association and the Center on Terrorism have established a special terrorism studies graduate scholarship in honor of the many John Jay College Alumni who died in the September 11th attacks. The scholarship memorializes the victims of 9/11, and supports the advanced academic studies that promote better understanding of terrorism, strategies for countering it, and policies for preventing it. This scholarship is a $2000 award (i.e., $1000 per semester for two semesters) to a graduate student studying terrorism. Students must be enrolled in at least one course for each semester. (Please refer to enclosed list)

Application Requirements

Eligible candidates must:

- be enrolled, full time or part time, in the Graduate School at John Jay College, or must be matriculated or non-matriculated alumni who have completed an undergraduate or graduate degree at John Jay;
- have a minimum 3.5 cumulative GPA;
- have completed or be enrolled in at least 1 graduate course pertaining to the Terrorism Studies Certificate Program Curriculum (refer to course list below);
- have accumulated at least 9 graduate credits or completed an undergraduate or graduate degree at John Jay, at the time of application.

Interested students must submit:

1) a John Jay General Scholarship Application [http://www.jjay.cuny.edu/GeneralScholarshipApplication.pdf]
2) a written essay of two pages (approx. 500 words) pertaining to the ways graduate education can contribute to the understanding and the prevention of terrorism, and describing their professional ambitions after graduation;
3) an unofficial copy of their graduate transcript; and
4) a recommendation letter (from a John Jay faculty member or a professional reference).

Candidates selected as finalists for the scholarship will also have a personal interview with the Alumni Association Board. Selection preference will be given to students enrolled in the M.A. Certificate Program in Terrorism Studies (http://www.jjay.cuny.edu/terrorism/macert.asp).

Interested students should submit an application with all supporting materials, including complete contact information, postmarked or delivered to Room 1285N by September 11, 2009. addressed to: Michael Scaduto; Scholarship Coordinator; 445 West 59th Street, Room 1285N; New York, NY 10019.

For more information: email mscaduto@jjay.cuny.edu; tel: 212-237-8872.

Terrorism Studies Curriculum

CRIMINAL JUSTICE COURSES

CRJ 744 – Terrorism and Politics
CRJ 746 – Terrorism & Apocalyptic Violence
CRJ 784 – Organized and Transnational Crime
CRJ 816 – Hostage Negotiation
CRJ 819 – Counter-Terrorism CJ
CRJ 826 – Interrogation and Confession: social science, legal perspectives, and current controversies
CRJ 829 – Violence Across the Globe
CRJ 832 – US Intelligence
CRJ 835 – History of Genocide
CRJ 836 – September 11th
CRJ 840 – Women and Terrorism
CRJ 850 – Intro to Homeland Security

FORENSIC SCIENCE COURSES
FOS 821 – Counter-Terrorism Technologies and Techniques

PSYCHOLOGY COURSES
PSY 729 – Psychology of Terrorism
PSY 806 – Psychology of Cults
PSY 826 – Interrogation and Confession: social science, legal perspectives, and current controversies

* Independent Study on the topic of terrorism will also apply.