A Letter from the President

It is my pleasure to introduce you to John Jay College of Criminal Justice.

Educating for justice is our mission. To accomplish this, we offer a rich liberal arts education focusing on the themes of fairness, equity and justice. We encourage robust debate on the critical issues facing our society, promote rigor in thinking and writing, and foster deep understanding of the human condition.

We celebrate the diversity of our student body. Our 14,000 students reflect the broad diversity of New York City itself, including different races, ethnic groups, ages, nationalities, religions and career interests. We consider John Jay a close-knit community, global in outlook, located on the West Side of Manhattan.

In this bulletin, you will learn about the undergraduate degrees that we offer in 19 criminal-justice related majors. These challenging programs meet the highest academic and professional standards. They prepare you for a wide range of careers and lay a foundation for graduate studies or law school.

Learning about these subjects at John Jay is at once thought-provoking and exciting because of our faculty. John Jay faculty are recognized experts in their areas of scholarship. Many are engaged in research projects around the world. Our faculty bring their real world experiences into the classroom. The faculty at John Jay enjoy fostering the academic success of their students.

Through this unique combination of distinguished faculty and innovative curriculum, we endeavor to prepare you to become ethically and socially responsible leaders for the global community.

I thank you for your interest in John Jay and hope to see you on our campus.

REQUIREMENTS FOR BACCALAUREATE DEGREES

John Jay College of Criminal Justice candidates for the baccalaureate degree (Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science) must complete at least 120 credits, composed of the general education requirements, a major and electives (no more than 4 credits of physical education activities courses may be applied in this last category). Baccalaureate candidates may also complete an optional minor or one of the special programs offered by the College. To receive a baccalaureate degree from John Jay College, students must complete at least 30 credits of coursework in residence and at least 50 percent of their majors at the College.

Baccalaureate Degree
General Education Requirements

Exposure to the liberal arts and sciences helps to create well-rounded individuals who can communicate with people in different scholarly communities and can understand problems outside their specialized area of study. By promoting the integration, synthesis and application of knowledge, general education provides individuals with an awareness of their role in a diverse culture and highlights their responsibilities to the larger community.

Candidates for the baccalaureate degree must complete 43-60 credits in general education. Students are encouraged to complete the English, mathematics and speech requirements within the first 30 credits of coursework. Students who do not complete these requirements within the first 60 credits will not be permitted to register for further coursework until these requirements have been fulfilled.

Students are advised to complete the required courses in history, literature, philosophy, ethnic studies and the social sciences (several are prerequisites for certain majors) within the first 60 credits. All remaining general education requirements should be completed within the first 96 credits or by the conclusion of the student’s junior year.

Please note: In accordance with the CUNY Board of Trustees Transfer Policy, students who have earned an Associate of Arts degree (AA) or an Associate of Science degree (AS) from a CUNY college will be deemed to have automatically fulfilled the lower division general education requirements for the baccalaureate degree. Students may, however, still be required to complete one additional course in a discipline required by John Jay College that was not part of the student’s associate degree program. Students who have earned an Associate of Applied Science degree (AAS) from a CUNY college will have their general education courses applied on a discipline-by-discipline basis to John Jay College’s lower division general education requirements.

*Students must enroll in ENG 101 or ENGS 095 in their first semester at the College except for those who are required to take remedial or developmental work in writing. All students must pass ENG 101 or ENGS 095 before registering for ENG 201 (formerly English 102).

Placement in the required English and mathematics courses is based upon results achieved on the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests and upon assessments by the Department of English and the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science. For information about the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests, see Chapter 5, Admission and Registration.

Note: Students with a strong mathematics or science background without an exemption may satisfy the general education science requirement with two laboratory-based science courses such as BIO 103-104, CHE 103-104, PHY 101-102, PHY 203-204, or the equivalent.

1. Exemption from the speech requirement is granted by the Department of Speech, Theatre and Media Studies based on extensive job-related public or small group speaking experience. Apply at the Department of Speech, Theatre and Media Studies when classes are in session. Students who are not fluent in spoken English should enroll in the sections of SPE 113 designated for non-native speakers of English. Students who require speech therapy should also apply to the department chair for special placement before they register for SPE 113.

2. Placement in or exemption from a beginning mathematics course is determined by the student’s score on the CUNY Mathematics Compass Test. Students exempt from MAT 105 can fulfill the mathematics requirement with either MAT 108 or MAT 141.

3. The foreign language requirement is a one-year sequence. It is strongly suggested that students seeking a bachelor’s degree complete the sequence within a three-semester period. Students, who have completed three years of a language at the high school level, including a passing grade on a New York State Level III Regents Examination, are exempt from the foreign language requirement. Transfer students who can provide documentation showing they have successfully completed one year of a foreign language on the college level may have fulfilled the foreign language requirement.
Please note: Students who can provide documentation of a high school degree from a foreign country and whose primary language is not English are exempt from the foreign language requirement but are not awarded any credits. Students who receive a grade of three or higher on the Advanced Placement Examination in high school are exempt from the foreign language requirement and will be awarded 6 credits, which may be applied toward a minor in a foreign language. Credit by examination (up to a maximum of 6 credits) or exemption by examination may be obtained by taking the CLEP examination. For additional information, see Chapter 5, Admission and Registration. In addition, American Sign Language shall be accepted on the same basis as all other languages in fulfillment of John Jay’s foreign language requirement for graduation.

4 Students who have completed three years of science in high school (9th-year general science plus two years of New York State Regents credit) are exempt from taking NSC 107 but are still required to take another laboratory-based science course. To confirm exemption, students must fill out the appropriate form at the Office of the Registrar. Students who have completed two years of science in high school (9th-year general science plus one year of Regents credit) must take NSC 107 and one additional course, or pass a placement examination and then take one course other than NSC 107. Students cannot take NSC 107 after they have taken any other science course at John Jay College.

5 Students who have received physical education credit for their military training, or police, fire, or corrections academy, or other comparable agency training are exempt from this requirement.

REMEDIAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL COURSES

Entering students whose scores on the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests and whose assessments by the appropriate academic departments require that they enroll in remedial or developmental courses must do so within the first 20 credits taken at the College. Students who fail these courses are required to enroll in them again during the next semester of attendance.

The following remedial and developmental courses and their SEEK equivalents are offered, among others, at the College:

Students who receive two grades of F, WU, R, or any combination thereof in any of the remedial or developmental courses listed here are not permitted to continue at the College. Students may not appeal the denial of registration.

BACCALAUREATE MAJORS

Students select a major upon application to the College. Majors may be changed at any time before graduation. To change a major, a student should fill out an Undergraduate Declaration of Major Form at the Office of the Registrar. Forms are also available on the Registrar’s Office website at [http://www.jjay.cuny.edu/registrar (under Downloadable Forms)]

John Jay College of Criminal Justice offers the following majors for baccalaureate degree candidates:

- Computer Information Systems in Criminal Justice and Public Administration (BS)
- Correctional Studies (BS)
- Criminal Justice (BA)
- Criminal Justice (BS)
- Criminal Justice Administration and Planning (BS)
- Criminology (BA)
- Deviant Behavior and Social Control (BA)

• Judicial Studies (BA)
• Justice Studies (BA)
• Legal Studies (BS)
• Police Studies (BS)
• Public Administration (BA)
• Security Management (BS)

Students are urged to consult with an academic advisor or the major coordinator to plan their courses of study. Students may also consult DegreeWorks through the CUNY Portal. An audit sheet for each major can be picked up in the Counseling Department. Prerequisites for beginning each major are listed in the major description. Be aware that individual courses may have their own prerequisites. Students are advised to read carefully all course descriptions in this bulletin and consult DegreeWorks when planning their schedules in addition to consulting with an advisor.

Please note: ENG 101 is a prerequisite for students wishing to enroll in 200-level courses and ENG 102 or ENG 201 is a prerequisite for students wishing to enroll in 300-level courses or above.

COMPUTER INFORMATION SYSTEMS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
(Bachelor of Science)

The major in computer information systems in criminal justice and public administration focuses on software development, information systems design and the modeling of public systems, using the techniques of operations research. In addition to fulfilling basic requirements in computer science, operations research and mathematics, students must complete an applied specialization in computer applications in either criminal justice or public administration.

Credits required. 42

Prerequisites: MAT 141*, 204, and 241–242. MAT 141 fulfills the College’s general education requirements in mathematics.

In the Public Administration Specialization, any one of the following courses
ANT 101, ECO 101, GOV 101, PSY 101, or SOC 101 is a prerequisite for PAD 240. (This prerequisite also partially fulfills the general education requirement in the social sciences.)

* Students with a strong high school mathematics background that includes trigonometry and pre-calculus may be exempt from MAT 141. In such cases, consultation with the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science is suggested. Students should consult the Testing Office regarding exemption through the CUNY Mathematics Compass Test.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE (Bachelor of Science)

The criminal justice (BS) major provides a broad understanding of major components of the criminal justice system. It will interest students who plan careers in various law enforcement, judicial, or correctional agencies at the local, state, or federal level. It also provides an academic foundation for students who plan to attend graduate or professional schools. The Bachelor of Science degree differs from the Bachelor of Arts degree because of its emphasis on the institutions of criminal justice, particularly the police, courts and corrections.

Credits required. 33

Prerequisites: GOV 101 and SOC 101. Students are strongly urged to complete these courses during their first year in the College. These courses fulfill the College’s general education requirements in the social sciences. CRJ 101 is the required first course within the major.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION AND PLANNING

(Bachelor of Science)

The criminal justice administration and planning major focuses on planning, policy analysis, policy implementation and management as applied to the criminal justice system. The major is designed to introduce students to the American criminal justice system, expose students to management issues and methods based on a chosen area of the criminal justice system or disciplinary perspective, introduce ethical considerations, and provide students with basic academic and management skills.

Credits required. 36

Prerequisite: GOV 101

Required courses in the Juvenile Justice concentration also require SOC 101 as a prerequisite. Required courses in the Economics and Crime and Analysis of Economic Crime concentrations also require ECO 101 as a prerequisite. Each of these courses partially fulfills the general education requirements in the social sciences.

Advisor. Professor Richard Culp, Department of Public Management (212-237-8929, rculp@jjay.cuny.edu)

Baccalaureate/Master’s Program in Criminal Justice Administration and Planning. DEVIANT BEHAVIOR AND SOCIAL CONTROL
(Bachelor of Arts)

The major in deviant behavior and social control is designed to provide students with a basic interdisciplinary understanding of important social problems and institutional responses to treat and control them. This major teaches students the ethnographic and ethnological skills necessary to do professional field research, while maintaining strong interdisciplinary content. This major is relevant to a number of social service careers including social work, social research, protective and corrective services, probation, parole, community reintegration and treatment. The research, writing and broad interdisciplinary training also provide majors with the background necessary for graduate programs in social work, law, or the social sciences. The core requirements pertain to theory and research, while electives demonstrate applications of these to particular problems.

Credits required. 33

Prerequisites: ANT 101 and SOC 101. These courses fulfill the College’s general education requirements in the social sciences.

Advisor. Professor Elizabeth Hegeman, Department of Anthropology (212-237-8289, ehegeman@jjay.cuny.edu)

FIRE SCIENCE
(Bachelor of Science)
The major in fire science prepares students for careers in fire protection and for graduate-level protection studies.

Credits required. 48

Prerequisites: MAT 241 is the prerequisite for PHY 203. MAT 242 is a co-requisite for PHY 203. These courses will fulfill the mathematics general education requirements.

MAT 242 and PHY 203 are prerequisites for PHY 204.

The prerequisite for CHE 103 is placement into MAT 141 or higher; or placement into MAT 104 or MAT 105 and a score of 80% or higher in the New York State Chemistry Regents. Placement is determined by the CUNY Mathematics Compass Exam. Students who did not take the New York State Chemistry Regents will need the permission of the Department of Sciences.

The prerequisite for CHE 104 is CHE 103; or an average grade of 2.0 or better in CHE 101 and CHE 102 or the equivalent, and completion of MAT 104 or MAT 105 or the equivalent.

Advisor. Professor Glenn Corbett, Department of Public Management
(212.237.8092, gcorbett@jjay.cuny.edu)

Additional information. This major requires one year of physics and chemistry. These courses fulfill the College’s general education requirements in science.

FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGY
(Bachelor of Arts)

The forensic psychology major is designed for students who are interested in the relationship between psychology and the criminal justice system. The program offers training in psychological theory, research methods and the application of psychological principles to specific areas in the legal system. The major provides an interdisciplinary background appropriate for students who intend to pursue careers in psychology, social work, law enforcement, or other criminal justice professions.

Credits required. 34

Prerequisite. PSY 101, which does not count toward the 34 credits required in the major. This course partially fulfills the College’s general education requirements in the social sciences. PSY 200 and STA 250 are prerequisites for PSY 311, which is required in the major.

Advisors. Professor Maureen O’Connor, Chair, Department of Psychology (212.237.8776, moconnor@jjay.cuny.edu), Professor Angela Crossman, Deputy Chair for Advising (212.237.8653, acrossman@jjay.cuny.edu), and Professor Jennifer Dysart, Deputy Chair for Undergraduate Education (212.484-1160, jdysart@jjay.cuny.edu)

Internship Program. Students can receive practical experience in forensic psychology by enrolling in PSY 378, which offers fieldwork placements in such settings as hospitals for emotionally disturbed offenders, prisons and agencies related to the family court or otherwise offering treatment services to youthful offenders.

Baccalaureate/Master’s Program in Forensic Psychology. Qualified undergraduate students may enter the BA/MA Program and thereby graduate with both a bachelor’s and a master’s degree in forensic psychology. For additional information, contact Professor Chitra Raghavan, Department of Psychology (212.237.8417, bamadirector@jjay.cuny.edu).

Senior-level requirement. Students must complete at least one 400-level course in psychology.

Additional information. Students who enrolled for the first time at the College in September 1996 or thereafter must complete the major in the form presented here. Students who enrolled prior to that date may choose either the form shown here or the earlier version of the major. A copy of the earlier version can be obtained at the Office of Undergraduate Studies or at the Lloyd George Sealy Library.

FORENSIC SCIENCE
(Bachelor of Science)
The major in forensic science is designed to provide academic and professional training for students seeking to work in forensic science laboratories as either researchers or administrators, or who are planning to pursue careers as research scientists, teachers or medical professionals. The major draws primarily from chemistry (organic, analytical and physical) with courses in biology, physics and law. Students may specialize in one of three tracks: Criminalistics, Molecular Biology, or Toxicology.

Credits required. 70 or more depending upon the completion of prerequisites (if needed).

Mathematics Requirement. Two semesters of calculus are required (MAT 241 and MAT 242). It is recommended that they be completed as soon as possible since MAT 241 is a prerequisite for PHY 203 and MAT 242 is a prerequisite for PHY 204. Physics is placed in the sophomore year of the three-year common core for all forensic science majors.

Advisor. Professor Larry Kobilinsky (212.237.8884, lkobilinsky@jjay.cuny.edu). Referrals will be made to advisors in each of the tracks within the major.
Science Internship Director. Peter Diaczuk (212.237.8983, pdiazczuk@jjay.cuny.edu)

Additional information. An internship is required for the forensic science degree. This can be fulfilled by either FOS 401 or FOS 402 (see course descriptions). The internship requirement is to be completed after the junior year in the forensic science major progression. Certain courses are offered only in the fall semesters while others are offered only in the spring semesters. Consult the course descriptions in this bulletin or the designated advisor for proper program planning. Please note that certain courses have specific prerequisites that must be taken for timely progression through the major. The chemistry or biology taken in the freshman year of the forensic science major fulfills the science component of the general education requirements.

Students who enrolled for the first time at the College in September 2007 or thereafter must complete the major in the form presented here. Students who enrolled prior to that date may choose either the form shown here or the earlier version of the major. A copy of the earlier version can be obtained at the Office of Undergraduate Studies or at the Lloyd George Sealy Library.

Prerequisite information. To be placed into BIO 103, students must have an SAT Verbal score of 520 or higher; or completion of the New York State Biology Regents with a score of at least 80%. Students who have not taken the New York State Biology Regents will need departmental permission. Students not meeting these criteria must complete the BIO 101-102 sequence (or equivalent) in lieu of BIO 103.

To be placed into CHE 103, students must be eligible to take MAT 141 or higher; or be taking MAT 104 or MAT 105 and have earned a score of 80% or higher on the New York State Chemistry Regents. Placement will be determined by the CUNY Mathematics Compass Exam. Students who did not take the New York State Chemistry Regents will need departmental permission. Students not meeting these criteria must complete the CHE 101-102 sequence (or equivalent) instead of CHE 103. For physics prerequisites, see mathematics requirement noted above.

Academic Standards/GPA Requirement. Students must maintain a GPA of 2.0 or better in the science and mathematics courses of the major to qualify for progression to the sophomore and junior level courses in the major. Students not maintaining the necessary GPA will be dropped from the major. Students may request a waiver of this requirement by appealing to the department chairperson.

INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE
(Bachelor of Arts)
The major in international criminal justice introduces students to the nature and cause of crime at the international level and to the mechanisms for its prevention and control. Components of the criminal justice system as they apply to transnational and international crime are studied, as well as the impact of international law and human rights in addressing crimes against humanity. The major is intended to equip students with the knowledge and skills needed for careers in which the globalization of crime plays an important role. It also is designed to prepare students for advanced work in graduate or professional school.

Credits required. 39

Prerequisites: ECO 101, GOV 101 and SOC 101. Any two of these courses satisfy the 6-credit general education requirement in the social sciences.

Advisor. Professor Mangai Natarajan, Department of Sociology

JUSTICE STUDIES (HUMANITIES AND JUSTICE)
(Bachelor of Arts)
The justice studies major offers students the opportunity to explore fundamental questions about justice from a humanistic, interdisciplinary perspective. Rooted in history, literature and philosophy, justice studies prepares students for basic inquiry and advanced research into issues of justice that lie behind social policy and criminal justice as well as broader problems of social morality and equity. Its courses are designed to help students develop the skills of careful reading, critical thinking and clear writing that are necessary for the pursuit of any professional career. This major provides an excellent preparation for law school and other professional programs, for graduate school in the humanities, and for careers in law, education, public policy and criminal justice.

The justice studies curriculum involves a sequence of four interdisciplinary core courses in humanities and justice (designated with the HJS prefix); six courses from a list of humanities courses in history, literature, or philosophy (HIS, LIT, PHI); and two courses from a list of four, which feature criminal justice issues as specific and central concerns (CRJ, SOC, or LAW).

Credits required. 36

Prerequisites: ENG 101-102 or ENG 101-201; one of the required general education courses in literature, history, or philosophy; one of the required general education courses in the social sciences. HJS 250: Justice in the Western Traditions is the required first course in the major.

Advisor and Program Coordinator. Professor Margaret Mikesell Tabb, Department of English (212.237.8578, mtabb@jjay.cuny.edu). Students must review their course of study with an advisor in order to insure its breadth and coherence. The program coordinator will assign a faculty advisor to each justice studies student.

Senior-level requirement. Students must complete HJS 410 Text and Theory: Senior Prospectus and HJS 415 Research Project in Humanities and Justice Studies.
Part One. Disciplinary Foundations

Subtotal: 6

Humanities and Justice 250 Justice in the Western Traditions
Humanities and Justice 315 Research Methods in Humanities and Justice Studies

Part Two. The Disciplinary Component:
History and/or Literature and/or Philosophy (six courses)

Subtotal: 18

Students take six advanced elective courses in one or more of the humanities disciplines in order to explore how the fundamental assumptions, methods and general subject matter of these disciplines relate to issues of justice. These courses will be chosen by the student, in consultation with an advisor, from the following list or from a designated list of other humanities courses being taught in any particular semester. Permission by the justice studies coordinator is required for each of the designated courses to count toward the major. A minimum of 12 credits must be taken at the 300-level or above.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

(Bachelor of Arts)
The major in public administration examines decision making and management in public agencies. It introduces students to the field of public administration, including its scope, content, literature and relationship to other disciplines. The curriculum offers a basic understanding of the environment of public policy, including political and legal institutions and processes; economic and social institutions and processes; organization and management concepts; human resources administration; concepts and techniques of finance management; and quantitative and qualitative analytical skills.

Prerequisites: In Part Two, Administrative Skills and Methods: ENG 102 or ENG 201 is a prerequisite to ENG 235; MAT 108 or 141 is a prerequisite to STA 250.

Advisor. Professor Patrick O’Hara, Department of Public Management (212.237.8086, pohara@jjay.cuny.edu)

Baccalaureate/Master’s Program in Public Administration. Qualified undergraduate students may enter the Baccalaureate/Master’s Program and thereby graduate with both a bachelor’s and a master’s degree in public administration. For additional information, please contact Professor Chitra Raghavan, Department of Psychology (212.237.8417, bamadirector@jjay.cuny.edu).

Additional information. Students who enrolled for the first time at the College in September 1998 or thereafter must complete the major in the form presented here. Students who enrolled prior to that date may choose either the form shown here or the earlier version of the major. A copy of the earlier version can be obtained at the Office of Undergraduate Studies or at the Lloyd George Sealy Library.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ASSOCIATE DEGREES
John Jay College awards the Associate in Science degree, which can serve as a useful halfway mark toward the baccalaureate degree. Credits for all courses taken in fulfillment of the associate degree are applicable toward the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science at John Jay College, although the associate degree is not a prerequisite for the baccalaureate degree.
The associate degree requires a minimum of 60 credits; at least half must be earned in residence at John Jay. Students who have completed 90 or more credits may not apply for the associate degree. From 21-35 (exclusive of exemptions) of the credits for the degree are earned in the general education requirements listed as follows.

The Associate in Science degree program offers four concentrations: correction administration, criminal justice, police studies and security management. Students should note that upon transfer to a baccalaureate degree program at the College, most but not all courses taken to fulfill associate degree requirements will be applicable toward the fulfillment of the requirements in a major. Accordingly, students should check all requirements before making course selections. Certain overall prerequisites are listed in the description of each concentration, but be aware that individual courses may have their own prerequisites. Students should read all course descriptions when they plan their programs and consult with the advisor in their concentration.

Associate Degree General Education Requirements
Candidates for the associate degree must complete 28-38 credits in general education. The required courses are listed below. Students are encouraged to complete the English, mathematics, and speech requirements within the first 20 credits of coursework.

Total: 28-38
In accordance with the CUNY Board of Trustees Transfer Policy, students who have earned an Associate in Science degree (AS) from John Jay College will be deemed to have automatically fulfilled the lower division general education requirements for the baccalaureate degree. Students, may, however, still be required to complete one additional course in a discipline required by the College that was not part of the student’s associate degree program.

Exemption from the speech requirement is granted by the Department of Speech, Theatre and Media Studies based on extensive job-related public or small group speaking experience. Apply at the Department of Speech, Theatre and Media Studies at any time when classes are in session. Students who are not fluent in spoken English should enroll in sections of SPE 113 designated for non-native English speakers. Students who require speech therapy should also apply to the department chair for special placement before they register for SPE 113.

Placement in mathematics is determined by the Testing Office under the guidance of the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science based on the CUNY Mathematics Compass Test.

Students who have completed three years of science in high school (9th-year General Science plus two years of New York State Regents credit) are exempt from taking NSC 107.

Students who have received physical education credit for their military training or police, corrections, or fire academy, or other comparable agency training are exempt from this requirement.

REMEDIAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL COURSES

Entering students whose scores on the CUNY Skills Assessments Tests and whose assessments by the appropriate academic departments require that they enroll in remedial or developmental courses must do so within the first 20 credits taken at the College. Students who do not pass these courses are required to enroll in them again during the next semester of attendance.

The following remedial and developmental courses and their SEEK equivalents are offered, among others, at the College:

- ENG 100/ENGS 093 and 094
- MAT 100/MATS 095
- MAT 103
- COM 101/COMS 101
- COM 102/COMS 102
- SPE 101

Students who receive two grades of F, WU, R, or any combination thereof in any of the remedial or developmental courses listed here are not permitted to continue at the College. Students may not appeal the denial of registration.

ASSOCIATE DEGREES

CORRECTION ADMINISTRATION

(Associate in Science)

The AS degree with a concentration in correction administration is appropriate for students preparing for entry-level positions in institutional or community corrections as well as for correctional professionals who wish to improve their skills and add to their knowledge. It can be used as a foundation for the baccalaureate degree in correctional studies.

Credits required. 24

Prerequisites: PSY 101. In addition, students are strongly encouraged to take SOC 101 and GOV 101 with this degree. Each of these courses partially satisfies the general education requirements in the social sciences.

Advisor. Professor Lior Gideon, Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration (212.237.8991, lgideon@jjay.cuny.edu)

Additional Information. Students who enrolled for the first time at the College in September 1995 or thereafter must complete the degree in the form presented here. Students, who enrolled prior to that date, may choose the form shown here, or the earlier version of the major. A copy of the earlier version can be obtained at the Office of Undergraduate Studies or at the Lloyd George Sealy Library.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

(Associate in Science)

The AS degree with a concentration in criminal justice provides a broad foundation for careers in any part of the criminal justice system. It is appropriate for students who have not yet made a specific career choice. This associate degree can also be used as a stepping stone for a bachelor’s degree. With the help of the criminal justice advisor, a student can work out a plan to earn this degree and then go on to a bachelor’s degree in most of the College’s majors without having to take any extra courses.

Credits required: 24

Prerequisites: GOV 101. This course partially fulfills the general education requirement in the social sciences.

Advisor. Professor Staci Strobl, Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration (212.237.8037, sstrobl@jjay.cuny.edu)
POLICE STUDIES

(Associate in Science)
The AS degree with a concentration in police studies is designed for those students interested in careers in law enforcement. It contains courses related to the professional knowledge and skills inherent in law enforcement. It may be used as a stand alone degree program for those who seek to enhance employability; or, in addition, as a specific, tangible accomplishment en route to the attainment of the baccalaureate degree.

Credits required. 24

Prerequisites: GOV 101. This course partially fulfills the general education requirement in the social sciences. In addition, PSC 101 must be taken by students with no law enforcement experience. GOV 101 is the prerequisite for LAW 203.

Advisor. Professor Peter Moskos, Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration (212-237-8393, pmoskos@jjay.cuny.edu)

Additional information. Students who enrolled for the first time at the College in September 1996 or thereafter must complete the degree in the form presented here. Students who enrolled prior to that date may choose the form shown here, or the earlier version of the degree. A copy of the earlier version can be obtained at the Office of Undergraduate Studies or at the Lloyd George Sealy Library.

Please note: Students considering the possibility of completing a baccalaureate degree in police studies should first consult with an advisor since all courses in this degree are not applicable toward fulfillment of the requirements for the baccalaureate degree program in police studies.

Credits
Psychology 213/Sociology 213 Race and Ethnic Relations
Psychology 271/Police Science 271 Psychological Foundations of Police Work
Public Administration 240 Introduction to Public Administration
Puerto Rican/Latin American Studies Sociology 241
  The Puerto Rican Experience in Urban United States Settings
Sociology 203 Criminology
Speech 204 Group Discussion and Conference Techniques
Speech 285 Courtroom Communication

SECURITY MANAGEMENT
( Associate in Science)
Security, the protection of assets from loss, is a vital industry that safeguards and enhances interests of the private, public and institutional sectors. The AS degree with a concentration in security management prepares students to enter and advance in a variety of occupational opportunities including physical security, program planning, training and investigation. Degree recipients are urged to pursue their studies through the Bachelor of Science degree, or beyond.

Credits required.  21–24

Prerequisites: ECO 101, GOV 101 and SOC 101. Two of these courses fulfill the general education requirement in the social sciences.

Advisor. Professor Thomas Sunderland, Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration (212-484-1333, tsndrind@jjay.cuny.edu)

Additional information. Students who enrolled for the first time at the College in September 1995 or thereafter must complete the degree in the form presented here. Students, who enrolled prior to that date, may choose the form shown here, or the earlier version of the degree. A copy of the earlier version can be obtained at the Office of Undergraduate Studies or at the Lloyd George Sealy Library.

BACCALAUREATE/MASTER’S DEGREE PROGRAM

The Baccalaureate/Master’s Degree Program (BA/MA) provides academically advanced students the opportunity to pursue simultaneously the baccalaureate and master’s degrees. It is available to students studying criminal justice, forensic psychology and public administration. The number of undergraduate electives and courses in the major are reduced for BA/MA candidates, thus enabling them to begin graduate courses once they have fulfilled the college general education requirements and some of the requirements of their major. Graduate courses then fulfill certain undergraduate requirements.

Degree Requirements

Students receive both the bachelor’s and master’s degrees upon completion of the requirements of this program. The BA/MA Program in Criminal Justice requires either 128 credits and a master’s thesis, or 134 credits and the passing of a comprehensive examination. The BA/MA Programs in Forensic Psychology and Public Administration each require the completion of 134 credits.

For each of these programs, the entire graduate course of study must be completed (see program requirements below). Students who are interested in the BA/MA Program are encouraged to meet with the BA/MA Director early in their academic career.

Eligibility

To be eligible for admission, students must complete 60 credits (including the college general education requirements) and have earned a 3.5 or better grade point average (GPA). This is a minimum requirement for eligibility and does not guarantee acceptance into the program.

Applicants must also submit a personal statement indicating why they are seeking admission, a recommendation from a faculty member, and a writing sample that is representative of their research/writing skills. Applications are reviewed each fall for spring admission and each spring for fall admission. Further application instructions are available through the BA/MA web site accessed through the John Jay College Home page (www.jjay.cuny.edu).

Combined degree program requirements: Credits

Baccalaureate/Master’s Programs

- MA in Criminal Justice  30–36
  - BA in Criminal Justice
  - BS in Criminal Justice
  - BS in Criminal Justice Administration and Planning
  - BS in Police Studies

- MA (Forensic Psychology)  39
  - BA in Forensic Psychology

- MPA (Public Administration)  42
  - BS in Criminal Justice Administration and Planning
  - BA in Public Administration

For additional information, contact Professor Chitra Raghavan, Director of the BA/MA Program, 212-237-8417, e-mail: bamadirector@jjay.cuny.edu.

Baccalaureate/Master’s Program and the Thesis Alternative

BA/MA students in the Criminal Justice Program who choose to complete the alternative to the thesis requirement for their master’s degree must complete a total of 134 credits, 36 of which must be graduate credits. BA/MA students in the Public Administration Program must complete 134 credits, 42 of which must be graduate credits. BA/MA students in the Forensic Psychology Program must complete 134 credits, 39 of which must be graduate credits.
The following courses are expected to be offered during the 2007–2008 academic year. However, students should note that course offerings are dependent upon sufficient student registration, availability of faculty, and financial constraints.

COURSE LISTING

This course listing is arranged by subject category and then alphabetically within each by the course prefix. Each course is designated not only by its number, but also by a three-letter prefix. The subject categories and their corresponding prefixes are noted:

AFRICAN-AMERICAN STUDIES

AAD 230 African-American Theatre
(Same course as Drama 230)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of the development of the African-American theatre considering selected works of such playwrights as Langston Hughes, Lorraine Hansberry, James Baldwin, Imamu Amiri Baraka (LeRoi Jones), Ed Bullins, Charles Gordone, Douglas Turner Ward, Adrienne Kennedy, Ron Milner, Ben Caldwell, Philip Hayes Dean, Richard Wesley and Joseph A. Walker, as well as such production companies as the Spirit House Players and Movers, the Negro Ensemble Company, and the Afro-American Studio Theatre. Plays focusing on such areas as ethnic identity, lifestyles and nationalism will be examined.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and sophomore standing or above.

AAE 250 Political Economy of Racism
(Formerly AAE 290)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of the role of racism in the development of American capitalism. Examination of the impact of racism on the distribution of income, wealth and economic opportunity. Analysis of the role of racism in the economics of historical experiences such as slavery, Reconstruction, migration and urbanization, as well as in its role in the economics of contemporary business cycles and of on-going long term transformations of both the American and global economies.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and ECO 101 or ECO 102

AAG 270 African Politics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Prerequisite: ENG 101

AAH 150 Origins of Contemporary Africa
(Formerly AAH 195)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An introduction to the history of Africa from the decline of the Songhay Empire to the present. Survey of cultural, economic and political developments that have shaped contemporary Africa.

AAH 166 Histories of the Caribbean Islands
(Same course as HIS 166 and PLH 166)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A broad survey of the Caribbean Island nations and territories from the beginnings of European colonization until the present. Particular attention will be given to the economic and social aspects of the evolution and to the problems of unity and diversity.

AAH 263 African Heritage in the Caribbean
(Same course as PLH 263)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
From an interdisciplinary perspective, this course examines the social and political forces in the contemporary Caribbean. The course will focus on the following: the legacy of slavery, plantation society and underdevelopment, democracy, capitalism and socialism, race, class and ethnic conflict.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and sophomore standing or above or permission of the section instructor.

AAH 267 History of Caribbean Migrations to the United States
(Same course as PLH 267 and HIS 267)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A comparative study of the most significant aspects of the Caribbean migrations to the U.S. during the 20th century. Emphasis on political, economic and social framework of the migration process. Special attention will be given to the contemporary situations of the Haitian, Hispanic and West Indian communities in the U.S.
Prerequisite: ENG 101, and sophomore standing or above or permission of the section instructor.
AAH 270 The History of African-American Social and Intellectual Thought
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An historical survey of the principal ideas, ideologies and intellectual currents in the African-American community including the shifting emphases on assimilation, Pan-Africanism and nationalism. Major organizations and movements and key individuals who have shaped African-American thought. Examination of the impact of these ideas on American thought and culture.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and ETH 123

AAH 275 African-American Military History and Social Justice
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course examines the experience of African Americans in U.S. military history and the social justice issues that shaped their lives from the American revolutionary period through current conflicts. Discussions will examine social justice issues that influence the actions of non-citizen black soldiers during the revolutionary period as “fugitives” and insurrectionists and as citizen soldiers in the Civil War, up to more recent military operations including Iraq. Critical social justice issues such as biased comeback assignments, segregated units, conflicts with civilians, sexual exploitation, combat post-traumatic stress syndrome, inequities associated with the G.I. Bill, etc., will be discussed in their relationship to larger societal issues, such as, institutional racism and poverty. In this regard, the emergence of the “Double V” social philosophy for African-American military personnel during World War II will be analyzed for its current relevancy.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and ETH 123, ETH 125, HIS 201, or HIS 202

AAI 410 Independent Study
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An intensive individualized reading course in which a significant topic, issue, or area of interest in African-American Studies is pursued under the guidance of a member of the faculty. A research paper is required.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, six credits in African-American Studies, and senior status, or permission of the section instructor.

AAJ 210 Drugs and Crime in Africa
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course examines drugs and crime from an African perspective. It traces the history of cannabis use in sub-Saharan Africa. The course also examines how Africa was used by drug traffickers as a transit point for heroin and cocaine destined for Europe and the United States. The course also examines how the international drug trafficking spillover effect has resulted in consumption of hard drugs and psychotropic substances in sub-Saharan African countries. The drugs’ use and misuse are examined in relation to the emergence of drug addicts, HIV/AIDS and other health problems, crime, homelessness, unemployment, violence and organized crime. It will also examine the role played by police narcotics units and the emergence of Narcotic Control Boards.
Prerequisite: ENG 101

AAJ 220 Law and Justice in Africa (Formerly AAJ 293)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Examination of the philosophical base of African customary law. Traditional theories of crime prevention, punishment, and the dispensation of justice in selected pre-colonial African societies. The enforcement of laws by the traditional community and traditional courts, and community involvement in the prevention of crime. African laws under colonialism and in contemporary independent nations.
Prerequisite: ENG 101

AAJ 225 Police and Law in Africa (Formerly AAJ 295)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will study the role of the police as a law enforcement arm of government and as a peacekeeping force. The study will focus on the role of the police in the pre-colonial period of Africa, the colonial period and the period after independence. In each of these periods, the study will highlight the type of laws that were used to govern the populace. The body of laws include: a) African community law, as used during the pre-colonial period; b) Colonial laws during the colonial era; c) Modern African law, being a combination of African customary law and the recent laws inundated by the national legislation.
Prerequisite: ENG 101
AAJ 229 Restoring Justice: Making Peace and Resolving Conflict
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will focus on examples of restorative justice from Africa and the Pacific Islands, a seldom-considered part of the African Diaspora. To that end, this course will explore how an African philosophy of “ubuntu” (or "humanity towards others") influences Africa’s notions of justice, community and suffering. Comparisons will be drawn with traditional western views of restorative justice. Unlike the traditional justice system found in the U.S. and in other parts of the world that focus on punishing criminal behavior, restorative justice mirrors the way that disputes are settled in tribes — offenders make amends not only to victims but their communities.

AAJ 230 Comparative Perspectives on Crime in the Caribbean
(Same course as PLJ 230)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will examine crime in the Caribbean with a particular focus on the differences and similarities among the Spanish-, English-, French- and Dutch-speaking nations of the Caribbean region. The course will study the trends in crime in the Caribbean from a comparative perspective, and the methods employed by various individual nations to help diminish crime and delinquency. The specific topics to be studied include political crime and offenses, political corruption, drug dealing and trafficking, juvenile delinquency, domestic violence and sexual assault in the Caribbean. This course can be used to satisfy requirements for the international criminal justice major.

Prerequisite: ENG 101

AAL 223 African-American Literature
(Same course as LIT 223)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of the writing of African Americans from colonial times to the present, with special attention to influential African-American writers such as W. E. B. Du Bois, Toomer, Hughes, Wright, Brooks, Ellison, Baldwin, Baraka and Malcolm X. Readings in novels, plays, autobiographies, short stories, poems, folktales and essays will explore a wide range of African-American aesthetic responses to life in the United States.

Prerequisites: ENG 101, and ENG 102 or ENG 201

AAL 340 The African-American Experience in America: Comparative Racial Perspectives
(Same course as LIT 340)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An examination of African-American life through the works of both African-American and white writers. The course will look at the inter-relationships and differences between African-American and white perspectives. Authors such as W. E. B. Du Bois, Melville, Wright, Baldwin, Mark Twain, Faulkner, Ellison, Welty and Baraka will be read.

Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

AAP 129 The Psychology of the African-American Experience
(Same course as PSY 129)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

AAP 240 Psychology of Oppression
(Same course as PSY 240)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of the origins of oppression and its psychological effects on various racial and ethnic groups. Comparative analysis of the responses of African-Americans and other selected groups to oppression. Examination of the similarities and differences in patterns of adaptation to abuses of power and authority.

Prerequisites: ENG 101, and AAP 129/PSY 129 or PSY 101
AAP 245 Psychology of the African-American Family
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will examine and analyze critical psychological theories and research that address various forms of the African-American family. There will be an overview of the political, cultural and economic factors that have contributed to both the forms and functions of the African-American family over the past 400 years. Students will also closely examine current family forms such as extended family, single parent families and nuclear families. They will also discuss the role that both resident and non-resident fathers play, the challenges of gender and the role of education. Students will utilize material from diverse data sets including census data, various theoretical approaches and personal experiences to develop an appreciation of the psychological dynamics of various forms of African-American family life.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and ETH 123 or ETH 125

AAR 310 Research Seminar in African-American Studies
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Seminar and research project addressing a selected contemporary or historical issue of significance in African-American Studies. Research paper utilizing basic research methodologies required.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, six credits in African-American Studies, and junior standing or above, or permission of the section instructor.

AAS 110 Race and the Urban Community
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An introduction to problems of contemporary race relations in major urban areas with particular emphasis on the impact of race and racism on the interactions between the African-American community and other racial or ethnic groups.

AAS 215 The Police and the Ghetto
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Examination of the various perspectives on the nature of police roles in urban African-American communities including perceptions of police as law enforcement agents and as preservers of social order. Functional analysis of crime and of police roles in the ghettoization of communities.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and AAS 110 or AAS 121

AAS 237 Institutional Racism (Formerly AAS 293)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A critical examination of policies and informal practices of organizations and institutions and of laws and regulations that have adversely affected social and economic opportunities and outcomes for African-Americans. Forms, impacts and responses to racism in such areas as the design and implementation of social programs, the criminal justice system, education, employment and business.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and one of the following: ETH 123, AAS 110, AAS 121 or SOC 101

ANTHROPOLOGY

ANT 101 Introduction to Anthropology
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Comparative study of cultures, or ways of life, of people around the world, with emphasis on non-Western, preliterate cultures. Examples may include Native American peoples, South American tribal peoples, the Amish, Gypsies, and the Inuit (Eskimos) of northern Canada and Alaska. Analysis of major aspects of culture, including language; marriage, birthing and child rearing; family and kinship; law, government, and social control; and religion.

ANT 110 Drug and Alcohol Use and Abuse in American Society
(Same course as PSY 110 and SOC 110)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An overview of drug substances and drug abuse as considered from various approaches, including types and patterns of drug abuse, symptoms, causes, treatment modalities and other related factors. Specific drug substances are discussed, along with resultant psychological and physiological effects. Attention is paid to legal, cultural and educational factors as they relate to drug abuse prevention. Consideration of the relationship between urban living and drug use.
ANT 208 Cities and Culture
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The basic concepts and perspectives of anthropology are used to examine the many different subcultures and groups that make up the urban environment, both in the United States and in other complex societies. It examines how these groups both conflict and cooperate with each other, as they compete for urban space and urban resources. The course includes examination of deviant behavior, as it exists within the context of the urban environment, and the ways in which the special characteristics of cities relate to the emergence and maintenance of a great diversity of lifestyles and subcultures.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and sophomore standing or above.

ANT 210 Sex and Culture
(Same course as PSY 210 and SOC 210)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Study of behavioral and psychological differences between males and females in the light of contemporary theories of social structure, social learning and individual development. Emphasis on the examination of contemporary theoretical issues in cross-cultural perspective.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and sophomore standing or above.

ANT 212 Applied Anthropology
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Consideration of past, present and future applications of anthropology and fieldwork techniques in such areas as criminal justice, education, mental health, demography, medicine and areas involving change.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and ANT 101

ANT 214 Spiritualism, Religion and Magic
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Cross-cultural study of religious beliefs and practices and the ways in which they are related to other aspects of culture including deviance and social control.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and sophomore standing or above.

ANT 224 Death, Dying and Society:
A Life Crises Management Issue
(Same course as PHI 224, PSY 224 and SOC 224)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Death and dying will be viewed from the perspectives of a variety of academic disciplines and applied fields. The course will deal with the dying process: the different cultural practices and beliefs related to this process; its impact on the individual and his or her family, particularly in the areas of grief, mourning and restructuring of the family; and it will examine the ways different occupational groups are routinely involved with death and dying and the methods they evolve to manage it for others and cope with it themselves. The course will also explore different types of death, death at different periods in the life cycle, euthanasia, abortion and ethical, religious existential issues related to death and dying. The course will be multidisciplinary.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and an introductory course in sociology, anthropology, philosophy, or psychology.

ANT 230 Culture and Crime
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An analysis of crime and its relation to other aspects of culture in Western and non-Western societies. Topics include those who have been labeled as bandits, criminals and rebels; women who have turned to crime in an attempt to resolve the contradictions of their position; and the impact of Western culture and colonization on crime and justice in the non-Western world.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and any social science course.

ANT 310 Culture and Personality
(Same course as PSY 310 and SOC 310)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The factors in and the effects of cultural conditioning on the biological foundations of personality. A study, on a cross-cultural basis, of the conditioning factors of childcare and training, group values and attitudes, practices and culture forms, with reference to basic personality formation.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, junior standing or above, and one of the following: ANT 101, PSY 101 or SOC 101

ANT 315 Systems of Law
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and a course in anthropology or law, or junior standing or above.
ANT 330 American Cultural Pluralism and the Law

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Culturally different groups use law in the United States to assert their rights and to maintain their cultural autonomy. They may also avoid courts and solve disputes within their communities. This course examines, through legal and ethnographic cases, the ways in which culturally different groups interact with law in the United States. The groups studied may include Native Americans and Native Hawaiians, African Americans, Asian Americans, Mormons, Amish, Rastafarians, Hasidic Jews, Latinos, Gypsies, gays, women and the homeless.

Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

ANT 340 Anthropology and the Abnormal

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A study of the ways in which different societies define "abnormal behavior," with emphasis on the understanding of the societal basis of the selection and labeling of certain behaviors as "abnormal." The social uses of deviance are examined. Roles such as the shaman, the transvestite, the homosexual, the saint, the sinner, the aged and the mental defective are analyzed in the context of specific cultures. Various forms of psychological and social therapies to treat the abnormal are discussed, with examples drawn from both Western and non-Western cultures.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, ANT 101 or PSY 101, and junior standing or above.

ANT 410 Independent Study

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A study of reading and reporting planned and carried out under the guidance of a faculty member. Concerned with a selected topic, issue or area of interest in anthropology, psychology, or sociology.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and 12 credits in anthropology, or permission of the chairperson of the department and the section instructor.

ANT 445 Culture, Psychopathology and Healing (Formerly ANT 345) (Same course as PSY 445)

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

This course will study and compare models of mental illness and treatment within Western cultures, non-Western cultures and migrating populations. Cultural notions of mental illness and healing and applicability of Western models of psychopathology, psychiatry, and psychotherapy to other cultures will be considered. The evolving role of Western psychology and psychiatry within the context of globalization of health care systems will be addressed. Topics will include self and culture; emotions and culture; cross-cultural diagnosis; psychotherapists, traditional healers and shamans; the immigrant as psychiatric patient; the politics of psychiatry in world health.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, PSY 242, and junior standing or above.

ANT 450 Majors Works in Deviance and Social Control (Same course as PSY 450 and SOC 450)

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

The study of major writings on deviance and social control of 20th-century anthropologists, psychologists, and sociologists who made seminal contributions to the contemporary understanding of the subject. The course, a seminar, will include selected writings of such theorists as Ruth Benedict, Emile Durkheim, Sigmund Freud, Bronislaw Malinowski, Robert K. Merton and Thomas Szasz.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, senior standing, and majoring in deviant behavior and social control.

ART HISTORY AND STUDIO ART

ART 101 Introduction to the Visual Arts

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Through visual images, this course traces the development of art in the West by considering characteristic achievements of the major periods of history, such as the pyramids of Egypt, Gothic cathedrals, Michelangelo’s sculpture, and the painting of Vincent Van Gogh. The panorama of painting, sculpture and architecture is examined with a view to understanding the artworks as unique objects and as expressions of particular civilizations at particular moments in history.

ART 103 Art of the Italian Renaissance

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

This course covers one of the greatest periods of Western Art. It begins with the innovation of the 14th century artist Giotto and continues through 15th century, concluding with high Renaissance artists such as Leonardo, Michelangelo, and Titian.
ART 105  Modern Art
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The course considers the development of art in the modern Western world beginning with European art in the late 18th century ending with American art after World War II. The work of such major artists as David, Degas and Monet, Van Gogh and Gauguin, Picasso and Brancusi, Jackson Pollack and Andy Warhol are studied as the history of individual achievement and in the contexts of modern life.

ART 110  Ceramics Workshop
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will enable the student to design and create hand built pottery according to the principles of design, and work with various techniques of finishing, glazing, and firing. Students will learn the basic principles of three-dimensional design by studying the shapes of utilitarian as well as decorative objects in their immediate environment. In addition, they will explore pottery styles of such non-Western cultures as Japan, China, the Mayans of ancient Mexico, the Yoruba of Nigeria and the Ndebele of Zimbabwe, as well as pottery styles of the ancient Greeks and the Navaho and Pueblo Indians of the American Southwest.

ART 111  Introduction to Drawing and Painting
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Introduction to the elements of design, drawing and painting. Graphic expression through various mediums.

ART 112  Design Foundations
3 HOURS: 3 LABORATORY HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Design Foundations explores the various elements of how images are composed. Students learn to manipulate pictorial space through the study of color, line, shape, space, texture and value. In addition, students will study the creation and use of signs, patterns, and symbols from both indigenous and contemporary culture.

ART 115  Introduction to Sculpture
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Introduction to sculpture. Students will learn basic principles and techniques of creating sculpture. Through the sculpture making process, they will be encouraged to investigate their potential for expressing three-dimensional concepts. Special emphasis will be placed on the actual process of developing creative awareness by taking an idea from its inception through various stages of revision to completion in a three-dimensional form. Through visual materials such as slides, films and videotapes, as well as museum visits, students will learn about sculptures from various non-Western cultures such as Latin America, Africa and Asia.

BASIC SKILLS
(Freshman Services)

ISC 010  Basic Skills Immersion: College Orientation
3 HOURS, NO CREDIT
Orientation to academic requirements, student services, issues in general education and career planning. Study skills, time management, and adjustment to the college environment. Use of academic facilities: the Library, Writing Center, Academic Computing Center, Reading Skills Laboratory, and Mathematics Laboratory. Authorized grades: P, R, and W.

ISM 010  Basic Skills Immersion: Mathematics
3 HOURS, NO CREDIT

ISR 010  Basic Skills Immersion: Reading
3 HOURS, NO CREDIT

ISW 010  Basic Skills Immersion: Writing
3 HOURS, NO CREDIT
BIOLOGY

BIO 103   Modern Biology I
7 ½ HOURS; 3 HOURS LECTURE, 1 ½ HOURS RECITATION,
3 HOURS LABORATORY; 5 CREDITS
Modern Biology I is the first half of an in-depth exploration of the basic properties of living systems on the molecular and cellular levels.
Students will be introduced to cell structure, metabolism and respiration, photosynthesis, and genetics. Representative organisms from the prokaryotic and eukaryotic kingdoms are studied in detail. The laboratory portion of the course is designed to reinforce the concepts taught in the lecture and to teach basic laboratory skills. This course is designed for students with a science background and for forensic science majors.
Prerequisites: An SAT Verbal score of 520 or higher or completion of the New York State Biology Regents with a score of at least 80%. Students who did not take the Biology Regents will need departmental permission

BIO 104   Modern Biology II
7 ½ HOURS; 3 HOURS LECTURE, 1 ½ HOURS RECITATION,
3 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
This course is the second half of the Modern Biology sequence. It continues the in-depth exploration of the basic properties of living systems on the molecular, cellular, and organismal levels. In addition, evolution and ecology are introduced. Representative organisms from the plant and animal kingdoms are studied in detail. The laboratory portion of the course emphasizes phylogeny and teaches basic microscopy and dissection skills. This course is designed for students with a science background and for forensic science majors.
Prerequisites: BIO 103, or BIO 101-102 or equivalent with an average grade of 2.0 or higher in the two courses.

BIO 315   Genetics
3 HOURS; 3 CREDITS
Genetics is an introduction to the field of modern genetics. Topics are drawn from classical, molecular and population genetics and include the nature of genetic variation, genetic disorders, genomics, recombinant DNA and genetic engineering techniques. Emphasis is placed on quantitative analysis and problem solving.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, BIO 103-104 or BIO 101-102 and BIO 104 or equivalent. Statistics is highly recommended but not required.

BIO 412   Molecular Biology I
9 HOURS; 3 HOURS LECTURE, 6 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
Molecular Biology I provides an overview of the current concepts and techniques in molecular biology. Lecture topics include the molecular structure of cells, basic genetic mechanisms, control of gene expression in prokaryotes and eukaryotes, DNA replication, repair and recombination, and protein structure and function. The laboratory experiments introduce basic experimental techniques and research methodology including cell culture, recombinant DNA techniques, transformation, DNA extraction, electrophoresis, Southern and Western blotting, and DNA sequencing and analysis.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, BIO 315, and CHE 315

BIO 413   Molecular Biology II
9 HOURS; 3 HOURS LECTURE, 6 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
Building on the knowledge and skills acquired in Molecular Biology I (BIO 412), this course provides an in-depth treatment of special topics and techniques. Lecture topics include the regulation of the cell cycle, signal transduction, cancer, genetic control of development, and bioinformatics.
Special emphasis is placed on forensic DNA analysis. Laboratory experiments introduce advanced experimental techniques including expression vectors, RNA isolation, Northern blotting, PCR-STR analysis of simulated “crime scene samples” and DNA database construction.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and BIO 412
CHEMISTRY
Department of Sciences

CHE 100  Preparation for General Chemistry
3 HOURS, 1 CREDIT
A course in chemistry to prepare students for the level of work covered in CHE 103-104. Instruction will be given in the fundamental concepts of chemistry. The course provides the requisite skills needed to solve problems. Open to students who have not had high school chemistry or students recommended by the department.
Prerequisite: MAT 103 or the equivalent.

CHE 103  General Chemistry I
7 1/2 HOURS: 3 HOURS LECTURE, 1 1/2 HOURS RECITATION, 3 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
This is a basic course in chemistry dealing with modern atomic and molecular theory. It introduces the basic properties and reactions of the elements and the compounds, which will be explored in greater detail in General Chemistry II. Laboratory exercises stress principles of qualitative and semi-quantitative experimentation. They will foster a better understanding of chemical principles and ensure that the necessary skills are developed to work in a scientific laboratory safely and effectively. This course is designed for students with a science background and for forensic science and fire science majors. Regents level high school chemistry is highly desired.
Prerequisite: Placement into MAT 141 or higher, or placement into MAT 104 or MAT 105 and a score of 80% or higher on the New York State Chemistry Regents. Students who did not take the Chemistry Regents will need departmental permission.

CHE 104  General Chemistry II
7 1/2 HOURS: 3 HOURS LECTURE, 1 1/2 HOURS RECITATION, 3 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
This is the second half of beginning chemistry. It builds on the basic properties and reactions of the elements and the compounds learned in the first semester of general chemistry and ends with an introduction to organic chemistry. The laboratory stresses principles of qualitative and semi-quantitative experimentation and fosters competence in the skills needed to work safely and effectively in a scientific laboratory. This course is designed for students with a science background and for forensic science and fire science majors. Regents level high school chemistry is desired.
Prerequisites: CHE 103, or an average grade of 2.0 or better in CHE 101-102 or equivalent, and completion of MAT 104 or MAT 105 or equivalent.

CHE 201-202  Organic Chemistry
7 1/2 HOURS EACH: 3 HOURS LECTURE, 1 1/2 HOURS RECITATION, 3 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
Introductory study of properties and behavior of organic molecules, including nomenclature, structure and bonding, reaction mechanisms, synthetic methods, and modern spectroscopic techniques for structural analysis. Concurrent laboratory work utilizing modern semi-micro methodology for synthesis, purification and analysis.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, CHE 104, which is a prerequisite for CHE 201. CHE 201 is a prerequisite for CHE 202.

CHE 220  Quantitative Analysis
9 HOURS: 3 HOURS LECTURE, 6 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
A balanced treatment of the classical methods of gravimetric and volumetric analysis, including acid-base, precipitation, complexometric and redox titrations.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and CHE 104

CHE 301  Physical Chemistry I
6 HOURS: 3 HOURS LECTURE, 1 HOUR RECITATION, 2 HOURS LABORATORY; 3 CREDITS
An introductory course in thermodynamics and chemical kinetics, including ideal and real gases, laws of thermodynamics, changes of state, first and second order reactions, reaction rate theory, and catalysis.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, CHE 104, PHY 203-204, and MAT 241

CHE 302  Physical Chemistry II
6 HOURS: 3 HOURS LECTURE, 2 HOURS LABORATORY, 1 HOUR RECITATION; 3 CREDITS
Introductory quantum chemistry. Schroedinger equation; molecular orbital and valence bond theory; electrical and magnetic properties of matter; theoretical and applied spectroscopy; introductory ligand field theory.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, CHE 104, PHY 203-204, and MAT 241
CHE 310  Scientific Arson Investigation

3 HOURS LECTURE, 3 CREDITS

An introduction to the problems and techniques of fire investigation. The chemistry of fire and the combustion properties of selected fuels. Emphasis on investigative methods and on the application and assistance of various scientific aids available to the fire investigator.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, a one-year college-level course in general chemistry and an introductory course in organic chemistry.

CHE 315  Biochemistry

6 HOURS: 3 HOURS LECTURE, 3 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS

This course provides a fundamental and detailed introduction to modern biochemistry. Lecture topics include amino acids and proteins, nucleic acids, lipids, carbohydrates, classical bioenergetics and metabolism. Emphasis is placed on contemporary applications of protein and nucleic acid biochemistry. Forensic applications of and special topics in biochemistry are integrated with the course material. Modern laboratory procedures in biochemistry including biomolecular purification, analysis, and spectroscopic thermodynamic and kinetic techniques are introduced. Current methods of graphical presentation and mathematical analysis of experimental data are applied.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, BIO 104, CHE 201-202, and MAT 241

CHE 320-321  Instrumental Analysis

9 ½ HOURS: 1 ½ HOURS LECTURE, 8 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS

Introduction to instrumental analysis of physical evidence. Emphasis on the theory and use of those analytical instruments commonly found in forensic and other quantitative industrial and clinical laboratories. Laboratory methods include ultraviolet and infrared spectrophotometry, emission spectrogaphy, X-ray diffractometry, thin-layer and gas chromatography and the use of electronic test equipment for troubleshooting.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, CHE 104, CHE 201-202, CHE 220, and CHE 302

CHE 450  Independent Study

HOURS TO BE ARRANGED, 3 CREDITS

Intense study and research in a specific area directed by a faculty member. Advanced laboratory techniques and research methodologies are utilized.

Prerequisites: Permission of the instructor and completion of sophomore-level science courses. Special arrangements may be made to do this work over the summer.

CHINESE

(Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures)

CHI 101  Elementary Chinese

3 HOURS, 10 LAB HOURS PER SEMESTER; 3 CREDITS

This course is for students with little or no previous knowledge of Mandarin Chinese. Mandarin Chinese will be introduced through intensive drills of its oral and written forms. Emphasis is placed on speaking and basic grammar as well as the formation of the characters. It will focus on the most essential language items, such as sound patterns, sentence structures and basic vocabulary, which are useful in everyday Chinese conversation. No credit will be given for CHI 101 if taken after the completion of CHI 102. Ten lab hours required.

CHI 102  Elementary Chinese II

3 HOURS, 10 LAB HOURS PER SEMESTER; 3 CREDITS

This is the second semester of Elementary Chinese in Mandarin. In CHI 102, the students will learn more Chinese sentence structure, more basic vocabulary and more Chinese grammar, which are useful in everyday conversation. There will be a greater emphasis on oral exercises in class and more Chinese writing after class. Ten lab hours required.

Prerequisite: CHI 101 or equivalent.
COMMUNICATION SKILLS
(Department of Counseling and Communication Skills)

COM 101 Communication Skills 101
3 HOURS, 0 CREDIT
Designed for students who require significant instruction in basic reading skills. Students read books focused on a topic selected by the instructor. Classroom activities emphasize strategies for improving reading comprehension and vocabulary. Students are required to complete 10 hours of independent study in the Reading and Study Skills Center. A grade of P is the only authorized passing grade for this course.
Prerequisite: By appropriate placement test score.

3 HOURS, 1 CREDIT
Designed for students who need to develop a higher degree of competence in coping with college texts. Emphasis is on advanced exercises in comprehension and vocabulary with an introduction to basic study skills. Students are required to complete 10 hours of independent study in the Reading and Study Skills Center. A grade of P is the only authorized passing grade for this course.
Prerequisite: COM 101 or by the appropriate placement test score.

COM 110 Techniques of College Learning
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is designed for the student who needs to acquire the necessary study skills and techniques that a college-level student needs in order to be both effective and efficient. Emphasis will be placed upon the following areas: problem solving, organization, note taking, study habits, critical reading, S.Q. 3R, test taking and library research.
Prerequisite: By appropriate placement test score.

COM 120 Computer Competence and Information Literacy
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is designed for students who need to acquire introductory computer and information literacy skills. The students will achieve competence in basic computer skills including keyboarding, word processing, e-mailing and internet access. Students will also develop information literacy skills, having the ability to understand the variety of content and formats of information, and competence in accessing, evaluating, organizing and applying it. Reinforcement of these competencies will be gained during a 10-hour computer lab experience.
COMPUTER LITERACY
(Department of Mathematics and Computer Science)

CLT 101  Computer Literacy
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course examines the concepts and skills that enable the student to use personal and mainframe computers as a consumer or to progress to more advanced work in many disciplines in the sciences and humanities. Students will use personal computers as well as learn how to access the large mainframe system. The course explores the computer as a research tool, its role in modern society, and examines its organizational, social and ethical implications.

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION
(Office of Internships and Cooperative Education)

CEP 390-391 Cooperative Education Program
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Independent study with a member of the faculty, open to students in the John Jay College of Criminal Justice Cooperative Education Program. Individual conferences with the faculty sponsor, readings appropriate to the agency placement and an analytical essay or research paper. (Offered every semester for students selected to participate in Cooperative Education with participating federal law enforcement agencies.)
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and admission to the Cooperative Education Program.

CORRECTIONS
(Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration)

COR 101 Institutional Treatment of the Offender
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Introduction to the principles and practices of the treatment accorded to offenders in various types of correctional institutions. The basic organization of a department including custody, security and control procedures, and elements of a treatment program.

COR 201 The Law and Institutional Treatment
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Prerequisite: Open only to entering freshmen placed in communication skills and developmental English courses.

CSL 210 Peer Counseling Training
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A practical survey of counseling approaches and techniques designed to provide skills in the academic and peer counseling of fellow students. Major emphasis is on examining assumptions about helping, building basic observational and communication skills, facilitating and examining various helping techniques. Participants will have an opportunity to learn and practice these skills in a variety of role-playing situations, lectures, experiential exercises, group discussion and contact with resource persons.

Prerequisites: ENG 101, sophomore standing or above, a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0, and an interview with the section instructor, or permission of the section instructor.

CSL 211 Peer Counseling Practicum
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course provides a training experience in academic and peer counseling for John Jay undergraduate students. Students are required to work as peer counselors for a minimum of four hours per week under the supervision of a faculty member from the counseling department. Attendance at weekly seminars involving lectures, discussions, films, role playing and tapes is also required. In addition, students must submit a major research paper for the course.

Prerequisites: ENG 101 and CSL 210

CSL 220 Leadership Skills
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will focus on developing leadership skills. Students will learn effective interpersonal techniques for conducting group meetings including conflict management skills and parliamentary procedure. The course will focus on the impact of ethnic, racial and gender issues in groups and organizations and their effect on leadership. Several class sessions will involve experiences, which will explore facilitative leadership styles, impediments to effective communication, self-awareness and listening for hidden agendas. Videotape equipment will be used to give students the opportunity to learn how their behavior affects others.

Prerequisites: ENG 101 and sophomore standing or above.

CSL 331 Assessment and Clinical Evaluation in Chemical Dependency Counseling
(Same course as PSY 331)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will focus on assessment of addictive disorders, and clinical evaluation of substance and alcohol abusers. Application of assessment and clinical evaluation findings will be made to treatment planning, case management, discharge planning and clinical record keeping. These assessment and evaluation methods and findings will be applied to chemical dependency counseling techniques. While this course is intended for Addiction Studies Program (ASP) students, who are pursuing their credential in alcoholism and substance abuse counseling (CASAC), other students with an interest in assessment and clinical evaluation in chemical dependency are invited to enroll.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PSY 266 or PSY 268
CSL 342  Introduction to Counseling Psychology
(Same course as PSY 342)

This course is the required prerequisite for all courses in the criminal justice major.

CRJ 236  Victimology
(Same course as SOC 236)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course focuses on the victims rather than the offenders: why they have been “rediscovered” recently; why they often do not report crimes to the police; how some victims might share responsibility for the crimes with the offenders; how they can be repaid for their losses through offender restitution and government compensation; and what new services are available to help victims prevent crimes and resist attacks.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and CRJ 101 or ICJ 101

CRJ 255  Computer Applications in Criminal Justice
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course provides an introduction to the basic principles of computing with respect to police information systems; computer automation with respect to the penal setting; Interagency Criminal Justice Information Systems; National Criminal Justice Computer Systems; National Law Enforcement Telecommunications Systems (NLETS); the National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS); Offender Based Transaction Statistics (OBTS); National Crime Information Center (NCIC); and other criminal justice databases. Legal and ethical implications for constituent elements and personnel of the criminal justice system are also discussed. Some familiarity with computers is recommended.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, ENG 102 or ENG 201, and CRJ 101 or ICJ 101
CRJ 321 Police Ethics
(Same course as PHI 321)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An identification and analysis of the diverse ethical issues encountered in the police service. Traditional ethical theories will be examined and will be applied to such topics as discretion, deadly physical force, misconduct, authority and responsibility, affirmative action, civil disobedience, undercover operations and privacy.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PHI 231 or permission of the section instructor.

CRJ 322 Judicial and Correctional Ethics
(Same course as PHI 322)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A treatment of some of the central issues of judicial and correctional ethics. Traditional ethical theories will be applied to such topics as plea bargaining, bail and preventive detention, wiretapping, enforcement of sexual morality, sentencing, punishment, prisoners’ rights and parole.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PHI 231 or permission of the section instructor.

CRJ 410 Independent Study
(Same course as COR 410, LAW 410 and PSC 410)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A program of reading and reporting planned and carried out under the guidance of a faculty member. The topic, issue or area of student interest must concern a problem in criminal justice, constitutional or criminal law or procedure, corrections (including probation and parole) or law enforcement.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and senior standing or permission of the section instructor.

CRJ 420 Women and Crime
(Same course as SOC 420)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A seminar that explores in depth three aspects of the relationship between women and crime: 1) women as offenders, including the range, intensity, and growing nature of female criminality; 2) women as victims of crime, including abused women, rape victims, and the victimization aspects of prostitution; 3) women as social control agents.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, senior standing, SOC 101, and one of the following: CRJ 101, PSC 101 or ICJ 101, or permission of the section instructor.

CRJ 425 Seminar on Major Works in Criminal Justice
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This is a senior seminar based on reading and discussion of writings, which have had a major impact on the development of criminology, criminal legislation and the judiciary, police and corrections. Original works are discussed in the context of contemporaneous developments in natural and social sciences, political ideologies and the history of ideas.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, CRJ 101 or ICJ 101, and senior standing.

DRA 233 Sociodrama I
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The course introduces students to the fundamentals of sociodrama. Sociodrama is a theater-based methodology widely used today in group problem solving and consensus building. Students explore the theoretical bases of sociodrama through improvisation, role play and theater games as they create scenarios around social issues relevant to the group. Sociodrama techniques, such as freeze frame, role reversal, mirror and sculpting are taught as a means of exploring multiple perspectives to solving problems and assessing options.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and sophomore standing or above.

DRA 243 Black Female Sexuality in Film
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course examines how film both reflects and shapes the perception of society about the sexuality of black women. It explores three black film movements — the pre-Civil Rights era; the 1970s Blaxploitation era; and the black film culture that has emerged since the 1980s — from an historical, sociological, and psychological perspective, illustrating each movement with screenings and discussion. Films are examined from their cultural archetypal “feminine” coding, their “messages” and influence, and how audiences responded to them. The course will also examine films from the economic and social context in which they were made and the conditions under which they were produced. Students will expand their media literacy skills by learning to develop a critical eye as consumers of media images.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, SPE 113, and sophomore standing.

DRA 245 Women in Theatre
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of women as characters in plays, as playwrights and as directors, producers, designers, etc. Consideration of women's situations and personalities as exemplified in the drama and in their achievements in professional theatre.

ENG 235  Writing for Management, Business and Public Administration
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Development of the writing skills required for careers in law, business, civil service, or public administration. Extensive practice in the various forms of correspondence, interoffice memos, informal reports, minutes of meetings, summaries, briefings and presentations. Preparation of job application letters and résumés. Practice in proofreading, revising, editing. Development of reading comprehension through close study of business-related writings. One or more sections of English 235 will be designated as Computer Laboratory sections. Students who enroll in these sections have the opportunity to learn word processing techniques and are required to spend approximately two extra hours per week in the laboratory, outside of class time, to complete their assignments on the computer.
Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

ENG 245  Advanced Expository Writing
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A non-specialized follow-up to the required composition courses. Nonfiction writing that explores the interaction of structure and content, purpose and audience. Use of prewriting techniques, self-editing, peer criticism.
Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

ENG 250  Writing for Legal Studies
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is an in-depth introduction to the craft of legal writing. Skills to be acquired range from writing legal memoranda, briefs and pleadings, to negotiating and drafting contracts. Students will gain experience in reading and interpreting judicial opinions, as well as applying legal rules to factual scenarios. Deductive reasoning, forensic rhetoric and English grammar will receive substantial attention.
Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

ENG 255  Argument Writing
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The course entails intensive study of and practice in writing in a variety of argument templates, using the principal rhetorical forms, with an eye toward developing effective techniques of proofreading and editing. Intensive grammar and style instruction enable students to offer global and sentence-level responses to the writing of peers. One hour weekly practicum required.
Prerequisite: Grade of B+ or higher in the ENG 101-102 or ENG 101-201 sequences

ENG 316  Advanced Argument Writing and Response: Theory and Practice
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Advanced Argument Writing and Response: Theory and Practice takes the work begun in Argument Writing to a higher level. This writing-intensive course combines the composition practice with exposure to theories and paradigms of responses to writing. Assignments include advanced argument papers and analytical critiques of writing specific to the discipline. Students hone their critical skills and become expert judges of the composition process, their own writing, and of writing across the curriculum through reading and discussion of theoretical texts that reflect a variety of methodologies. A practicum is required.
Prerequisite: ENG 255

ENG 328  Forensic Linguistics: Language as Evidence in the Courts
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Forensic linguistics explores the complex relationship between linguistics and the law. The course will consider critically the role of language and its power in the legal process. It will also examine how oral and written argumentation can be used or misused to the disadvantage of social groups and thus to the detriment of minorities, including women, children and nonnative speakers of English. The involvement of linguists as expert witnesses in the legal process will also be explored. One court visit is required. This course is especially helpful for forensic psychology majors.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, any 200-level English or literature course, and one of the following: PSY 101, SOC 101 or CRJ 101
ENGW 100  Inquiries in Literacy: A Writing-Intensive Course in the Issues and Practices of Literacy

6 CONTACT HOURS PER WEEK, 9 LAB HOURS PER SEMESTER; 3 CREDITS

This course introduces students to the literacy skills, habits, and conventions necessary to succeed at college-level work. While offering students techniques and practices of invention and revision, the course also teaches the students the historical, educational, or literary aspects of literacy as a scholarly topic. For example, students may study issues of prison literacy, educational policies of literacy, or representations of literacy in literature. Practice ACT exams are also given throughout the course.

ENGLISH FOR ACADEMIC PURPOSES

EAP 121  English for Academic Purposes

(For Non-native speakers of English)

6 LECTURE HOURS PER WEEK, 12 TUTORIAL HOURS PER SEMESTER; 3 CREDITS

This high intermediate “content-based” English for Academic Purposes course for non-native speakers of English, reviews sentence structure and works towards perfecting English paragraph composition. Students learn to draft simple narratives. Journals are required in response to all readings, which are carefully selected literary pieces on sociological topics. The course stresses grammar, reading and writing skills development, using readings that emphasize sociological themes, situations and terminology. Attached to the course are 12 hours of required tutorials plus attendance at two workshops per semester in the Center for English Language Support.

Prerequisite: Direct placement through testing by the Center for English Language Support.

EAP 131  Advanced English for Academic Purposes

(For Non-native speakers of English)

6 LECTURE HOURS PER WEEK, 15 TUTORING HOURS PER SEMESTER; 3 CREDITS

This course is the second and last in the English Department's English for Academic Purposes sequence. It prepares students for English 100 and English 101 by offering intensive instruction in grammar, reading and writing skills development. The course incorporates readings with criminal justice themes and asks students to analyze them both orally and in writing. Students will progress from simple to sophisticated narratives and will ultimately write an argumentative essay. The course also requires 15 hours of one-to-one tutoring plus attendance at three workshops in the Center for English Language Support throughout the semester.

Prerequisite: EAP 121 or direct placement through testing by the Center for English Language Support.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

(Department of Sciences)

ENV 108  Principles of Environmental Science

6 HOURS; 3 HOURS LECTURE, 1 1/2 HOURS RECITATION, 1-1/2 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS

An introduction to environmental science including environmental toxicology. This course will provide an introduction to contemporary environmental problems such as solid waste, water and air pollution, climate change and habitat destruction. In addition, the course will examine the effects of pollutants, drugs and poisons on the human body.

Prerequisite: NSC 107 or the equivalent (as listed in the general education requirements).

ETHNIC STUDIES

(Departments of African-American Studies or Puerto Rican/Latin American Studies)

ETH 123  Race and American Society: The African-American Experience

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

African Americans and the development of the United States from 1619 to the present. A survey course exploring the African origins of African Americans and examining slavery, the Abolitionist movement, the Civil War, Reconstruction, segregation, African-American migration from the South, urbanization, the Civil Rights movement, contemporary issues and events, and African-American cultural expressions, all within the context of American social history.

ETH 124  Puerto Ricans and Other Hispanics in American Society

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

An interdisciplinary and comparative study of Puerto Rican and other Hispanic peoples in American society and their contributions through an investigation of their history, culture and social dynamics.
ETH 125 Race and Ethnicity in America
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Study of the many peoples who have contributed to the fashioning of American civilization from 1500 to the present. Survey of historical and contemporary issues related to racial, ethnic, religious and cultural diversity in the United States through an examination of assimilation, discrimination, integration, pluralism, racism, segregation.

FIRE SCIENCE
(Department of Public Management)

FIS 101 Introduction to Fire Science
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An introduction to the science of public fire protection, with a review of the role, history and philosophy of the fire service in the United States. Includes career orientation and a discussion of current and future problems in fire protection. Note: This course is offered as an internet-based class and as a classroom-based class.

FIS 104 Risk Management
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of fire insurance and risk, with the consideration of the background of the fire problem, insurance and financial institutions, development of rates, underwriting, grading schedules, the FAIR plan and roles of both government and private enterprise in the insurance industry.

FIS 106 Safety Engineering
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Course focuses on the work environment — its human, physical and environmental factors. Attention is given to achieving safety through hazard control; the laws of error; monitoring systems; accident analysis; promoting safety; OSHA; Workers’ Compensation, fire prevention and fire safety.

FIS 202 Fire Protection Systems
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of the nature of public and private fire protection with an emphasis on analysis of systems of fire detection, fire alarm, fire communications, water distribution networks, fire service, hydraulics and fire suppression. Prerequisites: ENG 101, and FIS 101 or permission of the section instructor.

FIS 205 Fire Service Hydraulics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A course in hydraulic principles systems. Applications are related to fire protection systems such as sprinklers, standpipes, hoses, nozzles, pumps and water supply systems. Demonstrations illustrate and supplement the principles developed in class. Prerequisites: ENG 101 and FIS 101

FIS 207 Water-Based Fire Suppression Systems
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is a review of the design, operation and maintenance of water-based fire protection equipment such as automatic, sprinkler, standpipe and water-spray systems. Students will perform basic system designs and mathematical calculations. The relationship of water-based suppression systems to specific hazards, model codes and firefighting will be discussed. Prerequisites: ENG 101 and FIS 205

FIS 209 Analysis of Urban Hazardous Materials, Tactics and Strategy
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of the storage, transportation, and use of hazardous material with an emphasis on flammable liquids, gases, cryogenics, and radioactive materials. It includes a systems analysis of methods of prevention, detection, control and suppression of emergency situations. Case studies form the basis of the course. Critical parameters and characteristics of hazardous materials are defined and studied. Prerequisites: ENG 101 and FIS 101

FIS 210 Fire Safety Administration
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The course focuses on satisfying the administrative needs of a student who is preparing for a career requiring a knowledge of the principles of fire safety and the various laws that have been enacted to assure fire safety in the workplace. Prerequisites: ENG 101 and FIS 106
FIS 220  Survey of the Concepts of Operations Research
(Same course as MAT 220 and PSC 220)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An introduction to operations research as it applies to model formulation in problems of management science, criminal justice, fire science and public service systems. Several topics will be surveyed from an elementary point of view in order to develop an appreciation and understanding of a quantitative approach to the resolution of management-oriented problems.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and MAT 108 or MAT 141

FIS 230  Building Construction and Life Safety Systems I
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A review is made of building construction and building systems. Crafting principles and plan reviews will be introduced. This introduction will expose the student to actual problems, as they exist in the field. Fire ratings of building components will be studied and integrated with applicable building codes. Relationships between fire protection and life safety will be reviewed. Smoke and flame travel will be studied to determine effective means of control. Modern high rise structures will be reviewed to determine the unique problems they present to life safety and fire fighting.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and FIS 101 or permission of the section instructor.

FIS 257  Fire Dynamics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course provides an introduction to the science of ignition, spread and development of fire. The theories of heat transfer, flame spread, flashover and smoke development will be studied. Computer models of fire and smoke development/migration will be utilized.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and FIS 101

FIS 303  Fire Investigations
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An analysis of incendiary fire investigation from the viewpoint of the field investigator, with an emphasis on the value of various aids and techniques in the detection of arson, collection and preservation of evidence, investigation, interrogation, related laws of arson, court appearance and testimony. There will be a discussion of case study illustrations.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and FIS 230

FIS 319  Hazard Identification and Mitigation
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is a review of two basic concepts in emergency management: hazard identification and hazard mitigation. Students will explore the range of natural hazards such as hurricanes and earthquakes as well as human or unnatural disasters such as terrorist attacks and building collapses. The frequency and severity of hazards are quantified. The course will also include discussions of a variety of mitigation techniques such as hazard abatement and structural hardening as well as risk/benefit analysis.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and FIS 101

FIS 330  Building Construction and Life Safety Systems II
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Building construction and building systems will be reviewed. Life safety systems in buildings will be examined. Building construction requirements, as they relate to fire safety, will be studied. New York City and the National Building Code will be used to illustrate how these requirements are legally interrelated. Case histories and existing building plans will be analyzed to give students a hands-on experience. Students will be introduced to a systems approach in designing buildings for life safety and security.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and FIS 230

FIS 350  Management Applications in Fire Protection
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Theory and practice of public management applied to fire protection. Examination of organizational structure and command, personnel development and management, budgeting and fiscal management, and management systems and techniques within the context of contemporary fire protection management. Assessment of policy development and advocacy by fire protection administrators in the political and private sector.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PAD 240 or permission of the section instructor.
FIS 401  Seminar in Fire Protection Problems
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An analysis of major fire problems from the viewpoint of both the public and private sectors.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, senior standing, and majoring in fire science, fire service administration or public administration.

FORENSIC SCIENCE
(Department of Sciences)

FOS 108  Concepts of Forensic Science
6 HOURS: 3 HOURS LECTURE, 1 1/2 HOURS RECITATION, 1-1/2 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
A discussion of the fundamental principles of the physical and biological sciences with emphasis on the application of these principles in the resolution of legal questions. The role of forensic science in criminal and civil investigations where questions regarding the interpretation of physical evidence are crucial will also be examined.
Prerequisite: NSC 107 or equivalent (as listed in the general education requirements).

FOS 313  An Introduction to Criminalistics for Forensic Science Majors
3 HOURS: 1 HOUR LECTURE, 2 HOURS LABORATORY; 3 CREDITS
An introduction to the problems and techniques of the scientific examination of physical evidence with emphasis on documentation and interpretation of physical patterns. Review of the theoretical bases of methods of comparison and their influence on scientific interpretation. Topics will include scientific photography, imprints, impressions, toolmarks, gunshot residue, cordage and textile examinations. Laboratory exercises will include forensic photography, analysis of fingerprints, hair, gunshot residue and footwear outsole patterns.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and CHE 201-202 (This course may not be taken after FOS 415-416)

FOS 401  Forensic Science Laboratory Internship
400 LABORATORY HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Independent laboratory and study (internship). A 10-week, full-time internship in a crime laboratory covering the following functions: document examination, instrumental analysis, chemistry, toxicology, serology, crime scene service, special photography, explosive and incendiary device recovery, trace evidence, comparative microscopy in firearms and tool marks. Arrangements for internships must be completed through the director of the forensic science program in advance.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and senior standing and majoring in forensic science.

FOS 402  Undergraduate Research Internship
400 LABORATORY HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is an alternative to the Forensic Science Laboratory Internship for those students interested in participating in faculty-mentored research. Especially designed for students with an interest in post-graduate study, this course requires that students commit at least 400 hours to participating in a faculty mentored research project. Students will be introduced to all aspects of scientific research including hypothesis formulation, literature searching, laboratory analytical procedures, statistical interpretation of data and scientific paper writing. Arrangements for undergraduate research internships must be made with individual faculty members within the Department of Sciences in consultation with the director of this program.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, senior standing, majoring in forensic science, and permission of the instructor.

FOS 415-416 Forensic Science Laboratory
2 HOURS LECTURE, 8 HOURS LABORATORY EACH WEEK; 4 CREDITS
Introduction to laboratory examinations of physical properties for the identification and individualization of such materials as glass, fibers, hair, paint, and soil. Examination of bullets and latent fingerprints. Detection and characterization of dried blood. Identification of dangerous drugs and narcotics. Scientific photography.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or 201, and CHE 104, CHE 201-202, CHE 315, CHE 320-321, PHY 203-204, and FOS 313
FRENCH
(Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures)

FRE 101 Introductory French I
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A basic course in the French language with an emphasis on oral and written communication, reading, and the customs and cultures of French-speaking countries. Ten lab hours required.
No credit will be given for FRE 101 if taken after the completion of FRE 102

FRE 102 Introductory French II
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Completion of FRE 102 enables the student to speak, comprehend, read, and write French on a basic level. Ten lab hours required.
Prerequisite: FRE 101 or placement examination.

FRE 201-202 Intermediate French
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Emphasis on conversation with some written work based on contemporary prose selections.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and successful completion of FRE 102, or three years of high school French or the equivalent.

GOVERNMENT

GOV 101 American Government and Politics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of American politics — its institutions and processes and the distribution of political power with an emphasis on how the system works, who benefits and who does not, and to what extent it is democratic.

GOV 203 Municipal and State Government
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Functional study of the legislative and administrative process in state and local government. The increasing importance of administration and the executive in modern government. The relationship between administration and the legislative and judicial branches of the government. The influence of political parties, pressure groups and public opinion upon legislation and administration.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 206 Urban Politics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Study of the ideological and historical roots of urban politics, the distribution of power, major problems in urban areas (e.g., education, housing, transportation, welfare), and the relationships between government and the governed.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 210 Comparative Urban Political Systems
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Cross-national study of urban government systems and policy processes. Examination of the politics of local service delivery including local policing, housing, education and urban development. Comparison of the local political impacts made by national policies, private sector interests, party politics and the varying roles of city executives, legislators and urban political systems.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and GOV 101
GOV 214  Political Parties and Pressure Groups
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An analysis of the operation and policy impact of political parties and pressure groups at each of the levels of the federal system. Recent developments in the evaluation of these institutions will be closely examined.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 215  The Legislative Process
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The status of the legislature within the American political system. The issue of executive encroachment on legislative powers in the wake of Watergate. Internal organization, leadership and the question of legislative reform. Systems of representation and apportionment. State legislative systems. The evolution of legislatures and their relationship to democratic theory.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 220  The Chief Executive
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An analysis of the political and administrative roles played by chief executives at the national, state and local levels of government. Close attention will be paid to the part they play in formulating and implementing public policy, managing the bureaucracy, guiding public opinion, leading political parties and serving as symbols of government.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 230  Principles of Constitutional Government
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An investigation of the constitutional foundations of the powers of the three branches of the national government, the evolution of federal-state relationships, and governmental regulation of the economy through careful review and analysis of United States Supreme Court decisions.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 242  U.S. Foreign Policy in Latin America
(Same course as HIS 242 and PLG 242)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
U.S. economic and political relations with the Latin American countries during the 19th and 20th centuries. U.S. reactions to reform and revolutionary movements. The ideological framework of U.S. foreign policy.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 250  International Law and Justice
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An introduction to the key concepts and processes of the international legal system. Special emphasis will be placed on the foundations and justifications for international law, the relationship between treaties and custom, state sovereignty and recognition, and the use of force by states in the international system. An examination and assessment of the relation of municipal and international law, the role of the International Court of Justice, and the prospects for a permanent international penal tribunal.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and GOV 101

GOV 257  Comparative Politics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The course will examine the political processes and institutions of selected foreign governments. Emphasis will be placed on the relationship of political institutions to key cultural, economic, and historical variables.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 259  Comparative Criminal Justice Systems
(Same course as LAW 259)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Study of the variations in patterns of corruption and political crimes as well as patterns of law enforcement and adjudication among political systems. Examples are drawn from a variety of political systems: democratic, communist and modernizing.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or permission of the section instructor.
GOV 260  International Relations
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A survey of the factors that influence the relations among nations. Theories of war, peace, imperialism and the determinants of power. The superpowers and balance of terror. International law and organization. National integration and the creation of regional communities. The rise of the Third World and the crisis of the international order.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 270  Political Philosophy
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Analysis of political thought throughout history, with particular attention to such values as liberty, democracy, equality, security, stability, law. Comparison of traditional and contemporary political theories in terms of priorities of values and political culture. Systematic examination of underlying assumptions and logical coherence of normative political thought.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and sophomore standing or above.

GOV 278  Political Sociology
(Same course as SOC 278)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Analysis of the relationships of socio-psychological factors to political phenomena. An examination of man in political society and political society in man. Emphasis on the interdisciplinary study of power, authority, elites, political and social change, political violence, social inequality, technology, ideology and political socialization.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and GOV 101 or SOC 101

GOV 290  Selected Topics in Government
3 hours, 3 credits
Specific study of a topic chosen by the instructor.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, GOV 101, and permission of the section instructor

GOV 308  State Courts and State Constitutional Law
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course focuses on the development of state constitutional criminal law and its relation to federal constitutional criminal law. It examines the structure of state judicial systems, emphasizing the role of appellate courts in handling criminal cases, and the relationship between the state and federal courts.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, GOV 101, and junior standing or above, or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 313  The Law and Politics of Race Relations
(Same course as LAW 313)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Analysis of the politics of race and racism in the United States through the examination of major court decisions and of legislation affecting minority groups. Treatment of racial minority groups in the criminal and civil justice systems, and by courts, police and prisons will be included.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, GOV 101, and junior standing or above, or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 318  The Law and Politics of Sexual Orientation
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course examines the law and politics affecting lesbians and gay men in the United States and investigates issues like same-sex marriage; the constitutionality of consensual-sodomy laws; sexual-orientation discrimination in public accommodations, housing, and the workplace; antigay ballot initiatives; child custody, visitation, adoption, and foster care by lesbian and gay parents and their domestic partners; health insurance and other benefits for domestic partners; and gays in the military. These issues will be considered through an examination of case law.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, GOV 101, and junior standing or above.

GOV 319  Gender and Law
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course examines the constraints and limitations of law to achieve equality, justice and freedom in matters related to gender. It will examine how individuals use, challenge, and resist law and legal institutions to define problems and create social change. Drawing on an image of social science research, class readings pose important and persistent questions about whether and how law can adequately address gender-related concerns, such as those related to violence, work, family, reproduction and education.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, GOV 101, and junior standing or above.
GOV 320  International Human Rights
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A review of the evolution of international human rights and of the legal instruments designed for their protection. A discussion of the main civil, political, social, economic and cultural rights in the International Bill of Rights. An examination of the theoretical foundations of the idea of human rights in various civilizations and cultures. Its legacy within the Western and non-Western traditions, and its meaning and relevance in dealing with the major challenges posed by international crimes, including genocide and war crimes.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, GOV 101, and junior standing or above. Additional recommended courses: GOV 259/LAW 259 (Comparative Criminal Justice Systems), or GOV 260 (International Relations).

GOV 325  The Politics of Transnational Crime
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Transnational crime and violence have become major concerns for governments around the world as they work to stem the flow of drugs, control trade in human beings and deal with the problem of stateless terrorism. In this course, we will study the developing literature on this issue by examining how crime has altered state sovereignty, posed challenges to governance, changed conceptions of human rights and affected international organizations.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and GOV 101

GOV 375  Law, Order, Justice and Society
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Consideration of the ideas of major writers in the field of political theory who have contributed insight into the concepts of law, order, justice and society. Topics will include conceptions of human nature, natural law, social contract, and the sources and nature of political leadership. Considerable attention will be devoted to the relevance of the ideas discussed to contemporary American society.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, GOV 101, and junior standing or above.

GOV 390  Honors Tutorial
HOURS TO BE ARRANGED, 3 CREDITS
The student submits a term project of reading and research for approval by the instructor. A paper and periodic conferences are required. Special arrangements may be made to do this work over the summer.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, GOV 101, and senior standing or above, or permission of the instructor.

GOV 402-403  Seminar and Internship in New York City Government
EACH COURSE: 6 HOURS, 6 CREDITS
Students work for a city agency or political figure for at least 12 to 16 hours a week and meet once a week in a seminar to discuss the politics and policy-making of the New York City government. The seminar meets once a month at The City University Graduate Center. With students who are in similar programs at other senior colleges of the University, they attend symposia offered by New York City officials or political figures and participate in subsequent discussion. Placement in city agencies is arranged by the instructor in consultation with the individual student. A student currently employed by a city agency may satisfy this internship requirement through such employment. A work-study student may fulfill all or part of this work requirement through this internship.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, senior standing, and majoring in government, judicial studies or public administration, or permission of the section instructor. To register for this course, a student must obtain approval from the instructor prior to registration.

GOV 405  Seminar in New York City Politics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Examination of the network of power shaping New York City politics. Analysis of external influences including intergovernmental relations, the global economy, in- and out-migration; and internal dynamics such as the machine-reform dialectic, politics of planning and public authorities. Survey of policy-making determinants, including ethnicity and class, fiscal crises, power of developers and use of communities as real estate commodities.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, GOV 101, and senior standing, or permission of the instructor.
GOV 409 Colloquium for Research in Government and Politics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is a research colloquium in which students initiate, develop, and present independent work related to government, politics and the state. The diversity of projects undertaken by students emphasizes the breadth of concerns related to government, law, and politics, identifying emerging scholarly interests and concerns. Students design research projects in conjunction with faculty instructors and report regularly on progress to the seminar. The final research paper will demonstrate the student’s familiarity with relevant literature in the subfield, competence in research, research methods, writing and analysis, and the mastery of basic concepts in the discipline. In addition, the course will integrate the various subfields of the discipline through the examination of current research.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, a 300-level government course, the government major, and senior standing.

GOV 423 Selected Topics in Justice
(Same course as PHI 423)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This is an advanced senior-level seminar focusing on one of a set of specific topics or issues to be chosen by the instructor offering the section of the course — concerning the philosophical concept of justice. Topics can be either theoretical and applied, and may include, but are not limited to, any of the following: an advanced survey of contemporary philosophical theories of justice; the textual analysis of one philosophic classic on justice, e.g., John Rawls’ Theory of Justice; the philosophy of punishment and retribution; justice — distributive and compensatory; the impact of race, gender, and class on the contemporary philosophical analysis of justice.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, PHI 231, one 300-level philosophy or political theory course, or permission of the instructor.

GOV 430 Seminar in Problems in Civil Rights and Liberties
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Seminar devoted to advanced study of such civil liberties and civil rights issues as the rights of speech, press and religious liberty; substantive due process and the right to privacy; and discriminatory denials of equal protection. Analysis of leading and recent Supreme Court decisions, which may be supplemented by important political, philosophic and legal literature.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, senior standing, and majoring in government, criminal justice, or legal studies, or permission of the section instructor.

GOV 435 Seminar in Judicial Processes and Politics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

HUMANITIES AND JUSTICE STUDIES
(see Major Coordinator)

HJS 250  Justice in the Western Traditions
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is the first of four required courses in the core of the justice studies major. It is an introduction to the normative history of “justice” as a principle of human personal and social organization in the experience of peoples living in the “western” world. An emphasis on primary texts allows the student to encounter first principles, and selected secondary readings introduce the student to questions posed by the attempt to define justice. Issues under study may include determinism and free will and the implication of each for the meaning of the “unjust” act; retribution and the rhetorics that justify or condemn it; divinity, hierarchy and the community as sources of justice; the social construction of such ideas as justice and “crime;” law as the structure of rules regulating coercion and the use of force.
Prerequisites: ENG 101-102 or ENG 101-201, one of the required general education courses in literature, history, or philosophy, and one of the required general education courses in the social sciences.

HJS 310  Comparative Perspectives on Justice
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will study justice in the non-Western world as it is variously represented in historical, literary and philosophical texts. A sequel to HJS 250: Justice in the Western Traditions, it builds upon the analytical skills developed in that course and extends its geographical boundaries to the Mideast, Asia, Africa and the other Americas. By studying how social, political, and religious institutions shape understandings of justice and injustice, and how these concepts define race, gender, ethnicity and class, the course focuses on articulations and practices of justice that are different from the Western constructs considered in HJS 250. Through comparative investigations of encounters between societies resulting from conquest, trade and social exchange, it will explore justice as culturally inflected, the product at once of a particular regional or national identity and history, and of intercultural contact.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or 201, HJS 250 and junior standing.

HJS 315 Research Methods in Humanities and Justice Studies
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An introduction to the methods by which the humanities define, research, and investigate problems, this course is the second course of four that make up the required core of the major in humanities and justice. It introduces the student to methods of inquiry in the three primary disciplines of the major: history, philosophy and literature. The logic, design and execution of the research process are considered, as well as the appropriate respective uses of primary and secondary sources. Electronic and non-electronic research aids will be examined, as will the research strategies most commonly employed by practicing historians, literary critics, and philosophers.

Prerequisites: English 102 or English 201, all reading/writing skill courses, completion of a general education requirement course in history, literature, and philosophy, and completion of or enrollment in HJS 250.

HJS 410 Problems and Theory: Thesis Prospectus
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A course in which the student develops the ability to design advanced research projects drawing on the methodologies and practices of the humanities. Designed as a “studio” or workshop course, the seminar’s activities will be built around the research interests of the students as they develop topics and methodologies for the senior thesis in the humanities and justice major. The final product of the course will be a prospectus for the senior thesis that is acceptable to the seminar instructor and to the student’s adviser.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, HJS 315, nine credits in one of the interdisciplinary components of the major, and nine credits in the component topics.

HJS 415 Thesis in Humanities and Justice Studies
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Designed for students in their final semester to conduct a significant investigation of a topic of their choosing in the area of humanities and justice studies. Designed as a “studio” course, the seminar’s activities will be built around the prospectus developed by the student in HJS 410: Problems and Theory: Thesis Prospectus. The final product of the course will be a senior thesis that is acceptable to the seminar instructor and to the student’s adviser.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and HJS 410

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES
(See Interdisciplinary Studies Coordinator)

Theme A (for Freshmen)
The Individual and Society and Individuals in Conflict
This two-semester theme examines the variety of ways that individuals relate to one another and “to society.” What do we mean by society? What is the social contract? Why do some people affirm society’s values and norms, and others rebel, whether by fighting against injustice or by behaving criminally? During the second semester, the theme focuses on how people in our society experience and attempt to deal with situations of conflict. Among the topics covered are domestic violence; dispute mediation; prison culture; war; and generational, racial, ethnic, and gender conflicts. The emphasis in both semesters is on using primary source materials and readings from the humanities, social sciences, law and fine arts.

Theme B (for Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors – Specific courses offered change each semester depending on faculty availability)
Community and Responsibility
This theme situates the individual in the communities of which she is a part, and explores the dynamic interplay of persons and social contexts in the shaping of responsibilities. Approaches from the humanities and social sciences are brought to bear on the topics of community, responsibility, conflict and resolution. Course topics may include childhood, the family, affirmative action, rural and urban communities, and educational institutions.
Conflict and Change
This theme integrates the humanities and social sciences in an examination of the forces that give rise to and resolve conflict and that bring about change, both in the individual and in society. Of interest in this theme are examples and patterns of conflict and change in the intimate sphere of family and neighborhoods; at the institutional level in the legal and criminal justice system; and historically, at moments of national and international crisis. Specific courses change each semester depending on which faculty members are teaching in the program. Course topics may include: legal challenges of the 90s, power and justice in law and society, World War II, personal conflict and social change, love and hate in the family, the changing roles of women in the workplace, inside the criminal mind, from slavery to citizenship, childhood and society.

Transactions and Transformations
This theme examines the many ways in which individuals, communities, ethnic groups and even whole nations interact with one another in the exchange of ideas, cultures, rituals, technology, economy, conflicts and more. In what ways do these interactions produce change in individuals and groups? What kinds of changes? What are the risks in these interactions? What are the risks in refusing to engage in such social, cultural, political and economic transactions? Course topics may include the concept of citizenship; cross-cultural definitions of crime and criminality; religion; human rights; war; technology; ideas about oppression and freedom.

Perspectives on the Extraordinary
This theme is devoted to exploring people, events, concepts and artifacts that have achieved wide recognition as extraordinary in one or more ways. How does something or someone emerge from the ordinary? How do people respond to extraordinary people, events and ideas? Course topics may include the idea of the scientific, legal, political, philosophical, and/or artistic “breakthrough”; the phenomenon of genius; catastrophe and human response; revolution; biography and autobiography; cosmology and the origins of the universe; violence and criminality.

INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE
(see Major Coordinator)

ICJ 101 Introduction to International Criminal Justice
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is an introduction to the nature and scope of international and transnational crime, to the emerging legal framework for its prevention and control, and to its impact on the U.S. criminal justice system. Emphasis will be placed on the international aspects of the work of different criminal justice agencies, such as formal and informal police cooperation and the use of mutual assistance and extradition agreements, and on the bilateral, regional, and international structures created for crime prevention, punishment and control.

ICJ 381 Internship in International Criminal Justice
15 HOURS LECTURE, 96 HOURS FIELDWORK; 3 CREDITS
This supervised field experience in international criminal justice organizations will enable students to gain work experience using their academic training in program development, policy support or research. Students will be placed in international agencies including governmental and nongovernmental organizations (NGOs). Through the College Internship Office, placement is arranged by the international criminal justice major coordinator in consultation with the student. Students will spend 8-10 hours per week for a total of 96 hours in the field, and 15 hours per semester in classroom seminar sessions.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, ICJ 101, SOC 341, and GOV 259/LAW 259

ICJ 401 Capstone Seminar in International Criminal Justice
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This capstone course is a synthesis of key issues, trends and topics within the emerging field of international criminal justice. Topics to be considered include: cross-cultural dimensions of international criminal justice; major theoretical issues and methodological problems in international criminal justice; complexities inherent in processing cases of international and transnational crime; prevention and control strategies; the evolving jurisprudence of the tribunals and the world court; and ethical and human rights concerns.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, ICJ 101, senior status, and matriculation in the international criminal justice major

(Department of English)

LIT 203  New York City in Literature
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An examination of literary works set in New York City exploring the city’s strengths — its sophistication, its diversity, its intellectual resources and institutions, its freedom and its anonymity, as well as, the social and psychological problems facing its inhabitants.
Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

LIT 212  Literature of the African World
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Literature of the African World is a critical examination of exciting literary voices from Africa, the Caribbean and North America. Authors, such as Wole Soyinka, Ngui wa Thiong’o, Buchi Emecheta, Derek Walcott, Leopold Senghor, Michelle Cliff, Louise Bennett, Toni Morrison, Octavia Butler, Alice Walker, Gloria Naylor, Reginald McKnight and August Wilson, give the course its unique flavor. The readings in short fiction, prose, poetry and drama, which explore thematic concerns such as tradition vs. modernity, colonialism, rites of passage, and oral narrative traditions, enable students to gain an indispensable diasporic perspective that will enlarge their view of themselves, their world and literature.
Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

LIT 219  The Word as Weapon
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Is the pen mightier than the sword? An examination of the writer’s approach to correcting society’s ills. Reading in satire, invective, polemics, burlesque, lampoon and muckraking by such writers as Swift, Dickens, Mark Twain, Sinclair Lewis and Joseph Heller. Students also write satires of their own.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232, or LIT 233

LIT 223  African-American Literature
(Same course as AAL 223)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of the writing of African-Americans from colonial times to the present, with special attention to influential African-American writers such as W. E. B. Du Bois, Toomer, Hughes, Wright, Brooks, Ellison, Baldwin, Baraka and Malcolm X. Readings in novels, plays, autobiographies, short stories, poems, folktales and essays will explore a wide range of African-American aesthetic responses to life in the United States.

Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

LIT 230 Classical Literature

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A study of early or fundamental literature in a variety of cultures. Close readings and analysis of epics, lyrics, dramas and sacred texts, with an eye to literary form and style as well as content. Discussion of appropriate literary concerns, such as heroism, divinity, sacrifice, duty and justice.

Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

LIT 231 Medieval and Early Modern Literature

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A study of literature from 600 through the 17th century. Close readings and analysis of sagas, romances, plays and poetry, with an eye to literary form and style as well as content. Discussion of appropriate literary concerns, such as faith, courtly love, loyalty, power and loss.

Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

LIT 232 Modern Literature

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A study of literature from the 18th century to the present. Close readings and analysis of fiction, drama and poetry, with an eye to literary form and style as well as content. Discussion of appropriate literary concerns, such as reason, freedom, idealism, materialism and alienation.

Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

LIT 233 American Literature

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A study of American literature from its beginnings to the present. Close readings and analysis of American fiction, poetry, drama and nonfiction, with an eye to literary form and style as well as content. Discussion of appropriate literary concerns, such as liberty, individualism, utopianism, race and success.

Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

LIT 283 New York City in Film

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A survey of significant films and major filmmakers on the special topic, New York City in Film, through an examination of the cinema as an art form shaping and reflecting the changing perception of its society.

Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

LIT 284 Film and Society

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A survey of significant films and major filmmakers on the special topic, Film and Society, through an examination of the cinema as an art form shaping and reflecting the changing perceptions of its society.

Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

LIT 290 Special Topics

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A single-semester course dealing with an announced topic, theme, or author.

Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

LIT 309 Contemporary Fiction

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

This course examines novels and short stories written within the last 50 years. Particular attention will also be given to how these texts reflect major aesthetic, ethical, psychological, social and political concerns. Students will be introduced to the cultural, linguistic and other literary theories relevant to the interpretation of contemporary narratives.

LIT 313 Shakespeare

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A study of representative plays typifying each period of Shakespeare’s development.

Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 315 American Literature and the Law

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

The course will bring together American literary and legal texts in order to examine the ways in which the two can illuminate each other. It will focus on the works of American literature that take law as their central theme; works that include trials or are inspired by famous cases; works that have lawyers as protagonists; and works that address issues of law and justice. Students will also bring methods of literary analysis to bear on the study of important cases or legal decisions in order to understand the rhetoric of law, the unstated assumptions contained in it and the voices excluded from it.

Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 316  Gender and Identity in Literary Traditions
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will provide a close examination of how gender functions to shape both authorship and literary text. Students will investigate how writers use conventions of sex and gender, and how readers critically assess these literary representations. The instructor will choose the genre and periodization in any given semester. Emphasis will be divided between primary literary texts, relevant historical documents and selected theoretical commentary.

LIT 323  The Crime Film
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An in-depth study of the evolution and aesthetics of two major film genres, the gangster film and the film noir, though an examination of conventions of motivation, character, action, locale and iconography. The course will emphasize the genre film's treatment of the fundamental cultural conflicts that exist in society.

Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 324  Road Movies
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An in-depth study of the evolution and aesthetics of a major film genre, Road Movies, through an examination of conventions of motivation, character, action, locale and iconography. The course will emphasize the genre film's treatment of the fundamental cultural conflicts that exist in society.

Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 325  Science Fiction Film
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An in-depth study of the evolution and aesthetics of a major film genre, the Science Fiction Film, through an examination of conventions of motivation, character, action, locale and iconography. The course will emphasize the genre film's treatment of the fundamental cultural conflicts that exist in society.

Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 327  Crime and Punishment in Literature
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of works treating the theme of crime and related matters, such as motivation, guilt and responsibility. Works are considered from the psychological, sociological and philosophical points of view, as well as from the purely literary standpoint. Authors include Aeschylus, Shakespeare, Dostoevsky, Poe, Melville, Burgess, Capote.

Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 330  Alfred Hitchcock
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An intensive study of the work and vision of Alfred Hitchcock through an examination of theme, style, structure and view of cinema. Special emphasis will be placed on the recurrent artistic concerns as well as the philosophic, psychoanalytic and political concerns that identify the work of an important cinematic author.

Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 331  Steven Spielberg
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An intensive study of the work and vision of Steven Spielberg through an examination of theme, style, structure and view of cinema. Special emphasis will be placed on the recurrent artistic concerns as well as the philosophic, psychoanalytic and political concerns that identify the work of an important cinematic author.

Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 340  The African-American Experience in America: Comparative Racial Perspectives
(Same course as AAL 340)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An examination of African-American life through the works of both African-American and white writers. The course will look at the inter-relationships and differences between African-American and white perspectives. Authors such as W. E. B. Du Bois, Melville, Wright, Baldwin, Twain, Faulkner, Ellison, Welty, Morrison and Styron will be read.

Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233
LIT 352  New Fiction
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Writers today try to make sense out of the moral, cultural, political and social changes in the world since World War II. A study of novels and short stories written in the past several decades by major international authors such as Solzhenitsyn, Nabokov, Mailer and Borges.
Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 360  Mythology in Literature
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Examination of mythological themes like the creation of the world, the loves of gods with mortals, the descent into the underworld and the heroic quest as they appear in such writers as Homer, Ovid, Shakespeare, Tennyson and Yeats. Greek, Roman, Teutonic, Indian and African myths are among those studied.
Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 362  The Bible as Literature
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A non-doctrinal introduction to the Bible. Selected books from the Old and New Testament approached as literary and historical documents. Structure, characters, themes and archetypes. Modern translation to be used.
Prerequisite: one of the following: LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232 or LIT 233

LIT 390  Individual Reading
3 CREDITS, 3 HOURS
Submission of a project of reading and research for approval by the instructor. A paper and periodic conferences are required. Special arrangements may be made to do this work over the summer.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and junior standing or above.

LIT 401  Special Topics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Specific study of a topic chosen by the instructor and students.
Prerequisite: Any 300-level literature course, and ENG 102 or ENG 201

MATHEMATICS AND COMPUTER SCIENCE

MAT 100  Introduction to Basic Mathematical Skills
3 HOURS, NO CREDIT
A comprehensive study of the fundamental principles of arithmetic including operations with fractions, decimals, percents and signed numbers. Verbal problems as well as an introduction to the elements of algebra are included. Required for students needing additional preparation in mathematics before admission to MAT 103 or MAT 105.
Prerequisite: Placement examination.

MAT 103  Elements of Modern Mathematics I
3 HOURS, 1 CREDIT
Designed for students needing compensatory and remedial work with essentially the same content as MAT 105. Students required to take MAT 103 may retake the placement examination and may take MAT 104 or MAT 105. The grades of P and A are the only authorized passing grades.
Prerequisite: Placement examination.

MAT 104  Elements of Modern Mathematics II
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Designed for students needing compensatory and remedial work with essentially the same content as MAT 105. Students required to take MAT 103 may be placed into MAT 104 or MAT 105 depending on their performance on placement examination retaken at the conclusion of MAT 103.
Prerequisite: Placement examination, or MAT 103 or the equivalent.

MAT 105  Modern Mathematics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A systematic treatment of the foundation of college algebra. Topics include complex numbers, systems of linear equations and inequalities, functions, the theory of equations, logarithms and exponential functions, and related applications.
Prerequisite: Placement examination, or MAT 103 or the equivalent.
MAT 108 Social Science Mathematics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Recommended for students interested in the role of mathematical models in the quantification of the social sciences. Emphasis on mathematical skills and topics basic to the understanding of probability, linear programming, the power index, learning models, statistics, etc.
Prerequisite: Placement examination, or MAT 105 or the equivalent.

MAT 141 Pre-Calculus
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Recommended for forensic science majors. Topics include a study of the conic section, systems of linear equations, determinants, two-dimensional vector geometry functions and limits.
Prerequisite: Placement examination, or MAT 105 or the equivalent.

MAT 204 Discrete Structures
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The course introduces fundamental ideas in discrete structures, serving as a basis for subsequent courses in computer information science. Topics include sets, functions and relations, the Pigeonhole Principle, basic counting methods, elementary logic, mathematical induction, recursion, trees and graph theory.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and MAT 105 or the equivalent.

MAT 205 Probability
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Designed to set the foundations for frequency analysis and statistical inference. Topics in probability functions, densities and distributions.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and MAT 108 or MAT 141

MAT 220 Survey of the Concepts of Operations Research
(Same course as FIS 220 and PSC 220)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An introduction to operations research as it applies to model formulation in problems of management science, criminal justice, fire science and public service systems. Several topics will be surveyed from an elementary point of view in order to develop an appreciation and understanding of a quantitative approach to the resolution of management-oriented problems.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and MAT 108 or MAT 141

MAT 221 Operations Analysis for Public Systems
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Detailed examination of recent research involving the application of operations research to public systems such as law enforcement, fire science, air traffic control, library research, hospital operations. Opportunity is provided to develop and discuss student projects.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and MAT 220

MAT 241 Calculus I
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The basic concepts of limit, continuity and derivative are presented. Differentiation and integration of algebraic functions are developed. Applications are made to related rates, problems of maxima and minima, and to finding areas and volumes.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and MAT 141 or placement examination.

MAT 242 Calculus II
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Applies the concepts of Calculus I to transcendental functions. Introduces l’Hôpital’s method for dealing with indeterminate forms. Taylor series and general infinite series are discussed with respect to convergence and divergence.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and MAT 241

MAT 243 Calculus III
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Application of the techniques of elementary calculus to three dimensions, including vector calculus, surface area and arc length. Other topics discussed are the use of improper integrals in the form of Laplace integrals for solving ordinary differential equations, differentiation and the integration of infinite series.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and MAT 242

MAT 260 Data Processing
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course provides the student with basic knowledge of personal computers and their use in the modern workplace. Non-technically trained individuals learn how to organize their data for efficient computer use and to decide which practical options are available vis-à-vis specific computer systems. Students learn to use word processing... packages, spreadsheets and databases in a modern networked computing environment.

Prerequisites: ENG 101 and three credits of mathematics. No previous computer course is required.

MAT 270 Security of Computers and Their Data
(Same course as SEC 270)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Methods that have been used in the past to steal with the aid of the computer. Actual case studies will be used. Methods of detecting computer fraud. Physically protecting the computer and its peripherals.

Prerequisites: ENG 101 and one introductory course in computing or the equivalent.

MAT 271 Introduction to Computing and Programming
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Computer problem solving and programming in a high level language such as C++ are introduced. Algorithmic problem solving and basic programming techniques are emphasized. Problems are solved using methods such as top-down design and stepwise iterative refinement. Programming topics include basic data types, operators and expressions, control structures, functions, arrays and pointers. Students are introduced to a modern program development environment in the computer lab and are expected to complete several programming projects.

Prerequisites: ENG 101, and MAT 105 or the equivalent.

MAT 272 Object-Oriented Programming
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is a continuation of algorithmic problem solving, introducing more advanced methods, particularly object-oriented design. Topics include procedural abstraction, user defined static, dynamic and generic data types, linked structures, sorting and searching, event driven programming and recursion. Abstract data types, inheritance and polymorphism are examined in detail. Principles of rigorous programming practice and software development are emphasized.

Prerequisites: ENG 101 and MAT 271

MAT 273 Graphics and Interface Programming
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Students learn to develop programs that allow users to create, paint and display images. In addition, they learn to use an object-oriented approach to develop cross-platform application programs with graphical user interface components such as windows, buttons and menus that respond to events such as clicking the mouse or pressing a key. JAVA programming language is used as the medium.

Prerequisites: ENG 101 and MAT 272

MAT 276 Systems Analysis and Design
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The course introduces the concepts of information systems analysis and design including techniques for managing a systems development project. The role of the systems analyst and an overview of the entire systems development lifecycle are discussed. In addition, the requirements for an information system are defined using graphical models and supporting documentation. User interface and database designs are emphasized. Alternative analysis and design methods are also presented, as well as the object-oriented approach.

Prerequisites: ENG 101, and MAT 260 or MAT 271

MAT 277 Computers for Administrative Decision Making
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Examination of executive decision problems selected from various areas of public administration. Formulation of problems for computer solution, with students participating in the managerial decision making process. No previous computer programming knowledge is assumed.

Prerequisites: ENG 101 and six credits of mathematics.

MAT 278 Software Applications for Office Management
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will provide advanced experience in word processing, database analysis and spreadsheet analysis. Emphasis is given as to how to enhance the applicability of the above by using advanced features such as spreadsheet macros, database languages and word processing macros. Another feature of the course is to show how the tools above may be used together to enhance the productivity of the modern office.

Prerequisites: ENG 101 and six credits of mathematics.

MAT 279 Data Communications and the Internet
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An exploration of the use of personal computers, servers and appliances in communication networks such as the Internet. Communication protocols are introduced and the security of computer networks is discussed.
Methods for transmitting files and information and search methods using e-mail, FTP, Telnet and Web-based data systems are examined. The legal and ethical aspects of this field also are discussed.

Prerequisites: ENG 101, and MAT 105 or the equivalent.

MAT 301 Probability and Mathematical Statistics I

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Emphasis on the probability theory necessary for the study of statistical inference. Topics include studies of discrete, continuous and multivariate distributions. Applications to problems involving normal, binomial, Poisson and other distributions. Introduction to theory and methods of testing hypotheses and of estimation.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 241

MAT 302 Probability and Mathematical Statistics II

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Theory and methods of testing statistical hypotheses including Neyman-Pearson theorem, likelihood ratio tests, power function study, etc. Point and interval estimation of statistical parameters including study of unbiased, consistent, efficient and sufficient estimators. Results applied to problems from different fields involving binomial, Poisson, normal and related distributions.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 301

MAT 310 Linear Algebra

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Calculations with matrices, vector spaces, bases and dimensions, rank of a matrix, systems of linear equations, determinants, characteristic equations, eigenvalues and eigenvectors, and minimal polynomials.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 241-242 or the equivalent

MAT 323-324 Operations Research Models I and II

Each course: 3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

The construction of mathematical models for real-life situations with the application of operations research theory to obtain practical solutions. Problems are chosen from varied fields of endeavor with particular emphasis upon public sector-related topics, e.g., traffic flow, court procedures, network analysis and simulation techniques.

Prerequisites: For MAT 323: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 241. MAT 323 is required for MAT324.

MAT 371 Numerical Analysis

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Introduction to various numerical approximation techniques and the concept of error. Schemes are developed for finding the approximate solutions of algebraic and transcendental equations. Numerical differentiation and integration, finite differences, interpolation and extrapolation, and asymptotic approximation are also discussed. Applications to various branches of science are made. Stress is on the usefulness and necessity of numerical computation.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 242

MAT 373 Advanced Data Structures

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

The examination of commonly employed data structures such as stacks and queues will be the objective of the course. In addition, singly and doubly linked lists, hash-coded storage and searching, tree data structures along with the corresponding sorting methods such as heap sort and quick sort will also be included. The application of these structures to the creation of data banks for public sector functions as well as the modeling of service facilities such as the courts and document processing agencies will be emphasized.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 272

MAT 374 Programming Languages

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

The efficient translation from high level language to machine code is examined. Topics covered include context free grammars and push down automata, program semantics, virtual machines, data types and type checking, control structures, subprograms and exception handling. In addition, the imperative, object-oriented, function and logic programming paradigms are compared. Examples are taken from LISP, Prolog, C/C++ and Java.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 272

MAT 375 Operating Systems

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Fundamental concepts and techniques used in the design and implementation of modern operating systems are examined. Topics covered include processes, process coordination and synchronization, scheduling, memory organization and virtual memory, file systems, security and protection, and device management. The operating system’s impact on the security and integrity of the applications and information systems it supports is emphasized. Concepts are illustrated using UNIX and Windows NT.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 272

MAT 376 Artificial Intelligence
3 hours, 3 credits
Artificial intelligence is an introductory course for students interested in the design of intelligent information systems. It covers several topics ranging from knowledge representation, inference, planning, search, and other fundamental topics in artificial intelligence, to selected topics in information retrieval, learning and robotics. The course provides a background in artificial intelligence, an exposure to the major issues and methods in the field, and some experience in writing intelligent programs using Prolog.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 272

MAT 377 Computer Algorithms
3 hours, 3 credits
Recursive algorithms, complexity analysis, parallel and distributed algorithms are explored. Specific topics covered include searching, sorting, recursive descent parsing, pattern recognition, network and numerical algorithms, and encryption schemes. Algorithms employed in the design of secure information systems used by law enforcement and public agencies are examined.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 272

MAT 379 Computer Networking
3 hours, 3 credits
The principles and methodologies used in the design and implementation of modern computer networks and networked information systems are studied in detail. Topics include shared use of a multiple access channel, error detection and recovery, and flow and congestion control. Packet switched networks and routing protocols are examined, and procedures for secure and reliable transport over best-effort deliver systems are presented. In addition, communication protocols above the transport level, for example, protocols that support the Internet and current Internet applications such as Web servers and clients, are discussed. Network programming is introduced, and students will be expected to develop several client/server applications.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and MAT 272

MAT 400 Quantitative Problems in Criminal Justice
3 hours, 3 credits
This course will focus on quantitative applications in the criminal justice field. In this connection, principles and techniques from operations research, statistics and computer science will be applied to various situations and problems arising in criminal justice.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, MAT 221, MAT 324, and MAT 373

MAT 404 Internship in Management Information Systems
3 hours, 3 credits
This course gives students the opportunity to work directly with experienced administrators in city, state or federal agencies and to learn firsthand the role of information sciences in the agencies of the criminal justice system. Students normally work one day per week (120 hours per semester) in the agency, gaining experience in computer applications in the public sector. The classroom seminars and diary conferences allow the student to understand the roles computers play in management and decision making and to exchange experiences and gain insight into the workings of a number of different agencies. Placements are available in a broad range of these agencies.

Prerequisite: MAT 400

MAT 470 Database Systems in Criminal Justice
3 hours, 3 credits
Essentials of database systems: physical database organization, access methods, data models, entity relationships, and network, hierarchal and relational structures. Use of database technologies by law enforcement agencies to facilitate criminal investigations and improve agency functions.

Prerequisite: MAT 373

MAT 490 Selected Topics in Mathematics
3 hours, 3 credits
Specific study of topics chosen by the instructor and students.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and senior standing or permission of the section instructor.
MUSIC
(Department of Art, Music and Philosophy)

MUS 101 Introduction to Music
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course explores the history, techniques and cultural contexts of the major forms of Western classical music. The course's goals include development of the student's musical ear and a heightened understanding of the ways in which social, intellectual and cultural patterns are reflected in music culture. Attendance at live concerts is required.

MUS 102 Music Skills
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Principles of music theory, practice in reading and writing notation, elementary composition. Development of fundamental musical skills.

MUS 103 American Popular Music from Jazz to Rock
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course surveys the history of jazz and of the major 20th-century and modern styles of American popular music, including blues, gospel, rhythm 'n' blues, soul and hip-hop, exploring both stylistic features as well as socio-cultural themes.

MUS 104 Music in World Culture
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course explores the traditional and modern musics of selected world cultures, examining both their styles and their socio-cultural backgrounds. Areas to be studied may include Africa, India, Indonesia, and/or other regions, as well as diasporic communities in New York City.

MUS 105 Introduction to Vocal Technique, Style and Song Literature
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A studio class introducing the principles of vocal technique and developing the singing voice through study of classical methods. Song literature studied ranges from 17th and 18th century art songs through traditional folk music to contemporary classical and popular songs. Prerequisite: Ability to sing a simple song with correct rhythm and pitch and a pleasant tonal quality.

MUS 110 Piano
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The basics of playing the piano. Instruction in reading music for the piano as well as the fundamentals of technique, including hand positions and finger exercises. Daily practice required; practice pianos available on campus. Exploration of the general history and literature of the piano.

MUS 110 Popular Musics of the Caribbean
(Same course as PLM 110)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A survey of the major popular music styles of the Caribbean, including salsa, reggae, soca and other genres, exploring their social contexts, historical origins, and relation to indigenous folk musics. The important role of New York City as a center for Caribbean music will also be examined.

MUS 115 John Jay Chorus I
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The class constitutes a singing ensemble of men and women. Class sessions operate as rehearsals and require regular attendance. The music sung reflects a wide range of styles. Skills are developed in the following areas: the ability to sing an independent part correctly and in tune; basic vocal technique; sight-reading of musical notation; diction; and general musicianship. Public performances may be given. Prior experience is not required, though members are expected to be able to sing a simple tune correctly.

MUS 115 John Jay Chorus II
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A continuation of Music 130. Class sessions operate as rehearsals, and require regular attendance. The music sung reflects a wide range of styles. Improved skills are developed in the following areas: the ability to sing an independent part correctly, basic vocal technique, sight reading, diction, general musicianship. Public performances may be given. Prerequisite: MUS 130
NATURAL SCIENCE
(=Department of Sciences=)

NSC 107 Introduction to Science in Society
6 HOURS: 3 HOURS LECTURE, 1-1/2 HOURS RECITATION, 1-1/2 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
A course in the basic principles of atomic and molecular physical science including concepts of measurement and data collection, the scientific method, the structure of matter and living organisms, with emphasis on the relationships between science and society.
Prerequisites: MAT 104, and MAT 105 or the equivalent. May not be taken after CHE 108, ENV 108, FOS 108 or PHY 108

PHILOSOPHY
(=Department of Art, Music and Philosophy=)

PHI 102 Introduction to Ethics
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Do objective moral standards exist or is morality relative to culture or individual? This course examines the principles that guide moral reasoning and argumentation. The main theories of ethical justification are analyzed, with application to such selected issues of social morality as punishment, civil disobedience, privacy and sexual behavior, war, racial and sexual equality, abortion, euthanasia, business integrity and economic justice.

PHI 105 Critical Thinking and Informal Logic
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is a basic introduction to critical reasoning. Focus is on students’ developing and applying skills in critical and analytic reading and writing. Topics covered include recognizing arguments, identifying premises and conclusions, clarity and relevance in argumentative language, distinguishing types of arguments, validity and soundness in constructing and evaluating arguments, fallacies, elements of legal reasoning.

PHI 204 Logic
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An exposition of formal and informal methods of evaluating reasoning in arguments and texts. We will examine systems or models of deductive reasoning, problems of translation from natural to formal languages, reasoning and rhetoric in complex arguments and the foundations of the logic of investigation.
Prerequisite: ENG 101

PHI 203 Political Philosophy
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Examination of the philosophical presuppositions about human nature that are inherent in political theories from Plato to Marx and concepts of sovereignty, freedom, authority and law.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, and sophomore standing or above or permission of the section instructor.

PHI 204 Death, Dying and Society: A Life Crises Management Issue
(Same course as ANT 224, PSY 224 and SOC 224)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Death and dying will be viewed from the perspectives of a variety of academic disciplines and applied fields. The course will deal with the dying process: the different cultural practices and beliefs related to this process; its impact on the individual and his or her family, particularly in the areas of grief, mourning and restructuring of the family; and it will examine the ways different occupational groups are routinely involved with death and dying and the methods they evolve to manage it for others and cope with it themselves. The course will also explore different types of death, death at different periods in the life cycle, euthanasia, abortion and ethical, religious existential issues related to death and dying. The course will be multidisciplinary.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and an introductory course in sociology, anthropology, philosophy, or psychology.

PHI 231 Knowing, Being and Doing: Philosophical Method and Its Applications
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An introduction to four major philosophical questions: What can I know for certain? Does God exist? How should I act toward others? What is justice? This analysis of the foundations of knowledge, religious belief, ethical theory and social justice includes readings from Plato, Aristotle, St. Thomas, Descartes, Kant, Mill and contemporary philosophers.
Prerequisite: ENG 101
PHI 302  Philosophical Issues of Rights
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will explore a number of philosophical issues regarding the nature, content and scope of rights. Fundamental issues include what is meant by the notion of a right, how rights are justified and what sorts of rights we have (negative and/or positive). Other issues will also be explored including whether all humans have rights, whether the scope of rights encompasses animals and ecosystems in addition to humans, and whether rights exist for groups as well as individuals.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PHI 231

PHI 304  Philosophy of the Mind
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course presents discussion and critical assessment of some major philosophical questions concerning the mind: What is the mind? How much can we know about the self? Can we completely understand the mind in physico-chemical terms? What are the moral, political and ethical implications of our understanding of the mind? The course will survey the most important approaches to these questions, including dualism, behaviorism, identity theory, functionalism, eliminativism and others.
Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PHI 231

PHI 310  Ethics and Law
(Same course as LAW 310)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Inquiry into the relationship between morality and law; their organic interrelationship in the natural law tradition; their separation in positivism. The contemporary debate illustrated by the issues of human and civil rights; the enforcement of sexual morality; civil disobedience; and the ethics of law enforcement.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PHI 231 or permission of the section instructor.

PHI 321  Police Ethics
(Same course as CRJ 321)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An identification and analysis of the diverse ethical issues encountered in the police service. Traditional ethical theories will be examined and will be applied to such topics as discretion, deadly physical force, misconduct, authority and responsibility, affirmative action, civil disobedience, undercover operations and privacy.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PHI 231 or permission of the section instructor.

PHI 322  Judicial and Correctional Ethics
(Same course as CRJ 322)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A treatment of some of the central issues of judicial and correctional ethics. Traditional ethical theories will be applied to such topics as plea bargaining, bail and preventive detention, wiretapping, enforcement of sexual morality, sentencing, punishment, prisoners’ rights and parole.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PHI 231 or permission of the section instructor.

PHI 326  Topics in the History of Modern Thought
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will explore in depth one of the basic philosophic movements or conceptual themes that characterize modernity such as individualism, natural rights, freedom/liberty, utilitarianism, the Enlightenment, secularization, or existentialism. The course will analyze the metaphysical as well as the political presuppositions of the selected theme in relation to its historical context. (The course instructor will choose the semester’s theme.)
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PHI 231 or permission of the instructor.

PHI 340  Utopian Thought
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Representations of ideal societies have played an important part in discussions of justice since Plato's Republic. This course will focus on some of the classical utopian (and dystopian) texts as well as on representative contemporary literary efforts in the utopian tradition. We will also examine some of the philosophical, literary, and historiographical analyses of utopian thought and of the social phenomena associated with it.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PHI 231 or permission of the instructor.
PHI 423 Selected Topics in Justice
(Same course as GOV 423)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This is an advanced senior-level seminar focusing on one of a set of specific topics or issues to be chosen by the instructor offering this section of the course — concerning the philosophical concept of justice. Topics can be either theoretical and applied, and may include, but are not limited to, any of the following: an advanced survey of contemporary philosophical theories of justice; the textual analysis of one philosophic classic on justice, e.g., John Rawls’ Theory of Justice; the philosophy of punishment and retribution; justice — distributive and compensatory; the impact of race, gender, and class on the contemporary philosophical analysis of justice.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, PHI 231, and one 300-level philosophy or political theory course, or permission of the section instructor.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

PED 103 Personal Physical Fitness and Dynamic Health
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Students will analyze modern concepts of fitness, evaluate their personal level of health and fitness, examine the values of various exercise programs, perform exercises designed to improve muscular and cardiovascular systems, and understand concepts of weight management, diet and nutrition, and stress management. Students will be counseled toward solutions to their individual physical fitness-health needs.

PED 104 Cardiovascular Fitness (Formerly PED 195)
2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT
A basic course in physical conditioning, emphasizing cardiovascular fitness. This course is especially important for students who plan careers in law enforcement. The course features participation in a circuit training program by prescription. Apparatuses include treadmills, bicycle ergometer, dumbbells, wall pulleys, rowing machine, variable resistance bench press and knee-thigh machines. Students must provide medical clearance prior to undergoing a comprehensive fitness evaluation. Each exercise program is individually prescribed. Students will receive work capacity tests. This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 109 Water Aerobics and Basic Survival Skills
2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT
Introduction to aquatics in the safe low-impact medium of chest-deep water. Emphasis is on utilizing the water’s resistance and buoyancy to promote cardiovascular conditioning, body toning, muscular strength, endurance and breathing. Use of state-of-the-art aquatic equipment such as Wet Vest (for deep water jogging) and Aqua Step Fins is included. This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than 4 credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.
PED 110  Contemporary Health Problems
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

The course will explore research on critical health issues dealing with mental health, substance addiction and dependence, nutrition, human sexuality, infectious and non-infectious diseases and their relationship to morbidity and longevity.

PED 111 Aquatics I: Beginner Swimming
2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT

Introduction to the fundamental swimming skills of floating, gliding and front crawl with instruction in basic water skills, safety and land rescue. Progression to more advanced skills such as treading water and standing front dive. Award of appropriate National Red Cross Aquatics Certificate level on completion of all skills requirements.
This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than 4 credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 112 Aquatics II: Intermediate Swimming
2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT

Designed for students who have the fundamental swimming skills and are able to swim in deep water. Emphasis on form and ease in swimming and on perfecting the front crawl, breaststroke, sidestroke, back crawl and standing front dive with instruction in basic water skills, safety and land rescue. Award of appropriate National Red Cross Aquatics Certificate level on completion of all skills requirements.
This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than 4 credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 114 Aquatics III: Advanced Swimming
2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT

Designed for competent swimmers capable of swimming the crawl, backstroke and breaststroke. Review of basic water skills, safety and land rescue. Training principles and interval workouts. Stretching, weight training and nutrition applicable to fitness, masters, and tri-athletes. Individualized video analysis of swimming skills. Award of appropriate National Red Cross Aquatics Certificate level on completion of all skills requirements.
This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than 4 credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 120 - 129 Intercollegiate Athletics Participation
1 CREDIT  PER ACTIVITY

These courses are limited to students who have successfully completed a full season of participation on a varsity team and have met the pre-established criteria in an activity within the intercollegiate athletic or sport club program at John Jay College.
This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 131 Air Pistol Shooting
2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT

This course is an introduction to the basic handling of the air pistol (which uses pellets and not live ammunition), in order to develop the proper attitude for using a pistol safely and to develop skills in shooting at a bull’s-eye target. This course is also an introduction to the historical, legal and political issues associated with the pistol.
This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 143 Karate I
2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT

A basic course in fundamentals, including stances, punches, kicks, formal exercise, prearranged sparring and free-sparring. History and philosophy discussed.
This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 144 Karate II
2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT

Introduction leading to the acquisition of advanced skills in stances, punches, kicks, formal exercise, prearranged sparring and free-sparring. History and philosophy of karate will be explored through assigned readings, lectures, discussions and a field trip. Practice in directing and judging competitors and familiarization with Metropolitan Intercollegiate Karate League rules. Voluntary participation in intramural and intercollegiate competitions. Prepares students for promotion. This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 145 Self Defense

2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT

An introduction to the skills useful in defending against attacks from the side, rear and front. Various safety preventions and hazards in the home and street will be explored.

This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 150 Tennis I

2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT

Introduction to the basic tennis skills. Emphasis will be placed upon the forehand and backhand groundstrokes, footwork, volley and the serve. Basic singles and doubles strategies will be discussed.

This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 155 Golf I

2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT

Introduction to the rules, terminology, and fundamentals of golf, leading to development of sufficient skills enabling the student to enjoy the game as a player and spectator. Class instruction and practice using indoor hitting nets, chipping baskets and synthetic grass putting greens will help the student to develop driving, fairway wood and iron, chipping and putting strokes.

This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 166 Yoga I

(Formerly PED 192)

2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT

An introduction to the fundamental posture exercises, breathing and relaxation techniques of yoga as a basis for physical and mental self-improvement.

This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.
PED 168  Weight Training and Body Development
2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT
An introduction to the proper skills of weight training. The concepts of weight training, muscular development, strength and stamina are examined. The student will develop and practice a personal program of weight training.
This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 172  The Development of Weapons: An Historical Perspective
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course provides an introduction to the historical development of weapons. The sociological, political and ethical issues associated with weapons’ development are examined. Emphasis is placed on the use of weapons and their relationship to law enforcement.
Note: This course does not satisfy the physical education requirement of the College’s general education requirements.

PED 177  Physical Fitness for Law Enforcement
2 HOURS, 1 CREDIT
This course introduces students to physical, cognitive and emotional demands of police, correction and fire fighter work. Students learn how to develop and maintain high levels of aerobic and anaerobic fitness as well as how to address many special needs of law enforcement personnel: diet and nutrition, care of the back, fatigue from shift work and physical fitness tests.
This is an activity course. Students may apply no more than four credits of activity courses toward their degree requirements. There is no restriction on the number of three-credit physical education courses that can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

PED 180  Stress Management
(Same course as PSY 180)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course will explain the sources and consequences of stress. Key theories and terminology will be discussed and evaluated. A variety of instruments that measure stress levels among individuals will be demonstrated. Coping techniques enabling students to adjust to the demands of stress will be described and practiced.

PED 185  Health Issues in the Uniformed Services
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Comprehensive examination of recent research and attitudes relating to health problems faced by uniformed services personnel. The course will discuss problems of substance abuse and addiction, HIV/AIDS, cardiovascular diseases, physical fitness, alcohol, tobacco, nutrition, infectious and non-infectious diseases. Students will examine various strategies for making decisions regarding their health. This course is open to all students.

PHYSICS
(Department of Sciences)

PHY 101  College Physics I (Liberal Arts Physics)
6 HOURS: 2 HOURS LECTURE, 1 HOUR RECITATION, 3 HOURS LABORATORY; OR EQUIVALENT
Topics include kinematics, vectors, forces, Newton’s law of motion, weight, gravitational field, free fall, non-uniformly accelerated motion, momentum and impulse, kinetic and potential energy, heat and thermodynamics, illumination and photometry, reflection of light, refraction.
Prerequisite: Sequential Mathematics Level III or Trigonometry.

PHY 102  College Physics II (Liberal Arts Physics)
6 HOURS: 2 HOURS LECTURE, 1 HOUR RECITATION, 3 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
Topics covered include electrostatics, electric fields and electric potential, current electricity, magnetic field, electromagnetic induction, the wave-particle duality, photons and matter waves, physics of the atom, nuclear physics.
Prerequisite: PHY 101

PHY 203  General Physics I
6 HOURS: 2 HOURS LECTURE, 1 HOUR RECITATION, 3 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS
This is the first semester of a two-semester introductory course sequence, which is designed to provide the student with a general knowledge of the principles, concepts and theories of classical and modern physics. This calculus-based course is designed for students with a science or engineering background and for forensic science majors. The topics covered this semester will pertain to geometric optics, mechanics, and heat and thermodynamics.
Prerequisite: ENG 101, MAT 241 Co-requisite: MAT 242
PHY 204  General Physics II
6 HOURS: 2 HOURS LECTURE, 1 HOUR RECITATION, 3 HOURS LABORATORY; 4 CREDITS

This is the second semester of a two-semester introductory course sequence that is designed to provide the student with a general knowledge of the principles, concepts, and theories of classical and modern physics. This calculus-based course is designed for students with a science or engineering background and for forensic science majors. The topics covered this semester will pertain to fluid mechanics, vibrations and wave motion, electricity and magnetism, and physical optics.
Prerequisites: PHY 203, MAT 242, and ENG 101

POLICE SCIENCE
(Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration)

PSC 101  Introduction to Police Studies
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A survey of law enforcement agencies, their role, history and development within the field of criminal justice. Limited to students who do not have law enforcement experience.
Prerequisite: Eligibility to enroll in ENG 101

PSC 201  Police Organization and Administration
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

An examination of the historical development and present organization and administration of police departments, and a consideration of the principles of organization best adapted to ensure effective service to the community. Evaluation of line, staff and auxiliary functions; the utilization of planning and analytic units as administrative aids.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, sophomore standing or above, and one of the following: PSC 101, CRJ 101 or ICJ 101

PSC 202  Police and Community Relations
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Factors in human relations as they affect policing and police management. Prejudice and discrimination and their effects on the police in a changing society. The history and development of civil rights and civil liberties. The role of the modern police officer as generated by the balance of the requirements of peace and order and those of individual rights.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and one of the following: PSC 101, CRJ 101 or ICJ 101

PSC 204  The Patrol Function
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Consideration of the various factors, which influence the determination of patrol strength, type and distribution. Existing patrol practices in various police departments of the United States, Europe and the United Kingdom are compared and evaluated critically. Consideration of the future of patrol and an evaluation of recent theories for increasing efficiency.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and sophomore standing or above.

PSC 207  The Investigative Function
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Introduction to criminal investigation in the field. Consideration of conduct at the crime scene, interview and interrogation of witnesses and suspects, the use of informants and the techniques of surveillance. Emphasis on the special techniques employed in particular kinds of investigation and the presentation of the police cases in court.
Prerequisites: ENG 101 and sophomore standing or above.

PSC 216  Crime Mapping
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

The course covers both the theory and practice of Geographic Information Systems (“GIS”) for law enforcement and public safety purposes, a technique known as “crime mapping.” The class introduces the theoretical framework for the study of the ecology of public safety, or “crime and place,” the descriptive and analytic procedures of crime mapping, and how spatial analysis is used in designing and implementing effective programs of crime prevention, problem solving and community policing.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and CRJ 101 or ICJ 101. Knowledge of Windows software is required.

PSC 220 Survey of the Concepts of Operations Research (Same course as FIS 220 and MAT 220)

An introduction to operations research as it applies to model formulation in problems of management science, criminal justice, fire science and public service systems. Several topics will be surveyed from an elementary point of view in order to develop an appreciation and understanding of a quantitative approach to the resolution of management-oriented problems.

Prerequisites: ENG 101, and MAT 108 or MAT 141

PSC 223 Personnel Administration and Supervision

The essentials of personnel management and fundamentals of supervision and leadership as applied to administration. Consideration of supervisory problems with a police/security system. Application of labor relations to effective performance. Topics include discipline, motivation, training, job classification, salary standards and promotion.

PSC 227 Police Training Programs: Goals, Content and Administration

An examination and evaluation of various police training programs, both historical and current: goals, purposes, course content and teaching techniques of such programs. An examination of their organization, administration, financing, and relationship to police departments, universities, foundations, and city, state and federal agencies.

PSC 230 Sex Offenders in the Criminal Justice System (Same course as COR 230)

The aim of this course is to develop an understanding of the causes of sexual crimes and how sex offenders are dealt with throughout the criminal justice process. There is an analysis of the laws that relate to sex offenders and the cyclical nature of sex offender legislation. The course examines the difficulty of balancing rights of the offenders and rights of the community, and what forms of community protection are viable for these individuals. By the end of the course, students should have an understanding of sex offender typologies, types of treatment offered, laws and policies regarding sex crimes, and the likely future direction of legislation.

Prerequisites: ENG 101 and one of the following: COR 101, PSC 101, CRJ 101 or ICJ 101

PSC 235 Women in Policing

An analysis of the social and political forces that guided the evolution of women’s role in policing from ancillary specialist to integrated member of the police establishment. Role enhancement from “Police Matron” to “Policewoman” to “Police Officer” is studied against the backdrop of women’s reform movements. Title VII, Equal Opportunity Act of 1972 and Supreme Court rulings abolishing barriers to women in policing are examined. Study of women police in other countries, in state and federal agencies. Topics include female officers’ occupational role conflicts; performance on patrol; coping with physical and psychological stressors — male peer prejudice, jealous mates, favoritism, sexual harassment; women’s special attributes in policing; female detectives; the future, including the role of women in key policy-making decisions.

PSC 245 Community Policing

An overview of the major concepts and issues involved in what many consider to be a major fundamental shift in the approach and operations of modern policing. Topics include the origins, meaning, development, experiences and the record of community policing. Course also explores various assessments of the advantages and disadvantages of community policing.

Prerequisites: ENG 101 and one of the following: PSC 101, CRJ 101 or ICJ 101

PSC 250 Criminal Justice in Eastern Europe

This course examines in detail the criminal justice systems in various Eastern European countries including the police, defense and prosecuting attorneys, courts, corrections and juvenile justice systems. Comparisons of crime and criminality in various Eastern European countries will be discussed from economic, legal, moral and political points of view.

Prerequisite: ENG 101
PSC 271 Psychological Foundations of Police Work
(Same course as PSY 271)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
This course is designed to explore and apply psychological principles and practice to the varied police functions in present-day society. Some of the specific topics that will be discussed and critically examined are the unique psychological stresses of police work and their effect on the police officer, his family, and the public; identification and management of the problem police officer; psychological stresses of command; psychology of crowds; riots and their effective control; the application of psychological principles to detective work. The interpersonal psychodynamics of the police with civilian complainants, victims, and violent, aggressive, assaultive individuals will be reviewed in depth.
Prerequisites: ENG 101, sophomore standing or above, and PSC 101 or PSY 101

PSC 301 The Police Manager
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Consideration of contemporary management theory and practice in the context of the management of police organizations. The police organization as a dynamic social system. The behavioral and social skills required of the police manager to deal effectively with a rapidly changing community and cadre of police officers. Behavioral implications in the interaction between individuals and groups in the police organization and its processes; power, decision making, communicating and leadership in police organizations. Organizational development issues and future developments in police management.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PSC 201

PSC 306 Police Work with Juveniles
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The philosophy and methods of police programs for prevention and control of juvenile delinquency and youth crime. Emphasis on specific techniques and a consideration of the issues and problems to be resolved by police.
Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201

PSC 309 Comparative Police Systems
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A study of selected police systems in other nations.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PSC 201

PSC 315 An Economic Analysis of Crime
(Same course as ECO 315)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
Crimes with economic motivations are analyzed using the Economic Theory of Crime. Topics focus on urban problems including narcotics, illegal gambling, loan-sharking, labor racketeering and organized crime. Costs of crime and imprisonment are discussed. Strengths and weaknesses of the Economic Theory of Crime are discussed from alternative points of view.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, ECO 101 or ECO 102, and junior standing or above.

PSC 340 Planning for Police Operations and Management
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
The planning process inherent in police operations and management including the fundamentals of planning. Long-term and short-term planning and tactical planning for contingent and non-contingent events, e.g., crime prevention and control, barricaded criminals, hostage situations, parades, demonstrations, civil disorders, natural and man made disasters, coordination of emergency forces at the scene of emergencies. Management planning for new program development, deployment and utilization of resources, reductions in force, management analysis, structural change and participative approaches to policing.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PSC 201

PSC 350 Police Labor Relations
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An in-depth examination of the essentials of police-municipal labor relations, including the history and structure of police unions, police-municipal collective bargaining concepts and problems, relevant labor law, Public Employees Relations Board Rulings and labor contract administration in a police setting.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and PSC 201

PSC 401 Seminar in Police Problems
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
An analysis of the major police problems from the viewpoints of both the administrator and the line operations officer.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, senior standing, and majoring in police studies or criminal justice.
PSC 405  Organized Crime in America
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A seminar on the origins, organization, function and control of organized crime.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, senior standing, and majoring in police studies or criminal justice.

PSC 410  Independent Study
(Same course as COR 410, CRJ 410 and LAW 410)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A program of reading and reporting planned and carried out under the guidance of a faculty member. The topic, issue or area of student interest must concern a problem in criminal justice, constitutional or criminal law or procedure, corrections including probation and parole, or law enforcement.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and senior standing.

PSC 415  Seminar on Terrorism
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

SOC 314 Theories of Social Order

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

Consideration of the main contributions of sociological theorists since the 19th century toward an understanding of the conditions under which stable social orders are established and sustained. Views as diverse as those of Marx, Weber, Durkheim and Parsons will be considered. Topics include issues concerning value consensus, institutions, mechanisms of social control, political and economic power, class stratification and bureaucracy.

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, SOC 101, and junior standing or above.

SOC 333 Gender Issues in International Criminal Justice

3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

This course will examine the role of gender in crime and criminal justice and will cover the following topics from a cross-cultural comparative perspective: 1) women as offenders, including the range of offenses, their seriousness, and changes in the nature; 2) women as victims, including abused women, rape victims, and women forced into prostitution; 3) women as social control agents/professionals in the criminal justice systems (as attorneys, police officers, correctional officers, etc.).

Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, junior standing or above, and one of the following: SOC 101, CRJ 101 or ICJ 101
SOC 335  Migration and Crime
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

This course asks what changes take place when a population moves from a rural to an urban area, from one country to another and from a pre-industrial to an industrial society. Theories of the links of migration with crime and entrepreneurship are tested for both past and current immigrant groups. The sub-economies and subcultures that immigrants create are also considered.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, SOC 101 and junior standing or above

SOC 341 International Criminology
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

This course analyzes the nature and causation of international and transnational crime and examines issues in the globalization of crime, including terrorism, money laundering, drug trafficking and weapons dealing, among others. Using data from international crime and victimization surveys, this course will also explore patterns, trends and rates of crime and delinquency, and will discuss the variety of sociological, demographic and economic explanations.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and SOC 101

SOC 351 Crime and Delinquency in Asia
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

This course focuses on the nature and extent of crime and delinquency and the social context in which crime occurs in Asian countries. Comparisons of crime and delinquency in various Asian nations will be made with reference to economic development and the social status of women and children. Special topics such as dowry murders in India, Yakuza gangs in Japan and Chinese triads will be discussed.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, junior standing or above, and SOC 101 or ICJ 101

SOC 360 Corporate and White Collar Crime
(Same course as ECO 360)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

In examining crimes committed by corporations and organizations, as well as individuals in the course of their occupation, this course explores how such crimes are socially defined, who commits them, who is victimized by them, which social contexts promote them, and how society responds to them. The economic, social and political costs of corporate and white-collar crime are compared to street crime. Other topics include embezzlement, fraud and theft that occurs within enterprises, underground economic activity; criminal violation of antitrust and environmental laws, security, fiduciary, and market crimes; and corrupt relationships between business and government. Members of either the economics or sociology faculties teach this course with varying emphasis on the above topics.
Prerequisite: ENG 102 or ENG 201, junior standing or above, SOC 203, and one course in economics.

SOC 380 Sociology Laboratory in Dispute Resolution
Skill Building
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

The techniques and the skills of dispute resolution; primary focus on mediation and minimal attention to arbitration. Students are introduced to the strategies and tactics of negotiations, with special emphasis on mediation as an extension of the negotiation process in the resolution of interpersonal and community disputes.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and SOC 206

SOC 381 Internship in Dispute Resolution
10 HOURS PER WEEK, 3 CREDITS

Students are placed in appropriate settings to enhance their dispute resolution skills and techniques.
Prerequisite: SOC 380

SOC 401 Problems of Minority Groups - Seminar
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

This course reviews theories about the causes of racism; investigates how minority groups face discrimination in schooling, housing, jobs; and looks into the controversy over whether there is a dual system (or double standard) of justice.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and senior standing

SOC 410 Independent Study
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS

A program of reading and reporting planned and carried out under the guidance of a faculty member. Concerned with a selected topic, issue, or area of interest in sociology, anthropology, or psychology.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, and 12 credits in sociology or permission of the department and the section instructor.
SOC 420  Women and Crime
(Same course as CRJ 420)
3 HOURS, 3 CREDITS
A seminar to explore in depth three aspects of the relationship between women and crime: 1) women as offenders, including the range, intensity, and growing nature of female criminality; 2) women as victims of crime, including abused women, rape victims and the victimization aspects of prostitution; 3) women as social control agents.
Prerequisites: ENG 102 or ENG 201, SOC 101, senior standing, CRJ 101 or PSC 101, or permission of the section instructor.

SOC 430-431 Criminology Research Internship
STUDENTS WILL SPEND EIGHT HOURS PER WEEK FOR A TOTAL OF 96 HOURS PER SEMESTER IN THE FIELD AND 15 HOURS PER SEMESTER IN SEMINARS. 3 CREDITS

ADDITION STUDIES MINOR

Matriculated students may elect to minor in Addiction Studies by completing 18 credits in the Addiction Studies Program. Students may select any six of the eight education required courses listed in the first section of the certificate program to earn the minor.

For additional information on the Addiction Studies Certificate Program, please visit http://web.jjay.cuny.edu/~addiction. The coordinator of the program is Professor Daniel Yalisove, Department of Psychology ([212.237.8794, daniel.yalisove@jjay.cuny.edu](mailto:212.237.8794, daniel.yalisove@jjay.cuny.edu)).

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

The Dispute Resolution Certificate Program offers training in the techniques of dispute resolution, the theory and the methods of defusing conflicts. The program is designed to provide students with an understanding of the conceptual issues involving conflict and conflict management, the skills required to act effectively as a dispute resolver, and internship opportunities for the application of knowledge and skills.

Upon successful completion of coursework and a practicum, matriculated students receive a certificate in dispute resolution from John Jay College, authorized by the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York and the New York State Department of Education.

Credits required. 30

Prerequisite: Sociology 101. This course partially fulfills the College’s general education requirements in the social sciences. Individual courses may have their own prerequisites. Students are advised to read carefully all course descriptions in this bulletin when planning their programs, and should consult with the program coordinator.

CUNY BACCALAUREATE PROGRAM

Established in 1971, the CUNY Baccalaureate Program (CUNY BA/BS Program) is a small, University-wide alternate degree program intended for self-directed, academically strong students who have well-formulated academic goals. Students who are admitted to the program develop their own area of concentration with guidance from a CUNY faculty member who agrees to serve as their mentor. Students also complete the program’s liberal arts core and other degree requirements. Although students in the program are matriculated at one CUNY college, they are free to pursue their studies and take courses at any other CUNY college.

To apply, students must have a clear academic goal and must have completed at least 15 college credits with a grade point average of 2.5 or higher. The CUNY BA/BS degrees are fully accredited and are awarded by The City University rather than by an individual college. The program operates under the auspices of the CUNY Graduate School and University Center.

Further information may be obtained from the CUNY BA/BS Program Office at 365 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10016-4309 (212-817-8220). Professor Patricia Licklider (Department of English) is the Coordinator of the CUNY BA/BS Program at John Jay College (212.237.8598, plicklider@jjay.cuny.edu).

CUNY ONLINE BACCALAUREATE PROGRAM

The CUNY Online Baccalaureate Program is a fully online Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree program in Communication and Culture. The program provides students with the basis for understanding the complexities of human interaction in the modern world. This program of study is accredited by New York State and the Middle States Commission on Higher Education.

This program was established to serve the needs of working adults who, because of family or career constraints, lack the ability to attend traditional classes on a physical campus setting. This program provides an opportunity to complete the baccalaureate degree.

The program offers a wide range of traditional general education offerings in English, Math, Science, Languages, Information Literacy, History, Philosophy, Natural Sciences, and a major in Communication and Culture. As part of the major, course participants will research and analyze specific examples and types of cultural change and models of communication.

Further information may be obtained from the CUNY website (www.cuny.edu/online) or by calling 212.652.CUNY (2869).

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES PROGRAM

The Interdisciplinary Studies Program offers students an opportunity to explore issues of contemporary significance from many points of view. Students in Interdisciplinary Studies enroll in a theme, which is examined through a group of related courses. Classes are small. The traditional format is varied by team-teaching, guest speakers, student debates and class discussions, as well as by the use of films, visual art, music, legal and psychological case studies and other media. To allow time for field trips to agencies, courts, museums and other places pertinent to the theme, classes are scheduled once a week for double sessions.

The Interdisciplinary Studies Program is open to any full-time or part-time student who has been accepted for admission to the College. Students may complete as many as 60 credits in Interdisciplinary Studies. Credits earned in the program may be used to fulfill the College’s general education requirements and certain requirements in most majors, and they also count as electives.

Internships

Students enrolled in the Interdisciplinary Studies Program may register each semester for 3-credit internships as part of their regular coursework. Placement is available in more than 40 organizations specializing in legal services, criminal justice, social service, and tutoring and counseling programs. Requirements include seven to eight hours of fieldwork each week, as well as preliminary and final papers and meetings with instructors.

For additional information, contact Ms. Darryl Westcott-Marshall, Department of Interdisciplinary Studies (212.237.8462, dwestcottmarshall@jjay.cuny.edu).
INTERNSHIP AND COOPERATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Internship courses provide students with an opportunity to earn 3 academic credits while gaining experience working in a field placement. An internship usually requires a minimum attendance of eight hours each week in an assigned agency. All interns, faculty, advisers and agency supervisors meet on Internship Day early each semester for a general meeting and the signing of contracts and other required forms. During the semester, students meet with faculty advisers in the required seminars and classes. To fulfill the academic requirements, students are also responsible for submitting written reports that analyze their field experiences and related readings.

Eligibility requirements for internships include completion of 30 credits and a minimum grade point average of 2.5. In special situations, letters of recommendation from faculty members and approval from the administrative associate for internships may be required.

CO-OP (Cooperative Education Program)

The CO-OP Program combines academic study with paid work experience in both public and private sectors. CO-OP agreements, work and school schedules may vary by employer.

An alternating CO-OP may consist of two six-month alternating periods of paid, full-time employment and a full-time semester at the College scheduled between the two paid work periods. During their work periods, students may attend college classes on a part-time basis. After their second work period, students return to the College to complete any necessary requirements for their baccalaureate degrees.

In a parallel CO-OP, students may work part-time for the employer and attend classes full-time until they graduate.

In some federal agencies such as the U.S. Marshals Services students start their CO-OP paid work experience in their last semester and must complete 640 hours before graduation.

In most agreements, CO-OP students are offered employment after successful completion of both their academic requirements and the work experience.

Students may apply for 3 credits per semester for work in a Cooperative Education Program. A maximum of 6 credits may be earned in this manner. To fulfill the academic requirement, participants register for the Cooperative Education courses, CEP 390 or CEP 391, described in Chapter 2 of this undergraduate bulletin.

To be eligible for a CO-OP internship, a student must have completed at least 60 credits with an overall grade point average of 3.0.

Students interested in the Cooperative Education Program should apply to Ms. Prem Sukhan, Administrative Associate for the Office of Cooperative Education (212.237.8437, psukhan@jjay.cuny.edu). Students must supply a copy of their transcript when applying.

RONALD E. McNAIR POST-BACCALAUREATE ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM

The McNair Program is a federally funded program. It is designed to increase the participation of first generation, low-income students from underrepresented groups in graduate education, particularly in doctoral programs.

Student participants, known as McNair Scholars, receive mentoring, specialized academic and career counseling, tutoring and graduate school preparatory seminars, assistance in obtaining financial aid for graduate study, and assistance in applying for and obtaining admission to graduate school. McNair Scholars also earn 3 credits for their participation in a research seminar during the spring semester. First year scholars receive summer stipends and second year scholars receive spring semester stipends while they participate in research apprenticeships with faculty mentors. Students who have a genuine interest in pursuing a doctoral degree, a grade point average of 3.0 or better, junior or senior status, and who are either low income and first generation college students or members of a group underrepresented in graduate education are eligible.

For additional information and an application for the McNair Program, please call 212.237.8760.
SEEK PROGRAM
(Search for Education, Elevation and Knowledge)

SEEK is a program established by the New York State Legislature for the senior colleges of The City University of New York to assist in providing higher educational opportunity to students who otherwise would not have such access.

SEEK is a four-year college program of special assistance for students to overcome educational, economic and social disadvantages. The program provides concentrated and specialized counseling, additional instruction, tutorial services and financial aid. Students who utilize such assistance can achieve a quality college education and expand their social and career capabilities.

Eligibility
Under the provisions of the New York State Education Law, students must meet certain residence, academic and financial criteria for admission to the program.

Residency
Applicants must be United States citizens, or have permanent-residence status, and must be New York State residents for at least one year.

Academic
Applicants must be graduates of approved high schools or must hold New York State high school equivalency diplomas, or their equivalent, as determined by the New York State Commissioner of Education. Except for veterans who have earned up to 18 college credits prior to their entry into the service, applicants may not have previously attended a college or any other post-secondary educational institution.*

For purposes of eligibility, students are considered in need of academic support if they have received a general equivalency diploma or do not meet the academic admission requirements established for CUNY senior colleges.

Students are eligible for admission to the SEEK program at John Jay College only if they apply for a major offered at the College.

Financial
For financial criteria, see the Pell, SEEK, and TAP entries in Chapter 9, Financial Aid.

Application Procedure
Application forms, which are incorporated into the City University Application, are available at all New York City high schools and at John Jay College. Individuals seeking admission to the program must complete the City University Application Form including the section for “SEEK/College Discovery.” Completed applications should be sent to the University Applications Processing Center, P.O. Box 136, Bay Station, Brooklyn, New York 11235.

For information, contact Dr. Schevaletta Alford, Director of the SEEK Program (212.237.8171, calford@jjay.cuny.edu). For financial information, contact Ms. Fay Williams, APTS/SEEK Financial Aid Coordinator (212.237.8164, fwilliams@jjay.cuny.edu).
MINORS

A minor is a course of study that allows undergraduates a second field of specialization. Minors are intended to encourage and officially acknowledge students’ attainment of knowledge in more than one academic field, with the goal of broadening their education.

A minor requires 18-21 credits in a particular field different from the student’s major. Because many majors are interdisciplinary at John Jay College, some overlap may occur between courses appearing in a major and a minor but this should be kept to a minimum. At least 50 percent of the credits in a minor must be taken at the College and at least two-thirds of the credits in a minor must be graded on an A through F basis. A minor shall be completely optional for students and cannot be required by an academic program. Minor requirements must be completed with an earned 2.0 (C) grade point average.

A student who wishes to pursue a minor must consult the minor advisor or chairperson of the appropriate department or program as early as possible. Students should declare minors by the time they have earned 75 credits by submitting a Declaration of Minor Form to the Registrar’s Office. Be aware that some minors may have advanced enrollment requirements, specific procedures for completing the minor, or requirements and/or restrictions concerning grades and courses, which may be used to fulfill the minor.

Upon completing a minor, students should see the minor advisor or department or program chairperson for their signature certifying that the student has completed the minor. A form must then be submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Completion of a minor is noted on the student’s official transcript and will be conferred at the same time that the degree is conferred. Minors may not be conferred retroactively upon students who have already graduated. Below is a list of minors available at John Jay College.

ANTHROPOLOGY MINOR

Description. The minor in anthropology provides students with exposure to the range of human variation across time and space and a comprehensive background in cross-cultural studies.

Rationale. A minor in anthropology is excellent preparation for further study in any discipline that requires the ability to understand and deal with other cultures. Students are trained to integrate humanistic concerns with the cross-cultural perspective and analytic framework provided by anthropology. These skills will be particularly valuable for students planning careers in which an understanding of human behavior and cultural diversity is essential, including law enforcement, criminal justice, public policy, counseling, business, law and communications. Because of its breadth of outlook, anthropology also offers an ideal basis for those seeking a strong general education in an increasingly interdependent and multicultural world.

Requirements: The minor consists of 18 credits (six courses) chosen from the courses listed below:

ART MINOR
(Department of Art, Music and Philosophy)

Description. The art minor provides students with the opportunity to integrate art with other academic and research pursuits. It is designed for students to pursue studies in both studio art and art history with an integrated, mixed media approach. Students selecting the minor in art are not necessarily pursuing careers as practicing professional artists and art historians. They are seeking a unique program of study where the visual arts provide opportunities to problem-solve creatively and efficiently.

Rationale. The program combined with other areas of study fosters an appreciation and understanding of the disciplines of art and design and its applications to one’s self and environment.

Requirements: Students are required to take at least 18 credits (six courses) distributed evenly between studio art and art history courses.

Credits
Studio Art
Select three
Art 110 Ceramics Workshop
Art 111 Introduction to Drawing and Painting
Art 112 Design Foundations
Art 115 Introduction to Sculpture
Art 1XX Graphic Arts

Art History
Select three
Art 101 Introduction to the Visual Arts
Art 102 American Art
Art 105 Modern Art
Art 103 Renaissance Art
Art 2XX Art and the Law
Art 2XX Art and Crime

Total: 18

Rationale. The chemistry minor is significant for students who wish to pursue the pre-health professions and major in another area. It is an important minor for students considering careers in which a full science major is not required, but college-level science experience is required.

Credits
Chemistry 103-104 General Chemistry I and II
Chemistry 201-202 Organic Chemistry (1 year)
Chemistry 220 Quantitative Analysis

Total: 21

Please note: These courses all have a laboratory component
CHE 103 may also be satisfied by the equivalent sequence – CHE 191-192 or CHE 101-102. In addition, CHE 104 must be completed to satisfy the General Chemistry sequence.

COMPUTER SCIENCE MINOR
(Department of Mathematics and Computer Science)

Rationale. Computers are the future. By learning to use a computer, students are securing their tomorrows. Good computer skills will build self-confidence and increase students’ marketability and competence in their chosen fields. Computers also allow users to work fast and efficiently with data and information in a way that no other devices do.

Requirements: The minor requires the completion of 18 credits (six courses) in computer courses offered by the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science. Two courses are required for all minors. Four additional courses must be selected in a particular specialization including Networking, Office Systems, Security and Computing Systems.

Credits
Required
Mathematics 271 Introduction to Computing and Programming
Mathematics 272 Object-Oriented Programming

Specializations
Select four from one category
Networking
Mathematics 277 Computers for Administrative Decision Making Mathematics 279 Data Communications and the Internet

Subtotal: 12
CORRECTIONS MINOR
(Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration)

Description. The corrections minor exposes students to important concepts in corrections and promotes an understanding of the correctional environment. Minor courses also introduce students to all aspects of careers in corrections. Additionally, the minor aims to equip students with a better understanding of current social problems.

The corrections minor combines a focus on classical theories of penology with developing ideas and approaches, as well as with contemporary strategies for dealing with offenders after they have been convicted and while awaiting trial. Emphasis is placed on helping students to become critical thinkers in general and about corrections in particular. A primary goal of the minor is to help students focus on the end process of the criminal justice system by helping them understand the nature and consequences of processing offenders through the system. Students will be exposed to such important topics as incarceration, community supervision, treatment of offenders, rehabilitation and the reintegration process.

Rationale. The minor provides a solid preparation for graduate work in the field of criminal justice, public administration, policy making in civil service and the social sciences in general. As can be seen from the corrections courses offered, the program provides a solid understanding of theory and research related to corrections as well as criminal justice. The curriculum emphasizes the development of analytical and research skills that prepare students to effectively meet everyday challenges in the criminal justice system and in corrections. Coursework is designed to integrate theory with practice, while using critical approaches to discuss competing strategies in correction practice.

Minor advisor. Students who wish to pursue a minor in corrections should consult with either the Chairperson of the Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration, Professor Maki Haberfeld (212.237.8146, mhaberfeld@jjay.cuny.edu) or the Corrections Coordinator, Professor Lior Gideon (212.237.8991, lgideon@jjay.cuny.edu), as early as possible to plan their course of study.

Requirements: Students who wish to minor in corrections may do so under the guidance of the corrections coordinator. The minor requires 18 credits (six courses) in corrections courses (those with the COR course prefix).

In order to make the best out of the minor, while complying with its above stated mission, it is suggested that students seeking to minor in corrections take the courses listed below in the order they are listed. Each course is 3 credits.

COUNSELING MINOR

_(Department of Counseling and Communication Skills)_

Description. The counseling minor represents a valuable educational opportunity for those students interested in seeking employment within the human services professions. The goal of the minor is to prepare students for careers in the criminal justice fields of probation, parole, corrections and victim advocacy that require counseling, communication and interview skills. In addition, course offerings provide an opportunity to explore many topics relevant to work within a broad range of criminal justice and public service systems, such as human growth and development, counseling and vocational theory, ethics, diversity and multiculturalism, leadership, family systems, spirituality, gender dynamics, crisis intervention and research methodology.

Minor advisor. Professor Katherine Stavrianopoulos, Department of Counseling (212.237.8146, stavros@jjay.cuny.edu)

Requirements: The prerequisite for the counseling minor is PSY 101. The counseling minor consists of 18 credits (six courses) as listed below.

ECONOMICS MINOR

(Department of Public Management)

Description. Economics courses provide students with an opportunity to develop critical analytical skills that will improve their performance in other courses and professional pursuits. These include understanding graphs and charts, employing statistical analysis, using cost-benefit analysis, evaluating different theoretical perspectives and developing professional presentation and writing skills.

Rationale. Employers recognize that the study of economics develops the professional skills necessary for success including the analytical skills needed for the complex tasks in today’s highly technical work environment. A 1995 survey, in ACJS Today, ranked economics as one of the top three most desirable majors for law school admissions. Graduate schools recognize that the study of economics develops the analytical and research skills that prepare students for the rigors of advanced education.

Requirements: Students who desire a minor in economics must complete 18 credits (six courses) subject to the approval of the department chair.

Credits

Economics 101 Principles of Economics
Economics 170 Introduction to the Economics of Crime and Social Problems Economics 215 Economics of Regulation and the Law

ENGLISH MINOR

Description. The English minor offers students the opportunity to read, appreciate and analyze literature, advance their critical thinking skills, and polish their expository and/or creative writing skills.

Rationale. The study of literature and the practice of expository and creative writing strengthen important skills while engaging students in significant historical, ethical and aesthetic debates. Students who study literature learn to read critically, form interpretations and make arguments based on evidence. Students who study writing will learn to express themselves clearly, concisely and creatively while also perfecting their editing and revision skills. Students who pursue the minor in English will graduate with a greater command of language and with incisive critical skills that will serve them well in their chosen career or post-graduate work.

Minor advisor. Professor John Matteson, Department of English (212.237.8586, jmattheson@jjay.cuny.edu)
Requirements: To receive a minor in English a student must complete 18 credits with at least 9 credits at or above the 300-level. Students may apply the 6 credits earned in the general education literature requirement (LIT 230, LIT 231, LIT 232, LIT 233) toward their 200-level course requirement. Every student must take LIT 2XX Introduction to Literary Study to earn the minor in English.

GENDER STUDIES MINOR
(Interdisciplinary – see Minor Coordinator/Advisor)

Description. Gender studies is an interdisciplinary field that explores the making and meaning of gender — femininity and masculinity — as well as sexuality across cultures and social formations, past and present. The underlying belief of gender studies is that gender influences human options, conditions and experiences. Legal, political, economic and cultural systems are all profoundly gendered. Deep understanding of gender patterns, dynamics and biases can enhance the accuracy and scope of work in many fields, including criminal justice, psychology, anthropology, sociology, literature, philosophy and history. Gender awareness benefits individuals, communities and organizations.

Rationale. One of the strengths of gender studies is that it teaches critical analysis by taking one of our most basic experiences — that of being a gendered human being — and forces us to question its meaning within a broad range of frameworks. Because students in the minor take courses from a variety of disciplines, such as government, Puerto Rican and Latin American studies, law and police science, and literature, they are exposed to many different methodological approaches and theoretical debates. Students who earn a gender studies minor learn to be supple and critical thinkers, skills that will enhance their eligibility for any post-graduate work or career.

A minor in gender studies is very flexible. Like majors or minors in other social science and humanities disciplines, the gender studies minor does not prepare students for one job, but for many different kinds of employment. Gender studies courses train students in critical thinking, social science and humanities research methods and writing. Coursework provides knowledge about the interplay of gender, race, class and sexuality in the United States and globally. The ability to apply an internship toward credit in the minor allows students the opportunity to evaluate possible careers and provides employment experiences that help graduates find employment. A minor in gender studies, with its combination of cross-disciplinary, analytic and practical skills, provides a well-rounded graduate with the tools to adapt to a world of rapidly changing work and family structures.

Students who pursue gender studies have gone on to work in social services administration, domestic violence advocacy, business, communications, journalism, law enforcement, psychological and counseling services, legal and political fields, and a host of other careers.

Minor Coordinator/Advisor: Professor Allison Pease, Department of English (212.237.8565, apease@jjay.cuny.edu)

Requirements: The gender studies minor allows students to focus on the meanings and implications of gender by taking six courses (18 credits) from the rich variety of gender studies courses offered in the social sciences and humanities.

Courses such as Sex and Culture, Psychology of the African-American Family, Sex Offenders in the Criminal Justice System, History of Gender Images, Gender Issues in International Criminal Justice, Gender in Literature, Women and Crime and Manhood in America offer exciting, new ways of understanding the world we live in as well as important tools for analyzing experience. Gender studies courses are offered every semester by the majority of academic departments at John Jay. The gender studies coordinator/advisor compiles a list of all courses offered in the minor prior to student registration and posts it on the gender studies minor website: http://web.jjay.cuny.edu/~wsc/minor.htm.

Other information. Students minoring in gender studies can receive 3 credits toward the minor if they do an internship in a gender-related field.

GOVERNMENT MINOR

Description. Earning a government minor for students who have majored in criminal justice, international criminal justice, or legal studies demonstrates to graduate and professional schools and/or potential employers that students have also had substantial exposure to the discipline of political science in their undergraduate studies.

Requirements: The government minor consists of GOV 101 and any 15 additional credits of government courses.

HISTORY MINOR

Description. The Department of History offers students the opportunity to earn a minor in history by completing 18 credits (six courses) in the department. The first 6 credits form the core of the minor and encompass the general education requirements in history, HIS 231 and HIS 232.

After completing the core courses, students are invited to select from the electives offered by the Department of History to complete the minor. At least one elective must be at the 300-level to earn a history minor.

Rationale. The study of history supports the analytical skills desired by many graduate programs, including law schools, by teaching students to evaluate evidence, and present and defend arguments about historical change based on evidence. It also provides students with important information about the world in which they live, the process of social change and the factors affecting it, and the creation and evolution of cultural institutions. Students with a strong historical background will be well equipped to work in public institutions because they will have a coherent understanding of the purpose and limitations of public systems. They also will be excellent employees in private institutions because they will understand and be able to support the social and economic purposes of private industry. Finally, students who have studied history make more conscious and active citizens, because they are aware of the role of race and class in America. They are cognizant of the rich history of America's political institutions and their civic responsibilities to use, protect, and maintain their political and legal rights.

MATHEMATICS MINOR

(Department of Mathematics and Computer Science)

Description. Mathematics provides excellent preparation for entrance into many quantitative and high-technology careers. Some of these include the actuarial field, financial analysis and work in cryptography. The minor will enhance the understanding of quantitative disciplines such as the social sciences, physics, chemistry and biology. Strong math skills also increase a student’s ability to manage life in this increasingly quantitative world.
Minor Advisor. Professor Peter Shenkin, Department of Mathematics and Computer Science (212.237.8925, pshenkin@jjay.cuny.edu)

Requirements: The mathematics minor consists of a three-course calculus sequence plus three courses in a specialization chosen from among Operations Research, Differential Equations and Pure Mathematics. All three courses in the specialization must be at the 300-level or above.

PHILOSOPHY MINOR
(Department of Art, Music and Philosophy)

Description. The philosophy minor is designed to give students interested in philosophy the opportunity to do intensive work in the field and have that work recognized. Philosophy — a term derived from the ancient Greek philosophia — means “love of wisdom.” As a discipline, philosophy strives to seek thoughtful and rigorous responses to the most fundamental “Why?” questions about ourselves, the universe and our place in the universe. Areas of study include being or existence, knowledge, ethics, political philosophy and various “philosophy of …” issues (e.g., philosophy of law, philosophy of mind, philosophy of language, etc.). Some core questions that philosophers ask range from “What is the nature of justice?” and “How should I live my life?” to “Do humans have free will?” and “What sort of justification is required for me to have knowledge?”

Learning objectives for philosophy minors include the development and mastery of the following skills and competencies.

Students will be able to:

- Recognize and reconstruct arguments
- Critically evaluate arguments
- Appreciate different responses to a given philosophical question
- Offer a thoughtfully defended thesis on a given philosophical question
- Entertain and respond to challenges to one’s thesis

Rationale. A philosophy minor, which is noted on the student’s final transcript, is extremely beneficial for students planning careers in law school or various graduate programs. A liberal arts and humanities education, according to some of the top law schools, is the best preparation for understanding, synthesizing, and evaluating the legal theory and moral reasoning employed in legal judgments. Both law schools and graduate schools place a premium on the sort of critical thinking and conceptual analysis that philosophy uniquely provides. In addition, there is statistical evidence that those who major in philosophy consistently score higher than those in nearly every other major on standardized exams such as the LSAT and the GRE.

Minor Advisor. Professor Jacoby Carter, Department of Art, Music and Philosophy (212.237.8343, jcarte@jjay.cuny.edu)

Requirements:

- A student must complete 18 credits (six courses) in philosophy.
- Philosophy 231 is required (also fulfills the general education requirement for philosophy).
- At least two courses must be at the 300-level or higher.
- Independent study courses, arranged between the student and a supervising faculty member, and experimental courses can be used to fill the 18-credit requirement. For details on independent study courses, see the Chapter 6, Academic Standards.
Philosophy courses satisfying the requirements of the minor include the following:

PSYCHOLOGY MINOR

(Department of Psychology)

Description. The psychology minor provides students with the opportunity to think and write critically about the mind and human behavior, and to gain some exposure to the field of forensic psychology. Students are introduced to basic psychological theory and research as well as several core areas in the discipline of psychology. The minor prepares students to become informed, life-long consumers of psychology. It also provides some background in psychology that can help build a foundation for many fields of graduate or professional study and careers.

Rationale. Gaining exposure to the science of human behavior through the psychology minor can be of substantial benefit for students in many disciplines. The minor provides opportunities to hone critical thinking, research and writing skills, which are crucial in any field. Students also can explore topics and issues that might help direct their career choices. Any major pairs well with a psychology minor.

Minor advisor. Professor Angela M. Crossman, Department of Psychology
(212.237.8653, acrossman@jjay.cuny.edu)

Requirements. Any student who is not majoring in forensic psychology can earn a minor in psychology by taking six of the ten courses listed below.

POLICE STUDIES MINOR

(Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration)

Description. The minor in police studies is designed for students with professional interests in law enforcement and policing. The minor is also appropriate for students who plan to attend graduate or professional school.

Minor Advisor. Police Studies Coordinator, Professor Peter Moskos, Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration
(212.237.8393, pmoskos@jjay.cuny.edu)
PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION MINOR

Description and rationale. Wherever a career leads, it will inevitably involve management. The minor in public administration gives students an understanding of how administration works, how policy gets made, and how to excel as a manager in government, non-profit and corporate organizations. The supervision, planning and budgeting skills you acquire in the public administration minor will prove valuable as you advance towards a leadership role in any organization that helps carry out the business of government.

Requirements: To receive the minor, you must complete 18 credits (six courses) from the following public administration courses. “Special topics” courses in public administration or public administration graduate courses taken by academically-eligible seniors can also be applied to the minor.

PUERTO RICAN/LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES HONORS MINOR

Description. The honors minor in Puerto Rican/Latin American studies seeks to encourage and assist all students enrolled to excel in all their courses by providing research and writing skills workshops as well as workshops about graduate and law school studies. Coursework is centered on Latin America and the Caribbean, Latinas/os in the United States as well as race and ethnicity generally in the United States.

Minor advisor. Professor José Luis Morín, Department of Puerto Rican/Latin American Studies (212.237.8751 or 212.237.8749, jmorin@jjay.cuny.edu)

Requirements:

• Completion of a minimum of 18 credits with a GPA of at least 3.3 (B+) in the Puerto Rican/Latin American studies courses
• Participation in and completion of at least one of the research and writing skills workshops offered by the Department of Puerto Rican/Latin American Studies
• Participation in and completion of at least one graduate/law school career development workshop
• Completion of an honors thesis written under the supervision of a member of the department faculty. The thesis must be a minimum of 10 pages, using the APA citation form, and of B+ quality or better.
RUSSIAN STUDIES MINOR
(Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures)

Description. The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures offers a Russian studies minor. It is designed to give the student a command of both the written and spoken language as well as a deeper understanding of the cultural and literary development of the Russian people.

Rationale. In today’s diverse world, the study of foreign languages and cultures becomes increasingly important. Students, especially those who wish to work in the field of criminal justice, in law enforcement and other government agencies, and in international organizations, would benefit greatly from having additional knowledge of a foreign language (obtained through language courses) paired with expertise in national character (acquired through literature and culture courses). At a time when city and federal agencies are seeking both language specialists and specialists in foreign national character, students with the Russian studies minor on their transcripts are in high demand.

Minor advisor. Professor Olga Muratova, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures (646.557.4520)

Requirements: The minor consists of six courses in Russian language, literature and culture. The language courses are taught in Russian; the literature and culture courses, in English. Students need 18 credits (six courses) to complete the Russian studies minor. All courses offered by the Russian section of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures — except for 100-level, basic-Russian courses — count towards the minor. To complete the minor, students must take three 200-level courses, two 300-level courses, and one 400-level course. Higher-level courses can be substituted for lower-level ones (i.e., RUS 325 instead of RUS 239), but not vice versa.

SECURITY MANAGEMENT MINOR

Description: The minor in security management targets the analysis of security risks and vulnerabilities, along with the administration of programs designed to reduce loss — in public and private institutions and corporations. The minor helps prepare students for careers as managers, consultants and entrepreneurs.

Rationale: Every public institution and private corporation has a security function associated with its mission. Understanding this function within a particular industry or public enterprise enhances the skill set of the professional working in or studying that field. Further, understanding the principles, practices and law within the security field enables individuals to better safeguard their person, property and privacy — both inside and outside of the work environment.

Minor advisor: Professor Thomas Sunderland, Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration (212.484.1333, SecurityManagement@jjay.cuny.edu).

Requirements:

- A minimum of 18 credits are required.
- All courses applied to the minor must be courses designated by the course number prefix specific to security management (SEC). Courses that are cross-listed in the college bulletin are acceptable, e.g., SEC/MAT.
- No more than 9 credits applied to a minor may be credits that the student also uses to fulfill a major.
- At least 6 credits applied to a minor must be in courses at the 300-level or above.

To apply for a minor, the student should complete the Approved Plan for a Minor Form available from the security management coordinator and the Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration and make an appointment to meet with the department chairperson for approval. At the discretion of the chairperson, the student may be referred to the security management coordinator. Students must bring with them a copy of their up-to-date John Jay College transcript. Any revision of the plan requires the completion of a new Approved Plan for a Minor Form and another approval meeting.

SOCIOLOGY MINOR

Description: The sociology minor considers the following areas in the study of modern society: social groups, social organization, the sociology of institutions such as law, the courts, the family, the process of interaction, social disorganization and change. Topics such as violence, delinquency, deviant behavior, social control, and ethnic, race and class relations are central to the minor concentration. Issues of culture, personality and urbanization are studied.

Requirements: Students wishing to minor in sociology must complete 18 credits (six courses) at the 200-level or above. No more than half of these credits may be used to satisfy credit requirements in the student’s major.

SPANISH MINOR
(Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures)

Description. The Spanish minor is designed to make students proficient in spoken and written Spanish through language and literature courses that also present a cultural and psychological understanding of the Spanish Diaspora.

An example of this is Spanish 212, an intermediate course in grammar and conversation, taught with the use of film and literature in which themes such as immigration, justice, nationalism, gender issues, prejudice, personal relationships and the importance of family are explored and discussed.

Rationale. In today’s global society, it is of paramount importance for students to study foreign languages and cultures. If a student earns a minor in Spanish, one of the five most important languages in the world, they will be better prepared to compete in whatever major field of study they are pursuing at John Jay College. Agencies such as the FBI, CIA, DEA, U.S. Customs Service, and the Immigration and Naturalization Service give preference and a higher salary to those who can communicate in a foreign language. Minoring in a foreign language will assist students in becoming qualified to attain these positions.

Minor advisors. Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures:
• Professor Catherine Rovira
  (212.237.8709, crowra@jjay.cuny.edu)
• Professor Dagoberto Orrantia
  (212.237.8717, dorrantia@jjay.cuny.edu)
• Professor Daria Montero
  (212.237.8716, dmontero@jjay.cuny.edu)

Requirements: To complete the minor students must take 18 credits (six courses) in Spanish language, literature and/or translation beginning at the 200-level. At least three 200-level courses, two 300-level courses, and one 400-level course must be taken. Students should consult a minor advisor for courses that are not available during a particular semester.

Note: A higher level course can be substituted for a lower level course but not vice versa. For example, Spanish 320 can be substituted for Spanish 250.

Students have the possibility of receiving 3-6 credits for earning a score of four or better on the Spanish Language and/or Literature Advanced Placement Examination taken in high school. These credits can be applied towards the minor in Spanish.

SPEECH and MEDIA/THEATRE MINORS

Description and rationale. The Department of Speech, Theatre and Media Studies offers minors in speech and media, theatre, or a combined minor in speech, theatre and media studies. The minor in speech and media is designed to help students gain confidence and power through enhancing the effectiveness of their communication performance and analysis. The theatre minor is designed to allow students to explore their theatrical talent and to experience great plays and films while developing a critical eye. The combined minor helps to develop communication skills and analysis as a speaker, a performer and a critic of communication while focusing students’ course selection on their interests. The classes in these minors provide unique learning opportunities such as becoming a cast or crew member in one of the department’s plays, getting a handle on news media, and learning video production techniques to create movies.

Minor advisor. Professor Martin Wallenstein, chair (212.237.8364, mwallenstein@jjay.cuny.edu), or his designee. Students interested in any of these minors should make an appointment with the advisor for guidance in tailoring their course selection to their needs and interests. Students are encouraged to see the advisor by at least the first semester of their junior year but preferably as soon as an interest is developed in one of these minors.

Requirements for a Speech and Media Minor: Students must complete 18 credits in speech including the required SPE 113 course. Up to 6 credits can be earned by taking the department’s Media Internship (6 credits) though it is under the drama (DRA) course listing.

Requirements for a Theatre Minor: Students must complete 18 credits of courses in drama (DRA) in theatre or film.

Requirements for a combined Speech, Theatre and Media Studies Minor: Students must complete 18 credits from a combination of speech and drama courses. For this combined minor, Speech 113 is a prerequisite and does not count toward the 18 credits.

Note: No more than 6 credits toward these minors may be transfer credits. Any of the drama courses can be used to fulfill the College’s general education requirement in the fine arts.
Students can avail themselves of these resources from off campus utilizing the Library’s proxy server at any hour of the day or night. More than 100 networked computers providing access to this material, the online catalog and the Internet are located on the Library’s upper level, along with a classroom equipped for hands-on instruction in utilizing these digital resources.

Personal and professional papers of individuals who have made significant contributions in fields of concern to the College — Burton Turkus, Lewis Lawes, Flora Schreiber, Robert Martinson, Richard Dugsdale and Gary McGivern, to name a few — as well as archives of social, political and investigative agencies, add to the prestige and scope of the collection.

Specialized reference librarians are available to assist Library users with research questions or with using the databases. Circulation and print reserve services are located at the entry level, along with a computer lab for word processing and other office functions; reference collections and administrative offices are on the upper level. The circulating collection, arranged in open stacks to encourage browsing, is housed on both levels. Student study areas are interspersed throughout the Lloyd George Sealy Library.

Instructional Technology Support Services
212.237.8047
itss@jjay.cuny.edu
Instructional Technology Support Services (ITSS) serves as the open-access computing facility for all currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students. ITSS supports a wide range of software applications, programming languages, tutorial software and course-related programs as well as access to the Internet and to the World Wide Web. Manuals and user documentation are available. Consultants are available to provide technical assistance and answer user questions.

ITSS also supports the College e-training program, course and departmental web pages, and is a leader in piloting new technologies for campus use. Hands-on workshops in software applications, World Wide Web technology, and computer maintenance are held each semester for faculty, staff and students. A current workshop schedule may be found on the College website under “Instructional Technology Support Services.”

ITSS is the site license coordinator for CUNY-purchased, university-wide software licenses. All site-licensed software is for on-campus use by faculty, staff and registered students.

In addition, ITSS houses the Cisco Local Academy and the Microsoft IT Academy, which provide continuing education programs in computing, networking, security and wireless technologies. Instructional Technology Support Services is open day and evening hours Monday through Thursday and during the day on Friday and Saturday.

ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT

For Freshmen

For SEEK Students
212.237.8169
Students accepted to the SEEK Program either as freshmen or transfer students are assigned to a SEEK counselor in their first semester. All students in the SEEK Program may schedule counseling appointments with the SEEK Department.

For Students in the Interdisciplinary Studies Program
212.237.8462
The Interdisciplinary Studies Department provides advisement for students enrolled in Interdisciplinary Studies.

For Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors
212.237.8111
The Department of Counseling and Communication Skills provides general advisement for upper division students not enrolled in the SEEK Program. Appointments may be made at the Counseling Information Office. Advisement specific to majors and academic programs is provided by faculty advisors in the majors and programs. To find the name of a major advisor, consult Chapter 1 of this undergraduate bulletin under the name of the major. Advisors for programs, certificates and minors are identified in Chapter 3 of this undergraduate bulletin.

For New/Entering Transfer Students

212.237.8873 — Admissions
212.237.8111 — Counseling
The Office of Admissions provides Transfer Credit Evaluation Workshops by invitation for new transfer students. Prior to registering, students receive a preliminary evaluation of academic work completed at previous colleges. Students may call to speak with an admissions representative.

The Counseling Department also helps transfer students access the resources and opportunities at the College. This department provides orientation support; personal, academic, and career development workshops; sophomore peer mentors advisement; and referral services. Students are encouraged to call a member of the counseling department for assistance.

For Students in the Interdisciplinary Studies Program
212.237.8462
The Interdisciplinary Studies Department provides advisement for students enrolled in Interdisciplinary Studies.

For Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors
212.237.8111
The Department of Counseling and Communication Skills provides general advisement for upper division students not enrolled in the SEEK Program. Appointments may be made at the Counseling Information Office. Advisement specific to majors and academic programs is provided by faculty advisors in the majors and programs. To find the name of a major advisor, consult Chapter 1 of this undergraduate bulletin under the name of the major. Advisors for programs, certificates and minors are identified in Chapter 3 of this undergraduate bulletin.

Associate Degree Advisement Office
212.237.8000, Ext. 2777 or Ext. 2131
Funded through the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Educational III Grant, the College offers personal counseling and academic advisement services to students who are placed in an associate degree program. Services include career advisement workshops, tuition-free courses during intersession and summer, luncheons and social events.

Office of Graduate School Advisement
212.237.8871
John Jay undergraduates who are interested in graduate studies are invited to visit the Office of Graduate School Advising. Here students can obtain information about the requirements for master’s and doctoral degrees, booklets about the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) and Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) as well as practice tests.
Pre-Law Institute
212.237.8116

John Jay students and alumni interested in pursuing a career in law can avail themselves of the services provided by the College’s Pre-Law Institute. Established in 2005, the Institute advises students on appropriate undergraduate studies; offers a series of workshops for the John Jay community; hosts an annual Law Day that focuses on the law school admissions process and career opportunities for lawyers; and assists students with all aspects of the law school application process.

Health Professions Advisor
Chairperson of Science Department
212.237.8884

Students interested in pursuing careers in the health professions — medicine, dentistry, optometry, osteopathy, podiatry or veterinary medicine — are able to fulfill the necessary academic requirements at John Jay. Anyone considering these professions should consult with the health professions advisor who serves as the liaison to the professional schools. The advisor will assist these students in planning their academic programs to achieve their goals. Professional schools require all applicants to have a fundamental knowledge of biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics. These subjects are part of the standardized tests that applicants take at the end of their junior year. Because test results, applications and the advisor’s letter of recommendation are usually forwarded by the beginning of the senior year, it is strongly advised that students begin science preparation in the freshman year with Biology 103–104, Chemistry 103–104, and Mathematics 241–242. The health professions advisor is chairperson of the science department.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES

Center for English Language Support (CELS)
212.237.8041

The Center for English Language Support (CELS) provides instructional assistance to non-native, English speaking students. Instruction is related to academic English language development with emphasis on writing. Each semester, CELS offers individual and small-group tutoring sessions and workshops on topics ranging from improving sentence structure to preparing research papers. Instructors with graduate degrees in teaching English as a second language conduct the tutoring sessions and workshops. CELS also has a large inventory of online instructional modules targeting academic English language skills.

In addition to instructional services, CELS provides testing and placement services for incoming non-native, English speaking students in order to determine their level of English proficiency and to recommend appropriate courses. Professional advice is provided to students on how to study academic English in a second language context. Students are requested to schedule tutoring appointments and register for workshops in advance.

Reading and Study Skills Center
212.237.8126 or 212.237.8123

The Reading and Study Skills Center is open to every student enrolled at the College. All students registered in Communication Skills 101 and 102 are required to complete 10 hours of independent study in the center. Students experiencing difficulty fulfilling the reading requirements of their courses and those who have yet to pass the CUNY Freshman Skills Assessment Test are interviewed and tested by a staff member of the Reading Center, who provides a weekly tutorial plan. Students enrolled in Communication Skills 110 and 120 use the center. All undergraduate and graduate students may avail themselves of these services.

The center is located in the Department of Counseling and Communication Skills.

Mathematics/Science Resource Center
212.237.2869

The Mathematics/Science Resource Center provides tutoring primarily to students who are taking MAT 105, 108, 141, or higher-level mathematics courses. Tutoring services are also available for forensic science and fire science majors who are taking biology, chemistry, and/or physics courses. The center is equipped with microcomputers and related software and peripherals, which are available to students and faculty for coursework and research projects when they are not serving instructional purposes.

A tutor coordinator is available for consultation on how best to support your learning.
Learning Enhancement Center (LEC)
212.237.8019
learningcenter@jjay.cuny.edu.
The Learning Enhancement Center provides tutoring in remedial and college level mathematics courses. For the CUNY COMPASS Mathematics test, MAT 100, 103, 104, 105, 108, 241, 242 and 243, STA 250, and preparatory courses are available to all John Jay students. The center’s computer lab is open to all John Jay students.

Collegiate Science and Technology Entry Program (CSTEP)
Chairperson of the Science Department
212.237.8884
Collegiate Science and Technology Entry Program (CSTEP), a program funded by the New York State Department of Education, is designed to assist undergraduate and graduate students who are economically disadvantaged, or who are members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the scientific, technical, and health professions. CSTEP provides students with testing, counseling, tutoring, special coursework, and enrichment activities such as lectures and trips to educational facilities. For information, contact the chairperson of the Department of Sciences.

Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation (LSAMP)
Chairperson of the Science Department
212.237.8884
The LSAMP program is designed to strengthen the preparation and increase the number of minority students who successfully complete baccalaureate and master’s degrees in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) fields. The program provides student enrichment and direct student support in the form of stipends for tutoring, work in laboratories, and summer internships in university, research, or corporate settings. For information about the LSAMP program at John Jay College, contact the chairperson of the Department of Sciences.

Foreign Language Lab
212.237.8031
Individual and small group tutoring is available by appointment for students enrolled in any foreign language course at the College.

CAREER ADVANCEMENT

Office of Career Development Services

Job Assistance
212.237.8754
careers@jjay.cuny.edu
The Job Assistance program of the Office of Career Development Services aids students and alumni seeking employment through its employment bank that lists job openings for city, state and federal agencies as well as private companies nationwide. Students must present a validated John Jay College I.D. card or alumni card in order to gain access to these postings. The job listings are regularly updated to provide students with the opportunity to apply for these competitive positions in a timely manner.

Its On-Campus Recruitment Program provides opportunities for recruiters to visit the campus and meet with students. The Resume Referral Service assists students and alumni in reviewing and improving their resumes. When approved by a career development specialist, the Resume Referral Service facilitates submission of resumes to prospective employers.

The Job Assistance program also provides information on resume and cover letter preparation, interviewing skills, professional attire, job search techniques and referrals for other professional development assistance.

Career Advisement
212.237.8441
The Career Advisement program of the Office of Career Development-Services provides students with the information and skills required for successful job placement. The staff assist students with resume preparation and interview skills development. In addition, the program sponsors an annual career fair attended by recruiters from criminal justice and public administration agencies, private corporations, nonprofit foundations, graduate schools and law schools.
Study Abroad Information

212.237.8871

The Study Abroad Information program of the Office of Career Development Services offers information and guidance to students in applying to various study abroad programs, host and sponsor institutions, housing, regional health issues, medical insurance and budgetary issues. Students receive pre-departure orientation, academic advisement for transferring credits earned abroad and reentry adjustment advisement. The office also serves as a liaison between students and the following offices: Registrar, Admissions, Student Financial Services and Bursar. Students must submit a personal statement and references.

College Opportunity to Prepare for Employment (COPE) Program

The College Opportunity to Prepare for Employment (COPE) Program, a joint initiative of The City University of New York (CUNY) and the City of New York’s Human Resources Administration (HRA) Family Independence Administration (FIA), provides comprehensive support services to students receiving public assistance so that they may successfully complete their college degree program and obtain gainful employment leading to economic self-sufficiency. Additionally, COPE provides support to low-income student parents with a minor child who are at or below 200 percent of the federal poverty level. Program participants are offered employment counseling, job placement services, individual resume and cover letter preparation assistance, interview skills coaching, incentives for qualifying working students, individualized academic advisement, help with resolving on-campus issues, professional development workshops, and access to special opportunities.

COPE also acts as a liaison between students and the following HRA agencies: Training Assessment Group (TAG), Income Support Centers/Job Centers, Food Stamp Centers, Agency for Child Development (ACD), Office of Employment Services and other social service agencies. COPE assists students in resolving issues with these agencies, completing necessary forms and explaining HRA mandates.

Professional Development Program (PDP)

212.237.8305

The Professional Development Program (PDP) is designed to enhance the professional knowledge and skills of John Jay College students and alumni. PDP provides students with information about the proper protocols for excelling in the workplace. PDP offers small group workshops that focus on professional etiquette, interview skills, workplace skills, interactive computer career preparation, a comprehensive career library and a resume/cover letter critique service. A comprehensive library with interactive computer career programs is also available.

PDP maintains a computer laboratory where students may conduct job searches utilizing the Internet, compose resumes/cover letters using resume software, learn about interviewing techniques, utilize interactive computer career preparation software and prepare other professional development materials. Students also may use the facsimile services to submit their job applications.

International Studies & Programs

tkwandoski@jjay.cuny.edu

The Office of International Studies & Programs works with faculty and students to identify, create, and seek funding for international opportunities. These opportunities include study and research abroad, international internships, the John Jay College-sponsored international conference, and the creation of international networks of scholars, organizations and institutions. The Office provides faculty with advice and assistance in projects that seek to internationalize the curriculum and the campus, to establish collaborative research ties, to identify grant and fellowship support, and to design research and study abroad opportunities for students. For students, the office provides information and advice about international programs, opportunities and funding sources.

www.jjay.cuny.edu

This chapter outlines requirements and procedures for admission consideration to all undergraduate programs including regular and special programs for matriculated students (freshmen, transfer, SEEK, foreign students, public safety personnel), visiting students, non-degree students and senior citizens.
MATRICULATED STUDENTS

A matriculated student is accepted and recognized by the College as working toward a degree. Students may attend John Jay on a full-time or part-time basis and be considered matriculated students.

Students may apply for admission as matriculated students in the following categories:

- Freshmen
- Transfer
- Search for Education, Enlightenment and Knowledge (SEEK)
- Foreign Students
- Public Safety Personnel

Visiting Students

Visiting students are students who wish to attend John Jay College while being matriculated at another college. Generally, visiting or permit students must meet the same requirements to register for specific courses as John Jay College students.

All City University of New York visiting students (permits) must apply via the ePermit system of the University at www.cuny.edu. Students must log into the portal and then click on ePermit. This electronic process allows students to select courses and apply for permission from both the student’s home college and John Jay College.

Students from outside CUNY must first seek permission from their own college to take courses at John Jay College. Students should then contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions for an application. The completed application, accompanied by the application fee of $25 should be submitted to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Non-degree Students

Non-degree students are accepted on a semester-to-semester basis, depending on space availability. New non-degree students must apply through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Students must provide verification of high school graduation or a Graduate Equivalency Diploma (GED), as well as transcripts from all colleges previously attended. Non-degree students must meet the academic achievement standards established for matriculated students.

Senior Citizens

Senior citizens are permitted to audit undergraduate courses at senior colleges on a space available basis, without tuition and fees. Enrolling in a course on an audit basis gives students the right to attend and participate in all aspects of the course without receiving credit for the course. At the conclusion of the course, students are assigned a grade of “AUD,” which will appear on their permanent record at the College. The course, however, will have no credit attached to it and will not count toward any degree/certificate program offered by The City University of New York.

Senior citizens may opt to enroll for credit bearing courses, but must do so on the same basis as other matriculated students by paying the applicable tuition charges and related fees.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Freshmen

All entering freshmen applicants are considered for admission based on their high school academic average, academic units, SAT or ACT scores and/or GED scores. A diploma from an accredited high school, an equivalency diploma, or a diploma from a United States Armed Forces Institute is required for entrance to the College. A high school certificate or an Individualized Education Program (IEP) diploma is not acceptable.

An applicant for freshman admission must present evidence of having received a high school diploma from an accredited high school. Students from non-English speaking countries must take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) examination (see the Foreign Students section for details). All baccalaureate students must take the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or ACT prior to admission.

An applicant who does not meet these criteria may be accepted into an associate degree program.

Transfer

Students who have attended a college or post secondary institution must have a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 based on the total number of credits they have attempted/completed. Prospective transfer students with fewer than 24 credits must have a minimum GPA of 2.0, and the prerequisite high school average and academic units for admission to a baccalaureate program.
ACADEMIC SKILLS REQUIREMENTS

For Entering Freshmen
As mandated by the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York (CUNY), all new students are required to meet minimal standards in three skills areas: reading, writing and mathematics, before enrolling in a CUNY senior college. Students can demonstrate that they meet the University’s skills requirement based on SAT, ACT, or New York State Regents test scores or through the CUNY Skills Assessment Test (CSAT).

Unless a student is otherwise exempt, the CUNY Skills Assessment Test (CSAT) scores will determine if the student meets the minimal competency mandated by The City University of New York. Students who do not meet the requirements must enroll in an associate degree program and receive appropriate instruction that will assist them in achieving the required academic standards. Students who do not pass any or all of the CSAT tests will be eligible for additional preparation through the Basic Skills Program and will have the opportunity to be retested.

CUNY Skills Assessment Test Exemptions
All students must take the CUNY COMPASS Test in mathematics. This examination is used for placement purposes for students who are otherwise exempt.

For entering freshmen and transfer students
- Entering freshmen and non-CUNY transfer students with less than 45 credits are exempted from the CUNY Skills Assessment Reading and Writing Test (CSAT) if they can document any one of the following: SAT I verbal score of 480 or better; ACT English score of 20 or better; New York State English Regents score of 75 or higher.

- Entering freshmen and non-CUNY transfer students with less than 45 credits are exempted from the CUNY Compass Test if they can document any one of the following: SAT I math score of 480 or better; ACT math score of 20 or better; New York State Regents score of 75 or higher in one of the following: Math A, Math B, Sequential II or Sequential III.

- Students who have earned a bachelor’s degree and are pursuing a second degree are not required to take the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests. However, students from foreign institutions may be required by the College to take the tests upon entry in order to help the College determine their placement in mathematics or language skills courses.

For further information on the CUNY Skills Assessment Test, call 212.237.8876, 212.237.8108 or 212.237.8125.
APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Freshmen

ALL entering freshmen (students without prior College experience except for Advanced Placement and College NOW credit) must apply to The City University of New York (CUNY) through the University Application Processing Center (UAPC). The Freshman Application can be completed online at the CUNY portal website, www.cuny.edu.

A paper copy of the application is available at the Office of One Stop Services. Completed applications must be mailed to:

University Application Processing Center
Box 350136
Brooklyn, New York 11235–0001

Applications are not accepted or processed at John Jay.

In addition to completing the online application, students must:

- Request that all official high school transcripts be sent to UAPC
- Request that SAT or ACT scores be sent to UAPC (To request SAT scores, students may use a single CUNY college choice code or the University’s code, 2950. Students should use only one code.)
- If the student is a GED holder, photocopies of the GED scores and diploma must be sent to UAPC along with all high school transcripts

Foreign students must also provide the following:

- Photocopies of secondary school documents/transcripts, mark sheets, and/or diploma
- A copy of the TOEFL exam, if applicable

Transfer Students

Students who have attended another accredited college or university may transfer to John Jay College and must apply to The City University of New York (CUNY) through the University’s Application Processing Center (UAPC). Students who have earned at least 24 credits and have a 2.0 GPA on a scale of 4.0 will be evaluated based on their college credentials. Students with less than 24 credits will be evaluated based on their high school record in conjunction with their college credentials. The Transfer Application can be completed online at the CUNY portal website www.cuny.edu. A paper copy of the application is available at John Jay’s Office of One Stop Services. Completed applications must be mailed to:

University Application Processing Center (UAPC)
P.O. Box 359023
Brooklyn, New York 11235–9023

In addition to completing the application, students must also provide the following:

- Transcripts from previous colleges attended
- All official high school transcripts
- If the student is a GED holder, photocopies of the GED scores and diploma must be sent to UAPC along with all high school transcripts

Foreign students must also provide the following:

- Photocopies of secondary school documents/transcripts, mark sheets and/or diploma
- Translations of all foreign language documents
- A copy of the TOEFL exam, if applicable

Transfer Students: Direct Admission

Prior to the beginning of each semester, the College makes a limited number of slots (based on space availability) available to transfer students who wish to apply directly to the College. Information on the availability of direct admission slots is available at the One Stop Center, 212.663.7867.

Police, Fire, Corrections and Court Officers and other Public Safety Employees

Police officers, firefighters, correction officers and court officers are encouraged to apply directly to the College for admission. These prospective students are admitted to the College based on their academy training. Men and women employed in criminal justice and other designated public safety agencies should apply for admission directly to the College. Application forms may be obtained in person at the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, 445 West 59th Street, Room 4205, New York, New York 10019 or by calling 212-564-6529.

Foreign Students or U.S. Citizens and Permanent Residents Educated Abroad

Foreign nationals applying for admission to the College must apply through the University Applications Processing Center (UAPC), where applications are reviewed by International Credential Evaluators. English translations of material in other languages must be submitted with the application. For admission in September, freshmen and transfer applicants must file a completed application by October 1 of the previous year. For admission in February, freshmen and transfer applicants must file a completed application form by January of the previous year.

All applicants must present evidence of satisfactory completion of a secondary educational program acceptable to the University. Foreign national transfer applicants must also provide evidence of good academic standing at the postsecondary institution they have attended or are attending. Upon admission to John Jay College of Criminal Justice, transfer applicants must provide official course descriptions and syllabi of work already completed at the postsecondary level for evaluation by the College.

Foreign applicants are required to take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) if their native language is one other than English and their secondary or postsecondary instruction was not in English. Information about the examination may be obtained by contacting TOEFL, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey 08541, www.toefl.org. A computer based score of 173 or a paper-based score of 500 is required for admission and must be reported to the University Application Processing Center using code number 2950.

Exemptions: Applicants who are United States citizens or permanent residents are not required to take this examination.

Foreign students are required to obtain F1 student visa status.

John Jay College is authorized under federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students. Such students should forward either a Freshman or Transfer Application to the University Application Processing Center. All applicants must meet the academic requirements outlined on the following pages. Prospective students who wish to meet with an admissions counselor to discuss undergraduate programs should contact the Office of Admissions to schedule an appointment by calling 212-237-8873.
ADDITIONAL CREDIT OPTIONS

Approved External Credit
Matriculated students may apply for credit for relevant work experience outside a formal college setting. A maximum of 30 credits may be obtained by examination, external credit or equivalent credit, or a combination of these.

Credit by Examination
Credit by examination refers to examinations given by various external agencies, such as the College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) of Educational Testing Service, the College Proficiency Examination Program of New York State, or the Advanced Placement Program of the College Entrance Examination Board. John Jay College’s ETS code is 2115. John Jay College awards credit for the Subject Examinations listed on the CLEP application. The College, however, does not award credit for the five CLEP general examinations (English Composition, Humanities, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, and Social Sciences and History). The minimum score needed to pass and be considered for these credits is 50.

The CLEP examination areas are:

Subject
American Government
American History I
American History II
American Literature
Analysis & Interpretation
Calculus
College Algebra
College Algebra-Trigonometry
Freshman College Composition
*College French
*College German
*College Spanish
Information Systems
Educational Psychology
English Literature
General Biology
General Chemistry
Human Growth & Development
Management
Financial Accounting
Business Law
Marketing
Microeconomics
Macroeconomics
Introduction to Sociology
Introduction to Psychology
Western Civilization I
Western Civilization II

*Please note: In order to receive credit for Foreign Language CLEP Exams, students must pass both the CLEP exam and a composition exam given by appointment by the Department of Foreign Languages. If a student does not pass the composition portion of the exam, an appeal can be placed by notifying the department. The student’s composition will then be assessed by an additional faculty member.

For languages other than those taught at John Jay College, students may apply to a CUNY College that does teach that language for a composition exam. The results will be sent to the John Jay College foreign language department. If the language to be tested is not taught within CUNY, the student can be tested by New York University for a fee.

For additional information on credit by examination, contact the CLEP Administration Center in the Office of Testing (212.237.8108 or 212.237.8125).
External Credit for Public Safety Personnel

External credit is granted for non-collegiate education programs that the College has judged comparable in content and quality to specific courses or areas taught in its departments. A list of approved programs is available at the Office of the Registrar.

- New York City Police Department officers may receive external credit for the following courses completed with a grade of C or better at the New York City Police Department Academy, provided that these courses have not previously been completed as regular college courses: Police Science 101, 4 credits; Police Science 207, 3 credits; Law 203, 4 credits; Law 204, 4 credits; Psychology 221, 4 credits; Sociology 201, 3 credits; Physical Education 103, 113, and blanket credit, 3 credits; totaling 28 credits.

- New York City Department of Correction recruit training qualifies for external credit for: Criminal Justice 101, 3 credits; Correction Administration 101, 3 credits; Correction Administration 201, 3 credits; Correction Administration 282, 3 credits; Sociology, blanket credit, 3 credits; Physical Education, blanket credit, 3 credits; totaling 18 credits.

- New York City Fire Department personnel completing recruit training may receive external credit for: Fire Science 101, 3 credits; Fire Science blanket credit, 2 credits; Police Science, blanket credit, 3 credits; Physical Education, blanket credit, 2 credits; totaling 10 credits.

- Students who have successfully completed a training program that has been evaluated by the College for the award of credit, or a program that has been recommended for the award of credit by the American Council on Education, must apply to the Office of the Registrar for the application of this credit toward the undergraduate degree. Applicants must provide documentation in support of their requests. A statement or transcript indicating subjects taken, grades received, dates of attendance, and the number of hours of participation must be sent directly to the Office of the Registrar from the agency that has provided the training.

Equivalent Credit

Equivalent credit is granted for knowledge gained from either work related or other qualifying experience. It is the learning and not the experience itself that must be documented to prove that it is at the college level and serves as a valid substitute for the content of a specific course as outlined in this undergraduate bulletin. Students must file a formal application for credit with the Office of the Registrar and follow established guidelines.

Immunization Requirements

To attend college in New York State, proof of immunization from measles, mumps and rubella or a certificate stating the dates when you had these diseases must be presented prior to enrollment.

New York State Public Health Law also requires that all registered students complete a form acknowledging that they have:

- received information about meningococcal disease and the vaccine
- obtained the meningococcal vaccine within the last ten years
- or decided NOT to obtain the vaccine
READMISSION

A student in good academic standing who has not registered for one or more semesters is required to file an application for readmission at least one month before the beginning of the registration period. When the application is processed, the student will receive registration instructions. Readmitted students may be subject to changes in curricular requirements instituted since their last term of attendance. The application for readmission may be downloaded from the Registrar’s web page at www.jjay.cuny.edu.

Project SMART: A Program for Readmitting Students with GPAs Under 2.0

Students who wish to return to John Jay College with a GPA below 2.0 will be considered for referral to Project SMART (Students Making a Return to John Jay). Project SMART offers a range of services with the primary goal of student success. Both through mandatory reorientation seminars and individual sessions, students receive academic advisement, assistance in developing strategies for removal from probation, an assessment of their personal study skills and study habits, and linkage to all appropriate John Jay resources to support them in achieving their goals. Contracts, copies of which are placed in the student file, are signed at the individual sessions by both the student and the readmission counselor. Students are monitored until they are no longer on academic probation. For further information about Project SMART, contact the Registrar’s Office or call 212.237.8462.

OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR

GENERAL INFORMATION

Registering for Classes

All registration is dependent upon course availability and sufficiency of enrollment. New transfer students may have the option of using eSIMS depending on the date they are admitted.

All first time freshmen must register in person at special freshman registration seminars. They attend an orientation immediately preceding the semester when they begin their studies. The date, time and location of the orientation are available from the online Academic Calendar or by contacting the Office of Freshmen Services, 212.237.8120.

Already enrolled students register online at http://johnjay.jjay.cuny.edu/registrar/registrar/esims.html.

Schedule of Classes

The Schedule of Classes, listing class meeting hours and instructors, is available the preceding spring for the fall semester and in early November for the spring semester. The entire class schedule may be accessed online at www.jjay.cuny.edu.

Change of Program

Students who register for courses during the Change of Program Period are responsible for all work assigned from the beginning of the term. They are also subject to the instructor’s attendance policy, beginning with the first class meeting of the semester. Syllabi and assignments are posted on instructors’ office doors or may be obtained from departmental secretaries, enabling late registrants to purchase texts and complete first and second week assignments. Many instructors post syllabi and course information on Blackboard, which is available through the CUNY Portal at www.cuny.edu.

Payment of Tuition

Students may view their bill on eSIMS, the University’s online registration system. Payment due dates are listed prominently in eSIMS and on the Academic Calendar.

Students are reminded that outstanding financial obligations and John Jay Library or CUNY Interlibrary fines must be cleared before registration.
Students may be barred from registration and/or graduation until these obligations are fulfilled.

ADDITIONAL LEARNING OPTIONS

Summer Session
Summer session provides students with an opportunity to take credit-bearing courses in the liberal arts and criminal justice areas or in related fields, to follow an accelerated program of study or to concentrate on a particular subject. The session typically meets from early June through early August, and summer courses are equivalent in content, credit and classroom time to courses offered during the regular academic year. Credit limitations associated with the summer session are published in conjunction with the summer session schedule. Variations from the published policy require the approval of either the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management or the Dean for Undergraduate Studies. Students enrolled in the summer session are eligible to take advantage of a variety of College services as well as John Jay’s state-of-the-art cardiovascular fitness center and athletic facilities.

The Summer Schedule of Classes is usually available on the College’s website in March. For additional information concerning summer session, contact the One Stop Center, 212.663.7867.

Winter Session
Between the fall and spring semesters, the College offers a three week winter session, which is equivalent in all respects to a fall or spring semester. The schedule for the winter session is available as a part of the annual spring registration process.

Distance Education Programs
John Jay College offers a variety of courses via distance learning. Information and a listing of online courses may be accessed online at http://johnjay.jjay.cuny.edu/registrar/coursesearch/ and selecting the semester.

For additional information, contact Katherine Killoran, Academic Director of Undergraduate Studies, 212.237.8263, kkilloran@jjay.cuny.edu.

Resignation
Students are academically and financially responsible for all courses for which they register. A student who is unable to meet attendance requirements may, by written application, request to resign from a course. Appropriate forms are available in the Office of the Registrar. The following details the various resignation options:

- Before the first day of the semester and during the Program Adjustment Period (the first three weeks of the semester) all resignations will be processed in accordance with the College change of program procedures under which courses may be dropped and added. Students may also drop courses during the first three weeks of the semester using eSIMS. Refunds will be mailed directly to the student according to the refund schedule listed in Chapter 7, Tuition and Fees.

- From the fourth to tenth weeks of the semester, students may resign from a course without academic penalty if they file with the Office of the Registrar an Application for Resignation signed by the appropriate course instructor.

- Requests to resign after the tenth week must include medical, occupational, psychological, or other appropriate documentation. Such resignations must be approved by the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management.

- Failure to attend class and subsequent failure to withdraw officially can result in a grade of WU (see Chapter 6, Academic Standards).

- Students withdrawing from all courses are required to have an exit interview with a member of the counseling staff.

- In unusual cases, such as those arising from illness or military service, requests for retroactive resignation (resignation after the completion of a semester) may be filed with the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management. Such applications must include substantial documentation. These applications are reviewed by a committee and the student is notified in writing.

- The grade of W awarded for an approved resignation is not computed in the student’s grade point average.
GENERAL INFORMATION

Student Responsibilities
Students are responsible for fulfilling the admission, course and program prerequisites and the degree and graduation requirements. They are also responsible for observing the college deadlines, attendance dates, rules and regulations published in this undergraduate bulletin.

Enforcement and Appeal
The Office of the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management is responsible for enforcing all academic rules. Appeals of rules and regulations should be addressed and filed in writing with the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

Official Classes
Each matriculated (degree candidate) student is considered to be in one of eight classes, according to the number of credits that have been earned.

Maximum Number of Courses in a Term
Freshmen and sophomores are permitted to register for five courses each semester; juniors and seniors may register for six. Sophomores, juniors and seniors with grade point averages of 3.30 or above may exceed these limits by one course. The forgoing limits may be exceeded by enrolling in a physical education activity course that awards one credit. When making decisions about course load, students are encouraged to take into account factors like employment and family responsibilities and to register for the number of courses in which they can expect to do well. Students should plan to spend at least two hours on coursework outside of class for every hour they spend in class.

During summer session, students may register for up to 6 credits. However, students with a 3.30 GPA or higher may register for up to 12 credits with permission of either the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management or the Dean for Undergraduate Studies. Generally, first semester freshmen and students on academic probation are not allowed to register for summer session.

Maximum Course Substitutions
Occasionally, a course required to fulfill the requirements of a major is not offered. A maximum of three course substitutions is permitted for each degree program. Course substitution forms are available at the Office of the Registrar.

Students seeking a substitution for such a course are to consult with the appropriate department chairperson or program coordinator. The Dean for Undergraduate Studies may also approve a substitute course in the absence of the department chairperson or program coordinator.

Students on Academic Probation
Students who are on academic probation are limited to four or fewer courses by the Academic Review Committee and are not permitted to take courses in summer session.
Course Prerequisites

Students must first fulfill the prerequisites specified for any course before they may register for it. The prerequisites required as preparation for coursework at a more advanced level are included in Chapter 2, Courses Offered, of this undergraduate bulletin.

Note: English 101 is a prerequisite for all courses at the 200-level while English 102 or English 201 is a prerequisite for all courses at the 300-level or above.

Permission to register for a course without first fulfilling its prerequisite(s) may be granted only when a course description specifies that permission of the section instructor may be granted for that purpose. In the absence of the section instructor, the chairperson of the department (or his or her designee) may authorize the prerequisite waiver. Prerequisites may be waived only if, in the judgment of the section instructor (or the chairperson of the department or the latter’s designee), the student is academically prepared for the more advanced course. The English prerequisites may only be waived by the Dean for Undergraduate Studies.

If a course is required in a major or is part of the college general education requirements, the student must take the course eventually, even if it was waived as a prerequisite for a particular course.

Overall Credit Limitation

Students who have completed 144 or more credits or who have registered for 20 or more semesters will not be permitted to register without the approval of the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management. Such students must develop, with the Assistant Vice President, a plan to complete their degree requirements. They will be permitted to register only for those courses required for fulfillment of degree requirements.

REPETITION OF COURSES

Prohibited Repetition

A course for which credit has already been granted may not be repeated. Students will not be granted credit toward their degrees for repeated courses.

Required Repetition

Students who receive the grade of F or WU in a required course must repeat the course at the next earliest opportunity.

Students who do not pass remedial or developmental courses must re-enroll in these courses during the next semester of attendance.

The following remedial or developmental courses and their SEEK equivalents are offered, among others, at the College:

- English-W 100/SEEK English 093 and 094
- Mathematics 100/SEEK Mathematics 095
- Mathematics 103
- Communication Skills 101/SEEK Communication Skills 101
- Communication Skills 102/SEEK Communication Skills 102
- Speech 101

Limitation on the Repetition of Remedial and Developmental Courses

The following policy shall apply in the matter of grades assigned for remedial and developmental courses (see list in Required Repetition section of this chapter):

1. A student shall not be permitted to register at the College if he or she has received two F’s, WU’s, or R’s, or any combination thereof in the same course or its SEEK equivalent;

2. After receiving two F’s, WU’s, or R’s, or any combination thereof in the same course, the student is stopped from registering at John Jay College until he or she passes the course at a CUNY Community College. This decision is final;

3. Students wishing to continue within CUNY must apply to and be accepted by a community college.
Independent Study Courses
Students who wish to undertake independent study under the direction of a member of the faculty must complete an Independent Study Form obtained from the Office of the Registrar. The form must be signed by both the faculty member and the department chair. The form must then be certified by the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management or the Registrar and accepted during the official registration period. Approval is subject to the academic prerequisites listed in the course description and the following stipulations:

1. The student must have completed 60 degree credits and have a 2.50 grade point average;
2. Students may take only one independent study course each semester, up to a total of four such courses for the duration of their undergraduate enrollment at the College;
3. The instructor must be a full-time member of the faculty;
4. The instructor cannot sponsor more than two independent study courses per semester.

Permission for exceptions to these regulations must be obtained from the department chair and the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management prior to the registration period. Independent study courses at the 400-level require the additional approval of the Dean for Undergraduate Studies.

Permit Courses
A permit course is a course taken at another college for which students receive credit at John Jay College. Students must adhere to the permit guidelines and follow the approval process described below.

John Jay College Permit Guidelines

1. Students who wish to take a course on permit must be currently enrolled as matriculated students and have a grade point average of 2.0 or higher. Students who have stop(s) on their record (e.g. Bursar’s, Financial Aid, Library, etc.) will not be considered for a permit until their stop(s) have been cleared.
2. Transfer students may not take a course on permit until they have completed at least one semester at John Jay and have posted grades
3. Readmitted students may not take courses on permit the same semester they are readmitted.
4. Students who have completed 60 credits or more may not attend a community college on permit.
5. Students may take elective courses or general education requirement courses on permit. Major requirement courses are allowed on permit only with approval from the department chairperson.
6. If a permit is approved and the course(s) are closed or cancelled, the student must bring a letter from the Registrar’s Office of the host college as proof that the student did not register. If, after having been approved to take a course on permit, the student opts not to take the course, the student must notify in writing the Office of the Registrar at John Jay College.
7. Undergraduate forensic science majors seeking a permit for science courses must obtain written approval from the chairperson of the Department of Sciences before the permit is considered.
8. A permit does NOT guarantee a student a seat in the class that he or she wants to attend.

Approval to Take Courses on Permit at Other CUNY Colleges
The City University of New York has put in place an e-Permit system designed to help students find, get approval for and register for courses at other CUNY colleges. Through e-Permit, students can file an online request and it will be processed online. Students are kept informed of the progress of their permit request throughout the approval process. If a request is rejected, a student will be notified electronically of the reason for the disapproval. To access e-Permit, students should go to the CUNY homepage (www.cuny.edu) and click the “Log In” button at the left. Once on the University homepage, students initially will have to register for a Portal ID and Password, by clicking on “Register” and following the directions. Once registered and logged in, students will find themselves on their own “My Page,” which has a link to the e-Permit system prominently displayed.
Through the e-Permit website, students can find listings and descriptions of courses at all CUNY colleges. The CUNY online schedule of classes is accessible through the e-Permit site. It is the student’s responsibility to find out whether a selected course is being offered in that semester, whether it fits into the student’s schedule, and whether seats are still available. Students are required to use the e-Permit application on the e-Permit website (www.cuny.edu) for all CUNY permit courses. Please note that students are required to submit one e-Permit application for each course they wish to take on permit.

Once the permit is approved to another CUNY institution, the credits will be posted to the student’s tuition bill. Payment must be made in full at the Bursar’s Office of John Jay College before a student can register at the host institution.

All notifications are e-mailed directly to the student’s home college e-mail address. All grades (A to WU) of courses taken on permit at CUNY colleges will be posted to the student’s record and computed into his or her overall grade point average. Students receiving a failing grade (WU, F) for a course taken on permit will not benefit from the CUNY F-grade policy.

Approval to Take Courses on Permit at Non-CUNY Colleges

All students seeking a permit to a non-CUNY institution must make an appointment to see the permit coordinator at the Office of the Registrar, 212.237.8870. Students must bring to the appointment a copy of the most recent college catalog of the institution they plan to attend. The catalog must have course descriptions of the classes.

Students planning to take courses on permit at a non-CUNY educational institution while enrolled at John Jay College must obtain permission via a paper permit in advance from the Office of the Registrar. Guidelines are available at the Office of the Registrar or by visiting the Registrar’s Office site on the College’s home page, www.jjay.cuny.edu.

Permits to non-CUNY Institutions require that payment be made at the host institution. Students will be liable for the tuition rate of the college they plan to attend outside the CUNY system.

Students are responsible for arranging to have an official transcript sent from the host institution to John Jay College.

ATTENDANCE

Standard Courses

Students are expected to attend all class meetings as scheduled. Excessive absence may result in a failing grade for the course and may result in the loss of financial aid. The number of absences that constitute excessive absence is determined by the individual instructor, who announces attendance guidelines at the beginning of the semester in the syllabus for the course.

Remedial and Developmental Courses

In remedial and developmental courses, students are automatically considered excessively absent and are not eligible for passing grades if their absences exceed the number of times a class meets in any two-week period. In classes that meet once a week, more than two absences are excessive. In classes that meet twice a week, more than four absences are excessive. In classes that meet three times a week, more than six absences are excessive.

The remedial and developmental courses are:

- English-W 100/SEEK English 093 and 094
- Mathematics 100/SEEK Mathematics 095
- Mathematics 103
- Communication Skills 101/SEEK Communication Skills 101
- Communication Skills 102/SEEK Communication Skills 102
- Speech 101
ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Note: The information that follows is excerpted from the CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity.
See the Appendix of this bulletin for the complete text of the John Jay College Policy on Academic Integrity, including sanctions, and the complete text of the CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity

DEFINITIONS AND EXAMPLES OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Cheating is the unauthorized use or attempted use of material, information, notes, study aids, devices or communication during an academic exercise. The following are some examples of cheating, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Copying from another student during an examination or allowing another to copy your work;
- Unauthorized collaboration on a take home assignment or examination;
- Using notes during a closed book examination;
- Taking an examination for another student, or asking or allowing another student to take an examination for you;
- Changing a graded exam and returning it for more credit;
- Submitting substantial portions of the same paper to more than one course without consulting with each instructor;
- Preparing answers or writing notes in a blue book (exam booklet) before an examination;
- Allowing others to research and write assigned papers or do assigned projects, including use of commercial term paper services;
- Giving assistance to acts of academic misconduct/dishonesty;
- Fabricating data (all or in part);
- Submitting someone else’s work as your own;
- Unauthorized use during an examination of any electronic devices such as cell phones, palm pilots, computers or other technologies to retrieve or send information.

Plagiarism is the act of presenting another person’s ideas, research or writings as your own. The following are some examples of plagiarism, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Copying another person’s actual words without the use of quotation marks and footnotes attributing the words to their source;
- Presenting another person’s ideas or theories in your own words without acknowledging the source;
- Using information that is not common knowledge without acknowledging the source;
- Failing to acknowledge collaborators on homework and laboratory assignments.

Internet plagiarism includes submitting downloaded term papers or part of term papers, paraphrasing or copying information from the Internet without citing the source, and “cutting and pasting” from various sources without proper attribution.

Obtaining Unfair Advantage is any activity that intentionally or unintentionally gives a student an unfair advantage in his/her academic work over another student. The following are some examples of obtaining an unfair advantage, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Stealing, reproducing, circulating or otherwise gaining advance access to examination materials;
- Depriving other students of access to library materials, by stealing, destroying, defacing, or concealing them;
- Retaining, using or circulating examination materials, which clearly indicate that they should be returned at the end of the exam;
- Intentionally obstructing or interfering with another student’s work.

Falsification of Records and Official Documents

The following are some examples of falsification, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Forging signatures of authorization;
- Falsifying information on an official academic record;
- Falsifying information on an official document such as a grade report, letter of permission, drop/add form, ID card or other college document.

Explanation of Grades

A, A–: Excellent
B+, B, B–: Very Good
C+, C: Satisfactory
C–, D+, D, D–: Poor
F: Failure
An F is not erased when the course is taken again and passed.
P: Passing
The P grade is not computed in the grade point average and is authorized only for:
1. Remedial and developmental courses
2. Non-remedial courses for which the P grade is designated in the course description in this Undergraduate Bulletin;
3. Courses taken on a Pass/Fail Option (see next section).

OTHER GRADES

Grade of AUD (Senior Citizen’s Audit)
The grade of AUD is assigned when a senior citizen registers for a course. Enrolling in a course on an audit basis gives the student the right to attend and participate in all aspects of the course without receiving credit for the course. The course will not count toward any degree or certificate program offered by The City University of New York.

Grade of INC (Incomplete)
The grade of INC (Incomplete) is given by an instructor only when there is reasonable expectation that a student will successfully complete course requirements. If this grade is unresolved by the end of the following semester, it will automatically convert to the grade of F.

Degree candidates should be aware that an INC grade received during their last semester in courses required for graduation will result in the postponement of graduation.

Resolving the grade of INC through make-up examinations
The procedure outlined here is initiated when a student has received the grade of INC because of absence from a final examination.

All make-up final examinations given after the completion of the semester are processed and administered by the Office of the Registrar. The scheduled date for make-up examinations is published in the Undergraduate Academic Calendar on the College’s home page (www.jjay.cuny.edu). Students must submit applications at least two weeks prior to the examination date. Applications require the written authorization of the course instructor together with the required fee. Students are required to present their College I.D.’s for admission to make-up examinations.

Grade of W (Withdrawal)
The grade of W indicates withdrawal without penalty. It is assigned by the Office of the Registrar upon approval of an Application for Resignation filed by the deadline as indicated in the Undergraduate Academic Calendar (usually in the tenth week of classes). A grade of W is not computed in the grade point average. W grades may affect student eligibility for financial aid.
Grade of WA (Administrative Withdrawal)
The grade of WA is assigned by the Office of the Registrar when a student fails to comply with the Proof of Immunization Policy of the College. The grade of WA is not computed in the grade point average. WA grades may affect student eligibility for financial aid.

Grade of WU (Withdrawn Unofficially)
The grade of WU is assigned by the instructor when a student has never attended class or has ceased attending class before the tenth week of the semester and has not submitted an Application for Resignation to the Office of the Registrar. The grade is computed as a failure (0.0) in the grade point average, which may result in the adjustment of financial aid funds. Students who want to withdraw from a class are therefore advised to submit an official Application for Resignation in the Office of the Registrar (Room 4113 North Hall) prior to the tenth week of classes.

Grade of PEN (Pending)
The PEN grade is recorded when a faculty member suspects or determines that an academic integrity violation has taken place that warrants formal intervention. The faculty member submits a Faculty Report of Alleged Violation of Academic Integrity Policies to the Academic Integrity Officer of the College, who notifies the Registrar so that the Registrar can record a PEN grade to prevent withdrawal from the course by the student in question. A PEN grade is removed or changed when the applicable consultation, appeal, and/or adjudication processes are complete. In the event that the alleged violation is withdrawn in the student’s favor, the student will have the right to withdraw from the course based on the date that the violation form was filed. For further details on the PEN grade, see the John Jay College Policy on Academic Integrity in the Appendix of this bulletin.

Grade of R (Repeat)
This grade is assigned to students who have attended class regularly and completed course requirements but have not demonstrated sufficient progress to justify a passing grade. The grade is awarded only for remedial or developmental courses. This grade is not computed in the grade point average. Students who receive the grade of R must repeat the course in the very next semester of attendance.

Pass/Fail Option
Upon completion of 60 credits, students with a grade point average of 2.0 and higher may take one course a semester under a Pass/Fail Option, for a total of four such courses. The Pass/Fail Option may be applied to all courses except courses satisfying the College’s general education requirements and courses in the student’s major. Application for the Pass/Fail Option must be made at the Office of the Registrar before the conclusion of the second week of classes; in summer session, at the end of the first week of classes; and in winter session before the third class. Once granted, this option is irrevocable. Grades of P received for a Pass/Fail Option are not computed in the grade point average. Grades of F are computed as a zero in student grade point averages.

Remedial and Developmental Courses
The only grades authorized for the courses listed below are P, R, F, W, WU, and INC. However, at the discretion of certain academic departments, the grade of A may be given in place of the grade of P.

- English-W 100/SEEK English 093 and 094
- Mathematics 100/SEEK Mathematics 095
- Mathematics 103
- Communication Skills 101/SEEK Communication Skills 101
- Communication Skills 102/SEEK Communication Skills 102
- Speech 101

Change of Final Grade
Application for a change of grade assigned by a member of the faculty may be made at any time within one year from the end of the semester in which the course was taken. This request may be made by either the student or the instructor. The procedures outlined below apply to the change of grades of A, A–, B+, B, B–, C+, C, C–, D+, D, D–, F, WU and P.

Application for Change of Final Grade
Students seeking a change of a final grade must file a Request for Change in Grade Form with the Office of the Registrar (Room 4113 North Hall), which will forward the form to the appropriate instructor. If the requested change is approved, the faculty member enters the change on the form, has it countersigned by the department chairperson, and returns it to the Office of the Registrar, which will enter the change in the student’s record and notify the student of the change.
Faculty members who initiate such a change must file a Change of Grade Form, including the reason for the change, have the application countersigned by the department chairperson, and forward the completed form to the Office of the Registrar, which will process the change and notify the student.

Appeal for Change of Final Grade

In the event that the faculty member reaffirms the final grade, the student has the right to appeal to the Grade Appeals Committee of the relevant department. To initiate this procedure, the student must first appear at the Office of the Registrar to request this further review. The Office of the Registrar forwards the pertinent materials to the departmental Grade Appeals Committee and notifies the instructor of the action. A meeting is scheduled at a time convenient to all so that both parties may present their positions. The Grade Appeals Committee submits its decision and reasons for its judgment in writing to the Office of the Registrar. The decision of this committee is final.

Change of INC to Administrative F

The grade of F is assigned by the Office of the Registrar when an INC (Incomplete) remains unresolved at the end of the semester following the term in which the course was taken. This administrative action may be appealed by the student or the instructor.

Appeal by Student

The student should contact the instructor or the department chair in the absence of the instructor, to appeal the grade of F resulting from an unresolved Incomplete. If both the instructor and the student agree on the course of action, the student completes the coursework, and a change of grade form is filed with the Office of the Registrar. This process must be completed within one year after the last day of classes of the semester in which the Incomplete was received.

Students who have extraordinary circumstances may appeal the deadline in writing to the Dean of Undergraduate Studies for transmittal to the Faculty Grade Appeals Subcommittee of the Academic Standards Committee. The decision of this subcommittee is final.

Appeal by Faculty

An appeal instituted by a member of the faculty to change an administrative F must indicate that the work required to resolve the INC grade was in the instructor’s possession prior to the deadline date.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

The grade point average is computed by multiplying the numerical value of grades A, A–, B+, B, B–, C+, C, C–, D+, D, D–, F and WU with the number of credits of each course, which yields the number of quality points. The number of quality points is then divided by the total number of attempted credits to yield the grade point average.

Repetition of Failed Courses and the Grade Point Average

Beginning in the fall 1990 semester and in any semester thereafter, the grade of F or WU is not computed in the grade point average when a student repeats the failed course and receives a grade of C- or better. The original F or WU, however, remains on the student’s official transcript. The number of failing credits that can be omitted from the grade point average in this manner is limited to 16 for the duration of the student’s undergraduate enrollment in the institution.

Grade Point Average Required for Enrollment in Graduate Courses

Seniors with a grade point average of 3.0 or higher may, upon the recommendation of the academic department concerned and the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies or the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management, enroll, space permitting, for a maximum number of 6 credits of graduate courses for undergraduate credit at no additional fee.

Only one 3-credit graduate course may be taken in a semester. These courses may not count toward the master’s degree if they have served to fulfill baccalaureate degree requirements.

Academic Probation

Students with grade point averages that fall below the required minimum may be placed on academic probation. During this probationary period, students who make satisfactory academic progress will continue to maintain their academic standing with the College and their concurrent eligibility for financial aid.

Dismissal

The academic records of students who fail to meet the minimum retention standards are reviewed each semester by the Academic Review Committee, which determines whether there has been satisfactory progress toward meeting required standards. Students who, in the judgment of the committee, have not made adequate progress are dismissed from the College. Upon dismissal, a student must remain separated from the University for a least one year. There is no presumption that students will be readmitted after one year.

Students who receive two Fs, WUs or Rs, or any combination thereof in remedial or developmental courses are not permitted to continue at the College. (For a list of these courses, see the Remedial and Developmental Courses section of this chapter.) Students may not appeal the denial of registration. Students may apply for readmission after completing the equivalent remedial or developmental course at a community college.

Reinstatement after Dismissal

Students who have been dismissed from the College because of academic failure may seek reinstatement after separation from the University for one year. The process for reinstatement is initiated by the submission of an application for readmission and payment of a $10.00 processing fee to the Office of the Registrar. Deadline dates are available at the Office of the Registrar and in the Academic Calendar on the College’s home page.

www.jjay.cuny.edu. Deadlines are strictly enforced. Students are encouraged to reapply as early as possible. The application is reviewed by the Readmissions Committee and a disposition is determined.

Students who are considered appropriate candidates are referred to Project SMART. For more information, please see Chapter 5, Admissions and Registration. SEEK eligible students are referred to the SEEK Department for further screening and evaluation to determine eligibility. If a student is approved for readmission through Project Smart or SEEK, he or she re-enters the College on academic probation and must follow the plan developed through Project SMART or SEEK, which is formalized under a signed contract and placed in the student’s cumulative record. Failure to meet the conditions of readmission results in permanent dismissal.

GRADUATION

Requirements

Candidates for the associate degree must complete at least 60 credits and candidates for the baccalaureate degree must complete at least 120 credits to obtain a degree. All degree candidates must have completed all prescribed courses, fulfilled the requirements of their majors, achieved at least a C average (2.0 grade point average), and cleared all accounts with the College.

Candidates for degrees are reminded that grades of INC assigned during the last semester of attendance in courses required for graduation will result in the postponement of graduation.

Application

Candidates must submit applications for their degrees by the date prescribed in the Undergraduate Academic Calendar (available on the College’s Home Page at www.jjay.cuny.edu). Spring semester candidates must demonstrate the potential for satisfying the requirements of the degrees for which they apply.

Commencement

Participation in the annual spring commencement ceremony is accorded students who have been awarded the associate or baccalaureate degree the previous August or February and students who are certified by the Office of the Registrar to complete their degree requirements by the end of the spring semester.
The College recognizes its outstanding students in a variety of ways: placement on the Dean’s List, granting of general college honors and honors in the major, induction into honorary societies and admission to special programs that enhance a student’s education by providing opportunities for faculty mentorship, advanced research and/or other individualized projects.
SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY PROGRAMS

Ronald McNair Program
Department of African-American Studies
Application required

This program aims to foster graduate education, especially in a doctoral program of study for first generation, low-income college students from under-represented groups (in particular, minorities, women and the physically challenged). To apply for this program, a student must be entering junior year with a 2.8 grade point average or better, must come from a low-income background and be a first-generation college student or member of a group under-represented in graduate education. For an application, please call 212.237.8760.

DISTINGUISHED STUDENTS PROGRAM
Application required

The Distinguished Students Program is designed to support academically gifted students and to refine their leadership potential as public servants. The program provides participants with an enriched educational experience that incorporates service activities such as peer tutoring and mentoring as well as leadership training and research internships. Each year, approximately 20 entering freshmen are selected for entrance into the program. Distinguished students are offered two tuition-free courses each summer that are not open to the general college population. They also have priority scheduling for course registration and are eligible for on-campus employment. For an application, please call 212.237.8553.

HONORS PROGRAM
Application required

Open to entering freshmen, the John Jay College Honors Program seeks to provide cultural, social and academic opportunities to exceptionally motivated undergraduates. Eligible students will be invited to apply to the program prior to enrolling in their freshman year. Students admitted to the program will complete 30 credits of honors coursework in special honors sections of courses that fulfill the College’s general education requirements. Honors Program students write a senior thesis and are encouraged to present their honors research at a national conference. For an application, please call 212.237.8553.

HONORS

Dean’s List

Students are eligible for the Undergraduate Dean’s List if they have:
- passed or been exempted from all three skills assessment exams (reading, writing and mathematics)
- earned a 3.35 cumulative GPA and a 3.5 GPA calculated over the past academic year
- had no grade of INC or WU during the past academic year
- taken 18 credits during this period, none of which consisted of pass/fail, remedial or developmental coursework
The Undergraduate Dean’s List is based upon the credits and grade point average recorded by the Office of the Registrar at the conclusion of the spring term for the previous academic year, a period that includes the summer session(s), fall term and spring term. Designation for the Undergraduate Dean’s List is finalized on June 30 and published during the subsequent fall semester. For more information, please call 212.237.8553.

Graduation with Honors
Baccalaureate students qualify for three levels of academic honors awarded at graduation:

- summa cum laude (with highest distinction), awarded to students whose cumulative grade point average is at least 3.8
- magna cum laude (with great distinction), awarded to students whose cumulative grade point average is at least 3.5
- cum laude (with distinction), awarded to students whose cumulative grade point average is at least 3.2

This distinction will be noted on the student’s transcript.

To be eligible for graduation with honors, a student must complete at least 56 credits at the College. Students who entered the College with an associate degree qualify for these honors with a minimum of 52 credits earned at the College. All courses and grades earned at John Jay, including failing grades, enter into the computation.

Honors in the Major
To qualify for honors in the major, a student must have completed the credit requirements for the major and have earned at least a 3.5 cumulative grade point average in courses above the 100-level in the major. Credit for courses required as prerequisites for major courses and transfer credits applied to the major will not be calculated into the major cumulative grade point average. Students must have also earned at least a 3.2 overall cumulative grade point average. This honor will be noted on the student’s transcript.

Valedictorian and Salutatorian
The valedictorian and salutatorian for commencement exercises are chosen from among the June baccalaureate candidates and the graduates of the previous August and February. The two students with the highest grade point averages are awarded these distinctions.

In the event of identical grade point averages, the students with the greatest number of credits earned at John Jay College (up to 120 credits) will be designated valedictorian and salutatorian. In the event that two students have identical grade point averages and have earned the same number of credits at the College (up to 120 credits), they will be declared co-valedictorians and no salutatorian will be designated. In the event that three or more students have identical grade point averages and have earned the same number of credits at the College (up to 120 credits), the valedictorian and salutatorian will be selected by the Committee on Undergraduate Honors, Prizes and Awards.

HONOR SOCIETIES
The following Honor Societies have chapters at John Jay College. For more information about them, please call 212.237.8553.

Alpha Phi Sigma: Eta Phi Chapter
National Criminal Justice Honor Society
In 2006, John Jay established a chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma, the nationally recognized honor society for students in the criminal justice sciences. The honor society is open to those with a declared criminal justice major or minor. The society recognizes the achievement of academic excellence by undergraduates as well as graduate students of criminal justice. To become a member, students must have completed 40 credits at the College, with a minimum of 3.2 overall Grade Point Average (GPA) and a 3.2 GPA in criminal justice courses. Students must also rank in the top 35 percent of their classes and have completed a minimum of four courses within the criminal justice curriculum.
Phi Eta Sigma
National Freshman Honorary Society
In 1999, John Jay College established a chapter of Phi Eta Sigma. As the oldest and largest national freshman honor society, Phi Eta Sigma encourages and rewards academic excellence among first-year students in institutions of higher learning. Membership is open to individuals who have earned grade point averages of 3.5 or better during one or both semesters of their freshman year as full-time students, have passed or been exempted from all three placement exams, and have not been registered for any remedial or developmental courses during the freshman year.

Pi Alpha Alpha
National Honorary Society for Public Affairs and Administration
In 1977, John Jay College established a chapter of Pi Alpha Alpha, the National Honorary Society for Public Affairs and Administration. Under the auspices of the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration (NASPAA), this honorary society encourages and rewards scholarship and accomplishment among students and practitioners of public affairs and administration; promotes advancement of education and scholarship in the art and science of public affairs and administration; and fosters integrity and creative performance in the conduct of governmental and related public service operations.

Psi Chi
National Honorary Society for Psychology
A chapter of Psi Chi was established at John Jay College of Criminal Justice in May 1974. Selection for membership is based upon the student’s academic record in psychology (with a minimum of 12 credits), as well as the overall class standing. Membership is open to undergraduate and graduate students, as well as to faculty members in the Department of Psychology.

AWARDS

The Malcolm/King Leadership Award
Department of African-American Studies
In honor of Dr. Martin Luther King and Malcolm X, John Jay College established the Malcolm/King Leadership Award. The award encourages graduate and undergraduate students majoring in criminal justice to pursue careers in the social sciences; to engage in social activism; to strive for academic excellence and to foster an awareness of the many social issues that affect the communities in which they live, work and attend school. To be eligible for this award, undergraduate students must have completed 24 credits with a minimum grade point average of 3.0. Graduate students must have completed 12 credits with a grade point average of 3.5. Both groups must either be taking or have successfully completed three ethnic studies courses. In addition, a 350-500 word essay on a pre-selected topic is required. For more information, please call 212.237.8764.

Undergraduate Research Initiative
To encourage and support undergraduate research, the College has established two award programs. For more information about these programs, please call 212.237.8553.

• Undergraduate Research Incentive Award
Nine awards in the amount of $2,000 each will be granted to undergraduate students who participate in a research projects under the supervision of a faculty member. Where appropriate, Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval is required. Eligibility requirements include full-time status (a minimum of 12 credits) and a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.7. All undergraduates including BA/MA students are eligible to apply.

• Young Scholars Award
Students who present faculty-supervised research at national conferences are eligible for a $1,500 award to offset travel costs. Students are asked to present a travel budget and show evidence that their research was accepted for presentation.
GRADUATION AWARDS
To be eligible for graduation awards, students must complete at least 56 credits at John Jay College (52 credits for those who entered the College with associate degrees) with a minimum grade point average of 2.0 (Note: some awards require a higher grade point average). Awards that support graduate studies must be used beginning no later than the fall semester of the fourth academic year following graduation.

CUNY BA/BS Distinguished Scholar Award
One award is given to a CUNY/BA and one to a CUNY/BS student with the highest grade point average upon graduation.

Distinguished Service Awards
Application required
The John Jay College Committee on Undergraduate Honors, Prizes and Awards grants the Distinguished Service Awards each year to five graduating seniors who have made significant contributions of service to the College. Applicants must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0. An application is required.

Albert Elias Memorial Award
Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration
This award was established in memory of Professor Albert Elias by his family and the Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration. An expert in correctional studies, Elias pioneered guided group interaction as an intervention to rehabilitate juvenile delinquents. The award is presented to the graduating correction officer with the highest cumulative grade point average.

Phillip Gisses Award
Department of Public Management
This award was established by Associate Registrar Emerita Jennie Gisses in memory of her husband. It is given to the graduating senior who is a member of the New York City Fire Department or who has the highest grade point average in the fire science major. The faculty of the Department of Public Management selects the award winner.

Graduate International Student Award
No application required
A one-time $2,000 award will be granted to a John Jay undergraduate international student beginning graduate studies at John Jay. The international student with the highest undergraduate grade point average will receive this award.

Richard Henry Hommel Award
Department of Speech, Theatre and Media Studies
The Richard Henry Hommel Award was established by alumnus Richard W. Hommel in memory of his son. The award is given to a graduating senior who has made an outstanding contribution to theatrical performances at the College. The faculty of the Department of Speech, Theatre and Media Studies selects the award winner.

Lawrence J. Kaplan Humanities Award
Established by Professor Emeritus of Economics Lawrence J. Kaplan, the award is presented to a graduating senior who has shown excellence in the study of the humanities. Winners are nominated and selected by faculty members, with the participation of Professor Kaplan.

Ruth S. Lefkowitz Mathematics Prize
Department of Mathematics and Computer Science
This prize was established by Charles S. Lefkowitz in honor of his wife, Professor Emerita Ruth S. Lefkowitz and former chairperson of the Department of Mathematics. The award is presented to a graduating senior for outstanding academic performance in the computer information systems major. The faculty of the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science selects the award winner from nominees with the highest grade point averages in the computer information systems major.

Bernard Locke Award
Department of Psychology
The Department of Psychology established this award in memory of Bernard Locke, professor of psychology and former dean of students. This award is presented to a graduating senior selected by a faculty committee of the Department of Psychology for outstanding achievement in psychology.
Howard Mann Humanitarian Award
Application required by March 1
This award was established in memory of Dr. Howard Mann, scholar, counselor, educator, humanitarian, associate professor and dean of students (1971–79). The award is presented to a graduating senior who has unselfishly and voluntarily worked for the welfare of others. The Committee on Undergraduate Honors, Prizes and Awards selects the award winner. For an application, please call 212.237.8553.

Jerome Metzner Award
Department of Sciences
The Department of Sciences established this award in memory of Jerome Metzner, professor of biology. This award is given to the graduating senior who has demonstrated academic excellence in the forensic science major. The faculty of the Department of Sciences selects the annual winner.

Robert S. Morrow Prize
Department of Psychology
The Department of Psychology established this award in memory of Professor Robert S. Morrow, the first coordinator of the master’s degree program in forensic psychology. The award is given to one or more graduating seniors who have demonstrated academic excellence in the forensic psychology major. The faculty of the Department of Psychology selects the award winner.

Elaine Noel Award
Department of Psychology
The Department of Psychology established this award in 1999 in memory of Elaine Noel who served as the department’s secretary from 1980 to 1996. The award is given to the forensic psychology student with an excellent record in psychology who has made a special contribution to the John Jay College community.

Leonard E. Reisman Medal
Application required by March 1
This medal was established in honor of the first president of John Jay College of Criminal Justice. It is awarded to an outstanding member of the senior class for distinguished scholarship and exceptional service to the College. The applicant must have a minimum grade point average of 3.5. For an application, please call 212.237.8553.

Armando Rosario Memorial Award
Established by the Auxiliary Police Benevolent Association (APBA) of the City of New York, this award is given in memory of Armando Rosario, one of five New York Auxiliary Police officers to die in the line of duty. Honoring all who have given their lives, the award is presented to a graduating auxiliary police officer with a high scholastic average. The president of the APBA selects the award winner after a review of the candidate’s cumulative grade point average and assignment. An interview is required.

Scholarship and Service Award
Application required by March 1
The Scholarship and Service Award is given annually by John Jay College to a graduating senior with a minimum grade point average of 3.0 who has demonstrated scholarship and outstanding service to the College. For an application, please call 212.237.8553.

Anne Schreiber Memorial Award
Center for English Language Support
This award was established by Associate Registrar Emerita Jennie Gisses in memory of her sister Anne. It is given to a graduating senior who has made marked progress in English as a second language. The director of the Center for English Language Support selects the award winner.

Petra Shattuck Prize for Distinction in Government Department of Government
The Department of Government established this award in memory of Professor Petra Shattuck, whose most significant work centered on the civil rights of Native Americans. The award is given to a graduating senior who has demonstrated academic excellence and distinction in the government major. The faculty of the Department of Government selects the winner.

Alex Smith Award for Excellence in Criminology
Department of Sociology
The Department of Sociology established this award in honor of Professor Emeritus Alex Smith, one of the founders of the College. The award is given to a graduating senior with the highest grade point average in the criminology major. The Office of the Registrar identifies award candidates and the faculty of the Department of Sociology selects the award winner.
Student Service Excellence Award

Application required by March 1

This $1,000 award is given at commencement to a graduating senior who has contributed to excellence in the college community and who plans to continue his/her education either in graduate studies or law school. Applicants must have a minimum grade point average of 3.2. For an application, please call 212.237.8553.

Interdisciplinary Studies Award

Department of Interdisciplinary Studies

Established by the faculty and alumni of the Department of Interdisciplinary Studies, this award is presented to a graduating senior who has demonstrated not only academic excellence but also the ability to integrate the department’s various disciplines into some common understanding of the human condition. The faculty and alumni of the department select the winner.

Uniformed Fire Officers Association Award

Established in 1999 by the Uniformed Fire Officers Association, this award is presented to a New York City Fire Department officer graduating with a distinguished academic record.

Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration

The Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration, the Wagner family, and the Order of Christian Brothers established this award in memory of Brother Robert Wagner, Christian Brother, professor, and advocate for the rehabilitation of adolescent offenders. The award is given to the graduating senior with the highest grade point average in the correctional studies major. The Registrar’s Office identifies candidates and the faculty of the Department of Law, Police Science and Criminal Justice Administration selects the award winner.

Graduating Scholar Award

This award is presented to a graduating senior with the highest GPA who entered John Jay College as a freshman. The recipient is selected by the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management.
TUITION

Tuition rates for graduate students are established by the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York. All fees and tuition charges listed in this bulletin and in any registration materials issued by the College are subject to change without prior notice by action of the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York.

In the event of any increase in fees or tuition charges, payments already made to the College will be treated as partial payment. Students will be notified of the additional amount due and the time and method of payment. Students who have not paid all fees and tuition by the time indicated will not be considered registered and will not be admitted to classes.

Current Rate Schedule

New York State Residents

- Full-time Matriculated Student (12 – 18 credits) $2,000 per semester
- Part-time Matriculated Student (fewer than 12 credits) $170 per credit hour
- Non-degree students $250 per credit hour
- Senior Citizens see Chapter 5

Out-of-State Residents

- Matriculated Student $360 per credit hour
- Non-degree students $530 per credit hour

NOTES: For the purposes of determining tuition charges, a student is considered a resident of the State of New York if the student has a principal place of abode in the State of New York for a period of at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the first day of classes for the semester with respect to which the residency determination is made. Such a student must state an intention to live permanently and maintain a principal place of abode in New York State. Residence in a dormitory, hotel, or other temporary housing facility does not in itself establish New York State residency. The College may require appropriate documentation to verify residency status.
TUITION & FEES

Tuition & Fees

Formal application for a refund must be made to the Office of the Registrar or online through eSIMS. The date on which the application is filed is considered to be the official date of withdrawal. Non-attendance in classes does not waive the tuition liability incurred at registration. Students should allow approximately eight weeks for refund checks to be processed and mailed.

Resignations
In the case of resignation from a course or courses during the semester the following rate schedule applies:

Resignation filed with the Office of the Registrar

Before the first day of classes
100 percent reduction in tuition liability

Resignation filed within the first week of classes
75 percent reduction in tuition liability

Resignation filed within the second week of classes
50 percent reduction in tuition liability

Resignation filed within the third week of classes
25 percent reduction in tuition liability

Resignation filed after the third week of classes no reduction in tuition liability

The Summer Session refund schedule is listed in the online Summer Session Schedule.
Administrative Cancellations
Students are entitled to full refunds in the event that courses are withdrawn or registration is canceled by the College.

Outstanding Debts to the College
Students with outstanding debts to the College may not register for a succeeding semester until the debts are cleared. Personal checks in payment of delinquent accounts will not be accepted during the registration period.

Returned Check Policy
Checks returned unpaid to the College by a financial institution, no matter the amount or reason for the return, will automatically incur a $15 reprocessing fee in addition to the original obligation. The Bursar will attempt to notify the student or former student who submitted the returned check to provide information on making payment. Full payment must be made within two weeks of the date of the check being returned to the College. Failure to meet this deadline will result in an additional $15 Late Payment Service Fee and, in some cases, that account being turned over to the College’s collection attorneys for appropriate action. The Bursar will not accept checks in payment of tuition or fees, even if the student wishes to use someone else’s check.

If the financial institution supplies a letter to the College admitting error on its part, the student will have his/her check writing privileges restored. A student who fails to pay tuition or other obligations will be denied access to his/her records and will be prevented from registering in the future.

The City University of New York Policy on Withholding Student Records
Students who are delinquent and/or default in any of their financial accounts with the College, the University, or an appropriate state or federal agency for which the University acts as either a disbursing or certifying agent, and students who have not completed exit interviews as required by the Federal Perkins Loan Program, the Federal Family Education Loan Programs, the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program and the Nursing Student Loan Program, are not to be permitted to complete registration, or issued a copy of their grade, a transcript of academic record, certificate or degree, nor are they to receive funds under the federal campus-based student assistance programs or the Federal Pell Grant Program unless the designated officer, in exceptional hardship cases and consistent with federal and state regulations, waives in writing the application of this regulation.

Special Provisions for Students in the Military
The following policies apply to students who leave CUNY to fulfill military obligations.
I. Students called up to the reserves or drafted before the end of the semester
   A. Grades. In order to obtain a grade, a student must attend 13 weeks (5 weeks for summer session).
   B. Refunds. A student called up to the reserves or drafted or who does not attend for a sufficient time to qualify for a grade is entitled to a 100 percent refund of tuition and all other fees except application fees.

II. Students who volunteer (enlist) for the military
   A. Grades. Same provision as for students called up to the reserves. In order to obtain a grade, a student must attend 13 weeks (5 weeks for summer session).
   B. Refunds. The amount of the refund depends upon whether the withdrawal is before the fifth week of classes.
      1. Withdrawal before the beginning of the fifth calendar week (third calendar week for summer sessions): 100 percent refund of tuition and all other fees except application fees.
      2. Withdrawal thereafter: 50 percent refund.
III. Other Provisions for Military Service

A. Resident Tuition Rates. These lower rates are applicable to all members of the armed services, their spouses and their dependent children, on full-time active duty and stationed in the State of New York.

B. Re-enrollment of Veterans. Veterans who are returning students are given preferred treatment in the following ways:
1. Veterans who were former students with unsatisfactory scholastic records may be readmitted with a probationary program.
2. Veterans, upon their return, may register even after normal registration periods, without late fees.
3. Granting of college credit for military service and armed forces instructional courses.
4. Veterans returning too late to register may audit classes without charge.

C. Late Admissions. Veterans with no previous college experience are permitted to file applications up to the date of registration, and are allowed to begin classes pending completion of their application and provision of supporting documents.

D. Readmission Fee. Upon return from military service, a student will not be charged a readmission fee to register at the same college.

E. Veterans Tuition Deferrals. Veterans are entitled to defer the payment of tuition pending receipt of veterans’ benefits.

F. New York State National Guard Tuition Waivers. Active members of the New York National Guard, who are legal residents of New York State and who do not have a baccalaureate degree, are eligible for a tuition waiver for undergraduate study.

Financial aid is available to matriculated students in the form of grants, loans, and part-time student employment (Federal Work Study). Grants provide funds that do not have to be repaid. Loans must be repaid in regular installments over a prescribed period of time. Scholarships are funds granted based on academic excellence. Federal Work Study consists of part-time employment, either on campus or in an outside agency, obtained through the Office of Student Financial Services.

Office of Student Financial Services
Room 3400
445 West 59th Street
New York, New York 10019
212.237.8151

Hours:
Monday, Thursday and Friday – 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM
Tuesday and Wednesday – 9:00 AM to 7:00 PM
When classes are not in session, the office closes at 5:00 PM each day.

The City University of New York uses the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This application is available throughout the country. A student need only complete the form with the CUNY John Jay Federal I.D. number (002693) to apply for aid. All information will then be sent to the College electronically. Students also have the option of filing their FAFSA on the web. The web address is: www.fafsa.ed.gov/. The advantage of filing on the web is that the FAFSA results are sent 7 to 14 days faster than if the application is mailed.
GRANTS

ACG and SMART Grants
The U.S. Department of Education has launched two new grant programs in 2006: The Academic Competitiveness Grants (ACG) and the National Science and Mathematics Access to Retain Talent (SMART) Grants.

Academic Competitiveness Grants (ACG)
An eligible student may receive an Academic Competitiveness Grant (ACG) of up to $750 for the first academic year of study and up to $1,300 for the second academic year of study. To be eligible for each academic year, a student must meet certain criteria including, but not limited to, being a U.S. citizen, being a Federal Pell Grant recipient, and being enrolled full-time in a degree program. Most potential recipients will be notified by the U.S. Department of Education and will be given a website link that will help them determine whether they meet eligibility requirements.

National Science and Mathematics Access to Retain Talent (SMART) Grants
An eligible student may receive a National SMART Grant of $4,000 for each of the third and fourth academic years of study. To be eligible for each academic year, a student must meet certain criteria including, but not limited to being: a U.S. citizen, a Federal Pell Grant recipient, and enrolled full-time in a degree program. Under the National SMART Grant Program, CUNY will identity Pell-eligible federal student aid recipients who are majoring in accepted academic programs for SMART Grant eligibility.

APTS (Aid for Part-Time Study)
This grant program is for part-time matriculated undergraduate students and is financed by New York State and open only to state residents. In addition, an applicant must be a United States citizen, or have permanent resident or refugee status. Awards vary according to financial ability and the funding given to The City University of New York each year. Students must be enrolled for 6 to 11 credits.

Federal Pell Grant
This federal entitlement program was instituted to help undergraduate matriculated students meet the cost of their education. Pell grants are awarded to eligible students enrolled in a full-time program (12 or more credits). Reduced grants are available to students enrolled part-time.
Applicants must demonstrate financial need. Awards range up to $2,025 per semester. Students must apply each year.

SEEK (Search for Education, Elevation and Knowledge)
This special program is for a limited number of students entering college for the first time who are in need of academic and economic support. To be eligible, a candidate must attend college as a full-time day student, and must be a New York State resident. Financial eligibility is determined by two factors: a correlation between a household’s total annual income before taxes and the number of family members that income supports. Students who apply to the SEEK program must also file for the Pell Grant (see Pell Grant section of this chapter) and TAP (see TAP section of this chapter). Furthermore, if students show need under federal financial aid guidelines, they may be eligible for funds to cover the student activity fee and the cost of books, and may be granted a stipend (a fixed allowance that helps pay for educational expenses other than tuition). For information regarding academic criteria, see the SEEK Program information in Chapter 3.

Federal SEOG (Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant)
This New York State tuition grant program is available to full-time matriculated students who have been legal residents of New York State for at least one year. Awards, which range from $250 to $2,000 per semester, vary according to financial ability and may be used solely to pay the cost of tuition. Applicants applying as independent students must meet special requirements. Awards are granted for only eight semesters. SEEK students are eligible for 10 semesters.

Uniformed Services Tuition Waiver Program
This program provides waiver funds for students employed as non-supervisory personnel in New York State as a uniformed member of a police, fire, corrections, or court agency. Funding for this program varies each year.

Veterans Benefits: Montgomery G.I. Bill – Active Duty (Chapter 30)
Under Chapter 30, individuals who entered military service on or after July 1, 1985 and had their basic military pay reduced by $100 per month for the first 12 months of service are generally eligible. Active duty for three years, or two years active plus four years in the Selective Reserve or National Guard, entitles an individual to $985 per month basic benefits for 36 months, or the equivalent in part-time training. All questions regarding Veterans Benefits should be directed to the Office of Student Financial Services.

Veterans Benefits: Montgomery G.I. Bill – Selective Reserve (Chapter 106)
Under Chapter 106, individuals who are satisfactorily participating in required training or who are fulfilling an obligated service of not less than six years in the Selective Reserve are eligible for benefits. Eligible reservists are entitled to a maximum of 36 months of educational assistance based upon full-time training, or the equivalent in part-time training. Benefits for full-time study are presently $276 per month. Questions regarding Veterans Benefits may be directed to the Office of Student Financial Services.

Tuition Benefits for Active New York State National Guard Members
This is a New York State tuition assistance program for active members of the New York Army National Guard, the New York Air National Guard and the New York Naval Militia. It provides tuition assistance for active members enrolled in a first degree program of study. The award covers tuition after all other financial aid has been applied to the tuition charges. Students must apply for federal and state aid and file a DMNA 96-1 form, which can be obtained from their individual National Guard unit. Continuation of the award will be dependent on good military standing, making satisfactory progress toward the degree and on maintaining good academic standing for financial aid purposes.

Vietnam Veterans Tuition Awards (VVTA) and Persian Gulf College Tuition Benefits
Vietnam veterans and veterans of the Persian Gulf War who are undergraduates may be eligible for up to $1,000 per semester for full-time attendance and up to $500 per semester for part-time attendance, to a maximum of $10,000 total. They must meet specific state residency and service requirements to be eligible for this state award. Veterans can obtain an application from the New York State Higher Education Services Corporation (NYHESC), 99 Washington Avenue, Albany, NY 12255. As part of the application process, the student veteran must also apply for TAP and the Federal Pell Grant.
LOANS

Federal Perkins Loan
This is a low-interest (presently 5 percent) federal loan made available through the College to matriculated students enrolled at least half-time (6 credits or the equivalent). Loans are awarded according to need and repayment begins nine months after graduation or termination of college attendance. The FAFSA is the application for a Federal Perkins Loan.

Federal Direct Loan Program (Subsidized and Unsubsidized)
This low-interest loan program helps students meet the cost of a college education. The Federal Direct Loan Program allows students to borrow money directly from the federal government. Students who are matriculated in degree-granting programs and are registered for at least 6 credits per semester are eligible. Students must begin repayment within 6 months after graduation or termination of college attendance and have a maximum of 10 years in which to repay the borrowed funds under the Standard Repayment Plan. There is also the Extended Repayment Plan that allows loan repayment to be extended over a period from 12 to 30 years. Other options are the Graduated Repayment Plan in which payments are lower at first and increase every two years, and the Income Contingent Repayment Plan, which bases annual payments upon the borrower’s Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) and the total amount of the Direct Loans. The annual interest rate is variable, but will not exceed 6.8 percent. Federal regulations require the deduction of a 3 percent origination fee from the face value of each loan. Freshman year students may borrow $3,500, sophomore year students $4,500, and junior and senior year students may borrow $5,500 per year. The aggregate total is $23,000 for undergraduates. (This total includes any undergraduate Direct or Stafford loans.)

Military Deferment

Effective July 1, 2006, for all three loan programs (FFEL, Direct Loans, Perkins Loans), a new military deferment has been created, effective for loans for which the first disbursement is made on or after July 1, 2001. On or after July 1, 2006, a qualified borrower may receive a deferment for a period in which he or she meets the qualifications after July 1, 2001. The deferment shall not exceed a total of three years, and applies only to periods during which borrowers are serving on active duty during a war or other military operation, or national emergency, or performing qualifying National Guard duty during a war or other military operation or national emergency. As a result, not all active duty military personnel are eligible for this new deferment.

Federal PLUS (Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students)
This educational loan enables parents of dependent undergraduate matriculated students to borrow money in order to pay for their child’s education. Parents are limited in the amount that they can borrow by the “cost of their child’s education” minus any other financial aid that the student is receiving. The “cost of education” includes school related expenses as determined by The City University of New York. A credit check is performed. If the parent loan is denied, it is possible for a dependent student to borrow additional unsubsidized loans in their own name. There is an origination fee of 4 percent of the loan principal that will be deducted proportionately from each loan disbursement. The interest rate is variable and is adjusted each year but will never be higher than 9 percent. The prepayment period begins the day after the loan is fully disbursed. The first payment is due 60 days after the final loan disbursement.

SCHOLARSHIPS

New York State Scholarships for Academic Excellence
This program provides scholarship assistance to outstanding New York State high school graduates. Each year, 8,000 scholarships are awarded — up to 2,000 scholarships of $1,500 and 6,000 scholarships of $500 to top scholars from registered New York State high schools. Awards are based on student grades in certain Regents exams. Recipients can also receive other non-loan student aid, but the total cannot exceed the cost of attendance. To apply, students should see their high school guidance counselor.

Peter F. Vallone Academic Scholarship Award
New York City high school graduates with a B average or higher who are accepted to CUNY may be eligible for this scholarship, which is funded by the New York City Council. The award is available to students who enroll full-time at any of the 17 undergraduate colleges at CUNY within a year of graduating from a public or private New York City high school. Awards are currently funded at $1,000 per year and are renewable for the length of the degree program, as long as the student continues to meet eligibility criteria.

WORK STUDY

FWS (Federal Work Study)
This is a federal financial aid program through which a full-time or part-time matriculated student who can demonstrate financial need is provided with a part-time job either on or off campus. Students are limited to working 20 hours a week while the College is in session, but they may work up to 35 hours a week during vacation periods with the permission of the Office of Student Financial Services. The hourly pay rate ranges from $6 to $7 and is determined by the Office of Student Financial Services based on a combination of job location (on or off campus), job description and the student’s year in college.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Application Forms
Applications for financial aid must be filed each academic year. Students should apply as soon as the new Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) forms are available, which is usually in January. Applications must be completed immediately and mailed to the student aid processing center. Web access for filing applications is also available in early January. The web address is www.fafsa.ed.gov. Students will receive a reply when their application is processed. If there are problems with inconsistent data, insufficient data, Social Security number, citizenship, Immigration and Naturalization status, or Selective Service status, the student will be notified by a separate letter and must come to the Office of Student Financial Services to make any adjustments. If a student is selected for a process called verification, a letter will also be sent and proof of income must be furnished and a verification sheet must be completed. In most instances, a signed copy of the student’s and/or parent’s previous year’s Federal Income Tax Return is sufficient to complete the verification process.

Students who wish to apply for a Direct Loan must first submit their FAFSA application and then must complete a Direct Loan entrance counseling session on the web. The Federal Direct Loan application can be filed electronically through the CUNY Portal at www.cuny.edu. Students must login in order to submit the application.

TuitionPay Monthly Payment Plan
800.635.0120
The City University of New York and John Jay College have developed a monthly payment plan to help students finance their education. This is the TuitionPay Monthly Payment Plan. Under this plan, students pay their tuition in monthly installments. There is no interest, no finance charges, only a low enrollment fee. Information is available in the Office of Student Financial Services or TuitionPay may be contacted online at www.tuitionpay.com.
ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS FOR FINANCIAL AID

There are academic standards that must be maintained for continued receipt of aid. At present, there are two sets of requirements, one for TAP (Tuition Assistance Program), and another for Title IV Aid, which includes Federal Pell, Federal Work Study, Federal Perkins Loan and Federal Direct Loans.

Academic Qualifications for TAP

The academic guidelines are divided into two areas: Program Pursuit and Rate of Progress. Students must follow both sets of rules in order to receive a TAP award each semester.

Program Pursuit

Program Pursuit requires all students to complete a certain number of courses each semester. A course is considered completed when a grade of A, A–, B+, B, B–, C+, C, C–, D+, D, D–, P (Passing) or F (Failing), is awarded at the end of the semester. Grades of W (Withdrawal), WU (Unofficial Withdrawal), WA (Administrative Withdrawal) or INC (Incomplete) indicate that a course has not been completed.

Students enrolled for their first semester at the College must be enrolled for at least 3 credits and 12 equated hours to qualify for TAP. During their second semester at the College students must be enrolled for at least 6 credits and 12 equated hours to qualify for TAP. Students who are receiving a first or second semester TAP award must complete at least 50 percent (6 credits or the equivalent) of a full-time load in order to receive a TAP award for the next semester. Students who are receiving a third or fourth semester award must complete at least 75 percent (9 credits or the equivalent) of a full-time load in order to receive a TAP award for the following semester. Students who are receiving a fifth through eighth payment must complete a full-time load (12 credits or the equivalent) in order to receive the next TAP payment. (Note: Students who have received four semesters of TAP awards as undergraduates must complete a minimum of 12 credits per semester in order to be eligible for the next TAP award.) Before withdrawing from any course, students should see a financial aid counselor in order to learn what effect the withdrawal will have on the next TAP award.

Rate of Progress

The Rate of Progress rules are in addition to the Program Pursuit rules. Students must follow both sets of rules in order to receive a TAP award each semester. Rate of Progress requires that a student earn (pass) a certain number of credits before receiving each TAP award. In addition, students must also maintain a certain grade point average (GPA).

There are academic standards that must be maintained for continued receipt of aid. At present, there are two sets of requirements, one for TAP (Tuition Assistance Program), and another for Title IV Aid, which includes Federal Pell, Federal Work Study, Federal Perkins Loan and Federal Direct Loans. The academic requirements for each award are as follows:

“C” Average Requirement
In addition, a student who has received four semesters of TAP payments must maintain a grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 or better. This requirement is in effect for each semester that a subsequent TAP payment is made.

Title IV Financial Aid Rules
To receive Title IV Federal Student Aid, an undergraduate student must meet at least the GPA required for good academic standing at the institution. The student must also:
1. Accumulate credits toward the degree greater than or equal to two-thirds the cumulative credits attempted at the institution
2. Not have attempted more than 150 percent of the credits required normally for the completion of the degree

Students will be measured against the satisfactory academic progress standard at the end of the spring term to determine eligibility for the receipt of Title IV student financial assistance for the upcoming year.

Financial Aid Waiver
Students who believe they are unable to meet the academic standards because of extraordinary extenuating circumstances, which can be documented, may request a waiver from the regulations in order to receive their next financial aid payment. Waivers are granted through the Financial Aid Waiver Committee. Information on how to submit a request to this committee is available in the Office of Student Financial Services.

Students on Academic Probation
Students with grade point averages that fall below the required minimum will be placed on academic probation. During this probationary period, students who make satisfactory academic progress will continue to maintain their academic standing with the College and their concurrent eligibility for federal financial aid. Students who are on probation for the subsequent year will not be eligible for federal financial aid.

Students with grade point averages below 2.0 who are readmitted to the College are not eligible to receive student loans until their GPA is again above 2.0. Students who have extenuating circumstances, which can be documented, may apply for a waiver from this regulation. Information on how to submit a request for a waiver is available in the Office of Student Financial Services.

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID REGULATIONS ON STUDENTS WHO WITHDRAW FROM ALL COURSES

If a student completely withdraws from school during a term, the school must calculate according to a specific formula the portion of the total scheduled financial assistance the student has earned and is therefore entitled to receive up to that point in time. If a student receives (or the College receives on the student’s behalf), more assistance than the student has earned, the unearned excess funds must be returned to the U.S. Department of Education. If, on the other hand, the student receives (or the College receives on the student’s behalf) less assistance than the student has earned, the student may be able to receive those additional funds.

The portion of the federal grants and loans a student is entitled to receive is calculated on a percentage basis by comparing the total number of days in the semester to the number of days completed before the student’s withdrawal. For example, if a student completes 30 percent of the semester, the student earns 30 percent of the assistance he/she was originally scheduled to receive. This means that 70 percent of the scheduled awards remain unearned and must be returned to the federal government. A student has to complete more than 60 percent of the semester, in order to earn all (100 percent) of the scheduled assistance. If a student withdraws (either officially or unofficially) before this point, the student may have to return any unearned federal monies that may have already been disbursed to the student.

The College shares responsibility with the student for any excess funds which must be returned. The College’s portion of the excess funds to be returned is equal to the lesser of
• the entire amount of the excess funds, or
• the student’s total tuition and fee charges multiplied by the percentage of the unearned funds.

If the College is not required to return all of the excess funds, the student must return the remaining amount. Any loan funds that are returned by the student must be paid according to the terms of the promissory note. If a student returns any grant funds, the law provides that the amount to be repaid is reduced by 50 percent. This means that a student only has to return half of any excess funds received.

Any amount a student returns is considered a federal grant overpayment. The student must either return that amount in full or make satisfactory arrangements with either the College or the Department of Education to repay the amount. These arrangements must be completed within 45 days of the date of the College’s notifying the student of overpayment. Any student failing to do so risks loss of eligibility for further federal financial assistance.
STUDENT LIFE

Student Body
John Jay's exemplary student body of 14,000 reflects the ethnic diversity of New York City itself. Of the nearly 3,000 freshmen admitted in 2006, 20 percent were born outside the United States. They came from places like the Dominican Republic and Trinidad…from Poland, Ukraine, Albania, and Uzbekistan…and from Sierra Leone and Liberia. Many grew up in homes where the first language spoken was Russian, Chinese, Polish or Spanish; more than half are the first in their families to pursue a college degree.

John Jay students are drawn primarily from New York City's five boroughs. But, John Jay also counts among its population the highest proportion of out-of-city students of any CUNY school. An in-house survey of our 2004 freshmen class found that 90 percent based their selection of John Jay on its reputation for excellence; 80 percent said John Jay was their first choice in colleges.

The College also serves as the most significant teaching and training center in the New York metropolitan area for the continuing education of members of the uniformed services and employees of government agencies responsible for criminal justice, fire safety and other public services.

Campus
John Jay's campus is located along the east and west sides of Tenth Avenue from 56th Street to 59th Street with Haaren Hall, North Hall and Westport as its focal points. These buildings house the classrooms, administrative offices, labs and other special venues of the College. Its fitness and recreational facilities include a cardiovascular fitness center, tennis court, outdoor running track and an NCAA-regulation swimming pool. Haaren Hall also houses the 611-seat Gerald W. Lynch Theater, a state-of-the-art space that provides an auditorium for college events as well as a stage for professional theatre companies.

Neighborhood
At John Jay, you are just a short walk from two of the world's most renowned centers for music and dance — Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center. This Westside neighborhood is dotted with dozens of cafes and coffee houses. On balmy spring days, Central Park beckons for anyone who wants to jog around the Reservoir or wander its shaded paths.

John Jay is also near the Time Warner Center, a 21st Century shopping and transportation hub where a MetroCard will take you downtown to Greenwich Village and the art galleries of Soho, uptown to the Museum of Natural History, the Cloisters and the Metropolitan Museum of Art, not to mention to Times Square, Broadway and even out to Coney Island's boardwalk.
STUDENT SERVICES

Counseling
212.237.8111
A complete range of counseling and referral services that include crisis intervention, psychological services, academic program planning and vocational counseling are available to all students. In addition, specialized services are provided by trained peer counselors for transfer and sophomore students. A vital component of counseling services is provided by the Women’s Center as well.

Children’s Center
212.237.8310
The Children’s Center of John Jay College enrolls children between the ages of six months and four years. The Center is open Monday through Thursday, 8:00 AM to 6:30 PM during the fall and spring semesters. (Hours are subject to change.) A summer program with shorter hours is also available.

The center offers an educational program in a warm, caring and comfortable environment. Children of undergraduate students have priority; graduate students and non-matriculated students are accommodated on a space-available basis. There is a modest fee per child per semester. Some fee subsidies are available and awarded based on family income. More information and applications may be obtained at the Children’s Center.

Health Services
212.237.8052
The Health Center is staffed by a registered nurse/director who assesses students in need of medical attention. As appropriate, referrals are made to collaborating hospitals, low cost medical centers or clinics. Students can utilize the center for health assessments, health education and health counseling, routine first aid care, on-site emergency care, common over-the-counter medication and blood pressure readings. In addition, students can obtain information on immunization and a wide range of other health issues as well as health insurance information.

In collaboration with local community organizations, the Student Health Center offers free rapid HIV testing and the Nicotine Transdermal System PATCH for those seeking to stop smoking. The center also sponsors and coordinates a variety of health education activities including a wellness event, semi-annual blood drives and an AIDS awareness day.

Medical Emergencies
College Health Center
Monday - Friday, 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM
212.237.8888
In case of a medical emergency, the Security Office should be notified. An ambulance from Fast Care service of St. Luke’s-Roosevelt Hospital will be provided. Students should seek medical attention in the event of injury during travel to or from the College, or during an off-campus activity sponsored and supervised by the College. The incident should then be reported to the College Student Health Center. The Student Health Center Director will assist students in the completion of appropriate accident insurance claim forms, including an explanation of the limitations of the insurance policy.

Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities
212.237.8031
John Jay College is committed to making its facilities and academic programs accessible to individuals with disabilities. In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the College provides equal and readily accessible physical facilities and support services to help individuals with disabilities realize their academic potential.

The Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, a unit of the Division of Student Development, offers individual counseling, support groups, priority registration, orientation, special testing accommodations, tutoring, readers, note takers, interpreters, special adaptive equipment and other support services for students with disabilities.

Office of Campus Safety and Security
Emergency Services Hot Line, 212.237.8888
The Office of Campus Safety and Security responds to emergencies and security and safety problems. With the exception of the BMW Building, the security desks are staffed at all times. The telephone numbers for the security desks are:

- Haaren Hall (899 Tenth Avenue): 212.237.8266
- North Hall (445 W. 59th Street): 212.237.8740
- BMW Building (555 W. 57th Street, 6th Fl.): 212.237.8700
- Westport Building (500 W. 56th Street): 212.484.1120
Emergency Closing of the College
212.237.8000
www.jjay.cuny.edu

Notice of college closings due to serious snowstorms or other emergencies are posted on the John Jay College website.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Student Activities Corporation
The John Jay College Student Activities Corporation Board of Directors is composed of six students, three faculty members, three administrators, and a chairperson appointed by the President of the College. The Corporation is responsible for the management and supervision of the student activity fee.

Student Council
The Student Council is composed of 24 members: an Executive Board consisting of a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, and four representatives each from the graduate, senior, junior, sophomore and freshman classes. Six Council members also serve on the Student Activities Corporation. The Student Council is responsible for disbursing the Council funds and club funds derived from the Student Activity Fee, as well as the additional funds allocated to Media/Yearbook from the budget of the Student Activities Corporation.

In the spring semester, Student Council elections and swearing in of officers for the fall semester take place. The Student Council election is supervised by the Student Government’s Judicial Board. This Board, which consists of five student members, is appointed by the Student Council and the Board of Directors of the Student Activities Corporation. In addition to conducting elections, the Judicial Board certifies student organizations and hears charges of impeachment against Student Council officials.

OFFICE OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES AND CAMPUS LIFE
212.237.8698

Student activities at the College are supported by the income provided by the Student Activity Fee and are coordinated through the Office of Student Activities and Campus Life.

Programming
The Student Activities Office assists campus groups in planning, developing and organizing extracurricular activities. The programs enrich the total college experience by enabling students to meet people of diverse backgrounds and interests. Through their participation, students are encouraged to develop talents and leadership abilities while serving the College and the community.

The Student Activities Office organizes free film series, parties, day trips, fairs and workshops. It coordinates lectures, social occasions and cultural presentations for student organizations and provides information about campus meetings and events.

Student Clubs
212.237.8698

More than 40 student organizations offer educational, social and recreational opportunities through a variety of meetings, films, concerts and lectures.

Student organizations at the College include:

- Academic clubs

- Cultural clubs
  - African Students Association, Caribbean Club, Dominican Students Association, Haitian Students Society, Irish Students Association, Latino Diversity Club, Organization of Black Students

- Media clubs
  - John Jay Times, Theatrical Players, Big Apple Broadcasting Society (WJJC)

- Social clubs
Eligibility criteria for clubs and their governance are set forth in Section 9 of the Charter of the Student Government, available at www.jjay.cuny.edu under “Student Government.”

Additional information and a complete listing of all student clubs are available in the Office of Student Activities and Campus Life.

ATHLETICS, RECREATION AND INTRAMURALS

Through the Department of Physical Education and Athletics, John Jay College offers undergraduate courses in physical fitness, health education, stress management and several courses addressing the physical fitness needs of law enforcement and public service students. The department also promotes programs in varsity athletics, recreation and intramurals, and maintains a fully equipped cardiovascular fitness center and an NCAA-regulation swimming pool.

Athletics Program
212.237.8395

Under the nickname “Bloodhounds,” 12 intercollegiate teams currently represent John Jay College. Fall sports include soccer, women’s volleyball, men’s and women’s cross country and women’s tennis. Men’s and women’s varsity basketball, co-ed rifle and women’s swimming comprise the winter sports. In the spring, sports include baseball, softball and men’s tennis. Special clubs are devoted to karate and judo.

The College is a Division III member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, adheres to all its rules, and is dedicated to the principles of fair play in athletic competition and equitable treatment of men and women. Bloodhound teams compete in the City University of New York Athletic Conference (CUNYAC), the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) and the Mid-Atlantic Rifle Conference.

The annual athletics report on intercollegiate participation and financial support required by the Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act of 1994 is available in the Department of Physical Education and Athletics.

Full-time undergraduate and graduate students wishing to participate in intercollegiate athletics must be in good academic standing as defined by the College for further information call the athletics department.

Recreation and Intramural Program
212.237.8399

The recreation and intramural activities provided by the Department of Physical Education and Athletics are an integral part of life at the College and are supported by student activity fees. The gymnasium, pool, racquetball court, jogging track and outdoor tennis court are open many hours each week for free play. These facilities are also used for a variety of intramural competitions as well as bodybuilding, power lifting and triathlon contests.

The recreation and intramural programs are open to all members of the John Jay College student body upon presentation of a valid college ID card. Students may call the department for additional information, events schedules and court reservations or at www.jjay.cuny.edu.

Cardiovascular Fitness Center
212.237.8633

Students who wish to improve their physical fitness can avail themselves of the many programs that the cardiovascular fitness center offers. Interested students follow an individually prescribed exercise program that is evaluated periodically. Medical clearance is required for participation. All forms and further information may be obtained from the cardiovascular fitness center or online at www.jjay.cuny.edu.

The Department of Physical Education and Athletics strongly advises all students, faculty and staff interested in athletics, recreation, intramurals, or physical education courses to have a medical checkup prior to participation. Medical clearance is required for participation in intercollegiate athletics and the Cardiovascular Fitness Center.
THEATER AND THE ARTS

Arts
212.237.8325/8698

The College offers a rich and diversified program in music and the visual arts. Concerts featuring renowned performers, exhibitions of paintings, drawings, sculpture, photography and mixed media shown in the College galleries are among the varied presentations.

In its afternoon concert series the College has presented a diverse array of internationally known soloists, many of whom appear regularly with the Lincoln Center Chamber Music Society, the New York Philharmonic Orchestra and the New York City Opera. Fine chamber music ensembles, such as the Annapolis Brass Quintet, the Western Wind Vocal Ensemble and the Apollo Chamber Orchestra, are often major features of the concert series. Musical artists have included the late jazz innovators Teddy Wilson and Zoot Sims, the Cleftones of early Rock fame, gospel singer Pearl Williams-Jones and operatic performer Willard White.

The John Jay Gallery is committed to presenting bodies of work by artists from a wide array of cultural traditions. Some are emerging artists; others established. Shows are usually solo exhibitions one month in length. Now open 12 months of the year, the Gallery devotes December and May to exhibitions by the College’s undergraduate studio art students. Among the artists who have presented in the John Jay Gallery are: Muhsana Ali, Cindy Ho, Anna Kuo, Despo Magoni, Richard K. Miller, Delilah Montoya, Annie Nash, Susan Newmark, Armand Ortiz, Sophie Rivera, Miriam Romais, Tara Sabharwal, Edwine Seymour, Chie Shiamura and Mary Ting.

For information on concerts and exhibitions, students may contact the Department of Art, Music and Philosophy and the Office of Student Activities and Campus Life.

Theatre
212.237.8363

John Jay College offers its students a variety of opportunities for participation in theatre and play production, as well as access to nearby Lincoln Center and Broadway productions.

A major departmental production is mounted each semester in the Gerald W. Lynch Theater, a state-of-the-art facility located in Haaren Hall. In addition to stage productions, performances of work often conceived and performed by students and hosted by one or more clubs or college programs are held each semester in alternative spaces at the College.

The Department of Speech, Theatre and Media Studies presents a vibrant theatre program that dates back to the earliest days of the College. Many productions involve criminal justice themes and have included major plays in the repertoire of world drama ranging from Greek tragedy to plays by contemporary playwrights: Oedipus Rex, The Merchant of Venice, Marat Sade, The Bald Soprano, Short Eyes, Equus, For Colored Girls . . . and Crimes of the Heart. Kafka’s The Trial and Sidney Kingsley’s Detective Story were recognized by major New York critics, while more recently, The Crucible and Macbeth drew large, enthusiastic crowds and glowing accolades from students and community alike. Musicals like Godspell, Brecht’s Happy End, and Once Upon This Island have offered John Jay’s multi-talented students the opportunity to showcase their acting skills, as well as their instrumental and vocal skills. Reflecting the interdisciplinary nature of the College, departmental productions generally involve close collaboration with student clubs, the John Jay Players (the student theatrical group) and Women’s Studies.

In recent years, departmental productions have been featured in the Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival. Main stage productions have won praise from Festival adjudicators; student actors and technicians have been invited to perform and attend workshops at regional Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festivals.

For information on performances, students may contact the Department of Speech, Theatre and Media Studies.

HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE

A recognized international leader in educating for justice, John Jay offers a rich liberal arts and professional studies curriculum to a diverse student body. Since its establishment in 1964, John Jay, a senior college of The City University of New York, has evolved from a “cop college” into a premiere educational institution where criminal justice is taught in all its modern complexities and public service is valued as the noble endeavor that it is.

The strength, reputation and vitality of the College are embodied in the commitment to academic excellence of the faculty, many of whom are recognized experts in their fields. They conduct critical research in areas such as violent behavior, DNA analysis, drug abuse trends, child aggression, sexual abuse, eyewitness reliability, criminal law, police methods and crime reduction strategy.

Its motivated students have the acuity, moral commitment and professional competence to confront the challenges of crime, justice and public safety in a free society.

Accreditation

John Jay College is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and is a member of the Council of Graduate Schools in the United States. The College is an institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration (NASPAA). Additionally, John Jay programs are registered by the New York State Education Department.

THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

The City University of New York is the nation’s largest urban public university: eleven senior colleges, six community colleges, the CUNY Honors College, the Graduate School and University Center, the Graduate School of Journalism, the Law School and the Sophie Davis School of Biomedical Education. The University serves more than 450,000 degree-credit students and continuing and professional education students. College Now, the University’s academic enrichment program for 32,500 high school students, is offered at CUNY campuses and more than 200 high schools throughout the five boroughs of the City of New York. In 2006, the University launched its first online baccalaureate degree through the School of Professional Studies and a new Teacher Academy offering free tuition for highly motivated mathematics and science majors who seek teaching careers in the city’s public schools.

The University dates from 1847, when the needs of the city for free education were first met by the establishment of the Free Academy — now City College — as the result of a public referendum. In 1961, though state legislation, the seven municipal colleges then administered by the Board of Higher Education became The City University of New York, governed by a Board of Trustees.
GRADUATE AND UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

Graduate Programs
The graduate program at John Jay College of Criminal Justice offers six master’s degree programs and two doctoral programs in criminal justice and forensic psychology that are under the jurisdiction of the Graduate School of The City University of New York.

In addition to its majors, the College offers a variety of programs that permit students to concentrate on particular aspects of a field of study, among which are African-American Studies, Addiction Studies, Dispute Resolution, Puerto Rican/Latin American Studies, and Women’s and Gender Studies. An extensive internship program combines classroom instruction with supervised practical experience in government agencies and private organizations.

These offerings are described in detail in this undergraduate bulletin. For additional information, please contact the Office of the Dean for Undergraduate Studies at 212-237-8960.
Office of Continuing and Professional Studies
The Office of Continuing and Professional Studies is responsible for the design and implementation of innovative seminars, workshops and training programs that meet the changing education and professional needs of members of the criminal justice, law enforcement, public safety and related communities.

Professionals enroll in John Jay’s programs to acquire new skills and expand their knowledge, both personally and professionally. All programs are taught by outstanding faculty in state-of-the-art facilities on John Jay’s campus.

Specialized training programs are offered through the
- Criminal Justice Center
- Prisoner Reentry Institute
- Fire Science Institute
- Special Programs
- Center for Modern Forensic Practice
- Center on Media, Crime and Justice
- John Jay Leadership Academy
- New York/New Jersey Regional Community Policing Institute

For further information, call the Office of Continuing and Professional Studies at 212-237-8655.

Centers and Institutes
A passion for learning and understanding is what defines the centers and institutes at John Jay College of Criminal Justice. Each is committed to addressing the ongoing challenges that face the criminal justice community in their efforts to insure public safety.

The John Jay Centers and Institutes include:

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF PUBLIC ORDER PURSUANT TO ARTICLE 129A OF THE EDUCATION LAW

The tradition of the University as a sanctuary of academic freedom and center of informed discussion is an honored one, to be guarded vigilantly. The basic significance of that sanctuary lies in the protection of intellectual freedom: the rights of professors to teach, of scholars to engage in the advancement of knowledge, of students to learn and to express their views free from external pressures or interference. These freedoms can flourish only in an atmosphere of mutual respect, civility, and trust among teachers and students, only when members of the University community are willing to accept self-restraint and reciprocity as the conditions upon which they share in its intellectual autonomy.

Academic freedom and the sanctuary of the University campus extend to all who share these aims and responsibilities. They cannot be invoked by those who would subordinate intellectual freedom to political ends, or who violate the norms of conduct established to protect that freedom. Against such offenders the University has the right, and indeed the obligation, to defend itself. We accordingly announce the following rules and regulations to be in effect at each of our colleges, which are to be administered in accordance with the requirements of due process as provided in Bylaws of The Board of Trustees.

With respect to enforcement of these rules and regulations, we note that the Bylaws of the Board provide that,

THE PRESIDENT, with respect to his educational unit, shall:

a. Have the affirmative responsibility of conserving and enhancing the educational standards of the college and schools under his jurisdiction;
b. Be the adviser and executive agent of the Board and of his respective College Committee and as such shall have the immediate supervision with full discretionary power in carrying into effect the Bylaws, resolutions, and policies of the Board, the lawful resolutions of the several faculties;
c. Exercise general superintendence over the concerns, officers, employees, and students of his or her educational unit.

Rules
1. A member of the academic community shall not intentionally obstruct and/or forcibly prevent others from the exercise of their rights.

Nor shall he interfere with the institution’s educational processes or facilities, or the rights of those who wish to avail themselves of any of the institution’s instructional, personal, administrative, recreational and community services.

2. Individuals are liable for failure to comply with lawful directions issued by representatives of the University/college when they are acting in their official capacities. Members of the academic community are required to show their identification cards when requested to do so by an official of the college.

3. Unauthorized occupancy of University/college facilities or blocking access to or from such areas is prohibited. Permission from appropriate college authorities must be obtained for removal, relocation and use of University/college equipment and/or supplies.

4. Theft from or damage to University/college premises or property, or theft or damage to University/college premises or property or theft or damage to property of any person on University/college premises is prohibited.

5. Each member of the academic community, or an invited guest has the right to advocate his position without having to fear abuse — physical, verbal, or otherwise — from others supporting conflicting points of view. Members of the academic community and other persons on the college grounds shall not use language or take actions reasonably likely to provoke or encourage physical violence by demonstrators, those demonstrated against, or spectators.

6. Action may be taken against any and all persons who have no legitimate reason for their presence on any campus within the University/college, or whose presence on any such campus obstructs and/or forcibly prevents others from the exercise of their rights, or interferes with the institution’s educational processes or facilities, or the rights of those who wish to avail themselves of any of the institution’s instructional, personal, administrative, recreational and community services.

7. Disorderly or indecent conduct on University/college-owned or controlled property is prohibited.

8. No individual shall have in his possession a rifle, shotgun, or firearm or knowingly have in his possession any other dangerous instruments or material that can be used to inflict bodily harm on an individual or damage upon a building or the grounds of the University/college without written authorization of such educational institution. Nor shall any individual have in his or her possession any other instrument or material, which can be used and is intended to inflict bodily harm on an individual or damage upon a building or the grounds of the University/college.
9. Any action or situation, which recklessly or intentionally endangers mental or physical health or involves the forced consumption of liquor or drugs for the purpose of initiation into or affiliation with any organization is prohibited.

10. The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of illegal drugs or other controlled substances by University students or employees on University/college premises, or as part of any University/college activities is prohibited. Employees of the University must also notify the College Personnel Director of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace not later than five (5) days after such conviction.

11. The unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol by students or employees on University/college premises or as part of any University/college activities is prohibited.

II. Penalties

1. Any student engaging in any manner of conduct prohibited under substantive Rules 1 to 11 shall be subject to the following range of sanctions as hereafter defined below: admonition, warning, censure, disciplinary probation, restitution, suspension, expulsion, ejection and/or arrest by the civil authorities.

2. Any tenured or non-tenured faculty member or classified or other member of the instructional or member of the classified staff engaging in any manner in conduct prohibited under substantive Rules 1 to 11 shall be subject to the following range of penalties: warning, censure, restitution, suspension, expulsion, ejection and/or arrest by the civil authorities.

3. Any visitor, licensee, or invitee engaging in any manner in conduct prohibited under substantive Rules 1 to 11 shall be subject to ejection and/or arrest by the civil authorities.

4. Any organization, which authorizes the conduct prohibited under substantive Rules 1 to 11 shall have its permission to operate on campus rescinded. Penalties 1 to 4 shall be in addition to any other penalty provided by law or by The City University Trustees.

Sanctions Defined

A. Admonition. An oral statement to the offender that he has violated University rules.

B. Warning. Notice to the offender, orally or in writing, that continuation or repetition of the wrongful conduct, within a period of time stated in the warning, may cause far more severe disciplinary action.

C. Censure. Written reprimand for violation of specified regulation, including the possibility of more severe disciplinary sanction in the event of conviction for the violation of any University regulation within a period stated in the letter of reprimand.

D. Disciplinary Probation. Exclusion from participation in privileges or extra-curricular University activities as set forth in the notice of disciplinary probation for a specified period of time.

E. Restitution. Reimbursement for damage to or misappropriation of property. Reimbursement may take the form of appropriate service to repair or otherwise compensate for damages.

F. Suspension. Exclusion from classes and other privileges as set forth in the notice of suspension for a definite period of time.

G. Expulsion. Termination of student status for an indefinite period. The conditions of readmission, if any is permitted, shall be stated in the order of expulsion.

H. Complaint to Civil Authorities.

I. Ejection.

NEW YORK STATE EDUCATION LAW
Article 5 Section 224—a

Students unable because of religious beliefs to attend classes on certain days:

1. No person shall be expelled or be refused admission as a student to an institution of higher education for the reason that he or she is unable, because of his or her religious beliefs, to register or attend classes or to participate in any examination, study or work requirements on a particular day or days.

2. Any student in an institution of higher education who is unable, because of his or her religious beliefs, to attend classes on a particular day or days shall, because of such absence on the particular day or days, be excused from any examination or any study or work requirements.

3. It shall be the responsibility of the faculty and of the administrative officials of each institution of higher education to make available to each student who is absent from school, because of his or her religious beliefs, an equivalent opportunity to register for classes or make up any examination, study or work requirements which he or she may have missed because of such absence on any particular day or days. No fees of any kind shall be charged by the institution for making available to the said student such equivalent opportunity.

4. If registration, classes, examinations, study or work requirements are held on Friday after four o'clock post meridian or on Saturday, similar or makeup classes, examinations, study or work requirements shall be made available on other days, where it is possible and practicable to do so. No special fees shall be charged to the student for these classes, examinations, study or work requirements held on other days.

5. In effectuating the provisions of this section, it shall be the duty of the faculty and of the administrative officials of each institution of higher education to exercise the fullest measure of good faith. No adverse or prejudicial effects shall result to any student because of his or her availing himself or herself of the provisions of this section.

6. Any student who is aggrieved by the alleged failure of any faculty or administrative officials to comply in good faith with the provisions of this section, shall be entitled to maintain an action or proceeding in the supreme court of the county in which such institution of higher education is located for the enforcement of his or her rights under this section.

6-A. It shall be the responsibility of the administrative officials of each institution of higher education to give written notice to students of their rights under this section, informing them that each student who is absent from school, because of his or her religious beliefs, must be given an equivalent opportunity to register for classes or make up any examination, study or work requirements, which he or she may have missed because of such absence on any particular day or days. No fees of any kind shall be charged by the institution for making available to such student such equivalent opportunity.

7. As used in this section, the term “institution of higher education” shall mean any institution of higher education, recognized and approved by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, which provides a course of study leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree or diploma. Such term shall not include any institution, which is operated, supervised or controlled by a church or by a religious or denominational organization whose educational programs are principally designed for the purpose of training ministers or other religious functionaries or for the purpose of propagating religious doctrines. As used in this section, the term “religious belief” shall mean beliefs associated with any corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes, which is not disqualified for tax exemption under section 505 of the United States Code.

RECORDS POLICY

Notification of Student Rights Concerning Education Records and Directory Information under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. See Section 6 below on your rights to prevent the disclosure of directory information. The FERPA rights of students are:

1) The right to inspect and review your education records. Students should submit to the registrar, dean, head of the academic department, or other appropriate official, written requests that identify the records they wish to inspect. If the records are not maintained by the college official to whom the request was submitted, that official should advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

All requests shall be granted or denied in writing within 45 days of receipt. If the request is granted, you will be notified of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the request is denied or not responded to within 45 days, you may appeal to the college’s FERPA appeals officer. Additional information regarding the appeal procedures will be provided to you if a request is denied.

2) The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading. You may ask the college to amend a record that you believe is inaccurate or misleading. You should write to the college official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record you want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading.

If the college decides not to amend the record as requested by you, the college will notify you of the decision and advise you of your right to a hearing before the college’s FERPA appeals officer regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to you when notified of your right to a hearing.

3) The right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in your education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

One exception, which permits disclosure without consent, is disclosure to college officials with legitimate educational interests. A college official is a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position; a person or company with whom the university has contracted; a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an educational committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another college official in performing his or her tasks.

A college official has a legitimate educational interest if access is reasonably necessary in order to perform his/her instructional research, administrative or other duties and responsibilities. Upon request, the college discloses education records without consent to officials of another college or school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

4) You may appeal the alleged denial of FERPA rights to the:

   General Counsel and Vice Chancellor for Legal Affairs
   The City University of New York
   535 East 80th Street
   New York, NY 10021

5) The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the college to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

   The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA are:

   Family Policy Compliance Office
   U.S. Department of Education
   600 Independence Avenue, SW
   Washington, D.C. 20202-4605.

6) The college will make the following “directory information” concerning current and former students available to those parties having a legitimate interest in the information: name, attendance dates (periods of enrollment), address, telephone number, date and place of birth, photograph, email address, full or part-time status, enrollment status (undergraduate, graduate, etc.), level of education (credits) completed, major field of study, degree enrolled for, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, height and weight of athletic team members, previous school attended, and degrees, honors, and awards received. By filing a form with the Registrar’s Office, you may request that any or all of this directory information not be released without your prior written consent. This form is available in the Registrar’s Office and may be filed, withdrawn or modified at any time.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION LAW NOTICE

Requests to inspect public records at the College should be made to the Records Access Officer Designee, Joan Antonicelli, 212-237-8881. Public records are available for inspection and copying by appointment only at a location to be designated. You have a right to appeal a denial of a request for access to records to the CUNY General Counsel and Vice Chancellor for Legal Affairs. Copies of the CUNY Procedures for Public Access to Public Records Pursuant to Article 6 of the Public Officers Law and the appeal form are available at the reference desk of the library and on the college website.

STATEMENT OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

John Jay College of Criminal Justice is an Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Institution. The College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, transgender, marital status, disability, genetic predisposition or carrier status, alienage or citizenship, military or veteran status, or status as victim of domestic violence in its student admissions, employment, access to programs, and administration of educational policies. Ms. Farris Forsythe is the College Affirmative Action Officer and Coordinator for Title IX, which prohibits sex discrimination in federally assisted education programs, and Coordinator for the Age Discrimination Act, which prohibits age discrimination in federally assisted education programs.

Ms. Forsythe is also the College Coordinator for the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability. Her telephone number is 212-237-8122.

DISCRIMINATION/HARASSMENT COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

John Jay College of Criminal Justice encourages prompt and equitable resolution of all complaints and grievances alleging discrimination. The College has adopted informal and formal procedures available to all members of the college community, who allege action(s) relating to discrimination on the basis of race/color, religion, national origin, disability, sex, sexual orientation, alienage, veteran, marital status, military status or age. The complaint procedure is initiated by filing a written complaint. Complaints should be addressed to:

Farris Forsythe
Affirmative Action Officer
445 West 59th Street
New York, New York 10019
212-237-8122

Informal Complaint Procedures

Individuals are encouraged to discuss and/or to report, any acts felt to be discriminatory in nature directly to the Affirmative Action Officer. Subsequent to the filing of a written complaint, all attempts will be made to resolve the issue informally within ten (10) working days, with the goal of reaching a solution satisfactory to both the complainant and the College.

Formal Complaint Procedures

Students and Employees

If the individual finds the informal resolution of his/her complaint unsatisfactory, his or her complaint shall be heard by a complaint panel appointed by the Vice President for Student Development. The panel shall consist of at least three members, two from the current Affirmative Action Committee and one student.

Complaints are initiated by filing a Discrimination Complaint form with the Affirmative Action Officer, within sixty (60) days of the alleged incident. The Affirmative Action Officer shall provide assistance in filing the complaint to any person who needs a reasonable accommodation to enable him/her to file the complaint. Individuals covered by collective bargaining units should contact their union representative immediately to file a formal grievance. If the complaint is not resolved informally, then within ten (10) working days after receipt of the Discrimination Complaint Form, the parties involved shall be notified of the date and place of a hearing. The hearing shall be conducted at John Jay College, and the date of the hearing shall not be less than ten (10), nor more than thirty (30) days after the Notice of Hearing is mailed.

The burden of proof shall be on the complainant to prove the claim of discrimination by a preponderance of the evidence. Once the panel has rendered its decision, the Affirmative Action Officer shall notify the Vice President for Student Development and the President of the College of the panel’s recommendations, which shall set forth the conclusion(s) reached by the panel, the reasons for the decision(s), and recommendation of any corrective action deemed necessary and appropriate.

The President and the Vice President shall review the panel’s findings, and shall have five (5) working days to amend any of the panel’s recommendations. Upon presidential approval, the Affirmative Action Officer shall send, in writing, notification of the panel’s decision and all actions to be taken with respect to the complaint. The Affirmative Action Officer shall maintain the files and records of all complaints leading to discrimination.

While the College cannot offer a promise of confidentiality, every effort will be made to conduct the review in a manner that is confidential as possible under the circumstances.

The complainant’s right to a prompt and equitable resolution of the complaint filed in accordance with this grievance procedure shall not be impaired by that person’s pursuit of other remedies available from city, state, or federal agencies. A complainant shall not be reprimanded nor discriminated against in any way for initiating a complaint or grievance.

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, “The Civil Rights Act” for the people with disabilities and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the College adheres to the law that states in part that: “No otherwise qualified individual ... shall, solely by reason of his/her disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal assistance.”

John Jay College offers programs and services to students and employees to ensure that individuals with disabilities are not excluded from academic programs, support services and any other activities sponsored by the College, solely on the basis of disability. Ms. Farris Forsythe is the College Section 504/ADA Compliance Officer. Her telephone number is 212-237-8122.

TITLE IX

In accordance with the requirements of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and the implementing federal regulations, John Jay College firmly supports a policy of non-discrimination on the basis of sex in the operation of its educational programs and activities. Federal requirements for non-discrimination on the basis of sex include the College’s personnel practices, as well as admission to the programs and activities offered at the College. Ms. Farris Forsythe serves as the Affirmative Action Officer and Title IX Coordinator. Under the direction of the President, she has responsibility for the monitoring of Title IX regulations and their implementation. Any questions regarding Title IX issues and/or complaints should be directed to Ms. Forsythe, 212-237-8122.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual harassment is illegal under federal, state, and city laws. Harassment of employees or students based upon sex is inconsistent and contrary to the University’s non-discrimination policy and will not be tolerated. John Jay College, a unit of The City University of New York, works to create a cooperative working and learning environment in which there is mutual respect for all students, faculty and staff. For additional information concerning policy and filing a complaint, contact Farris Forsythe, Affirmative Action Officer, at fforsyth@jjay.cuny.edu.

111. Severability

100. Legislative Declaration. It is essential to the maintenance of a democratic society that the public business be performed in an open and public manner and that the citizens of this state be fully aware of and able to observe the performance of public officials and attend and listen to the deliberations and decisions that go into the making of public policy. The people must be able to remain informed if they are to retain control over those who are their public servants. It is the only climate under which the commonwealth will prosper and enable the governmental process to operate for the benefit of those who created it.

101. Short Title. This article shall be known and may be cited as “Open Meetings Law.”

102. Definitions. As used in this article,
1. “Meeting” means the official convening of a public body for the purpose of conducting public business, including the use of videoconferencing for attendance and participation by members of the public body.
2. “Public body” means any entity, for which a quorum is required in order to conduct public business and which consists of two or more members, performing a governmental function for the state or for an agency or department thereof, or for a public corporation as defined in section 66 of the general construction law, or committee or subcommittee or other similar body of such public body.
3. “Executive session” means that portion of a meeting not open to the general public.

103. Open meetings and executive sessions.
1. Every meeting of a public body shall be open to the general public, except that an executive session of such body may be called and business transacted therein in accordance with section 105 of this article.
2. Public bodies shall make or cause to be made all reasonable efforts to ensure that meetings are held in facilities that permit barrier-free physical access to the physically handicapped, as defined in subdivision 5 of the section 50 of the public buildings law.
3. A public body that uses videoconferencing to conduct its meetings shall provide an opportunity to attend, listen and observe at any site at which a member participates.
104. Public notice.
1. Public notice of the time and place of a meeting scheduled at least one week prior thereto shall be given to the news media and shall be conspicuously posted in one or more designated public locations at least seventy-two hours before such meeting.
2. Public notice of the time and place of every other meeting shall be given, to the extent practicable, to the news media and shall be conspicuously posted in one or more designated public locations at a reasonable time prior thereto.
3. The public notice provided for by this section shall not be construed to require publication as a legal notice.
4. If videoconferencing is used to conduct a meeting, the public notice for the meeting shall inform the public that videoconferencing will be used, identify the locations for the meeting, and state that the public has the right to attend the meeting at any of the locations.

105. Conduct of executive sessions.
1. Upon a majority vote of its total membership, taken in an open meeting pursuant to a motion identifying the general area or areas of the subject or subjects to be considered, a public body may conduct an executive session for the below enumerated purposes only, provided, however, that no action by formal vote shall be taken to appropriate public moneys:
   a. matters, which will imperil the public safety if disclosed;
   b. any matter, which may disclose the identity of a law enforcement agent or informer;
   c. information relating to current or future investigation or prosecution of a criminal offense which would imperil effective law enforcement if disclosed;
   d. discussions regarding proposed, pending or current litigation;
   e. collective negotiations pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law;
   f. the medical, financial, credit or employment history of a particular person or corporation, or matters leading to the appointment, employment, promotion, demotion, discipline, suspension, dismissal or removal of a particular person or corporation;
   g. the preparation, grading or administration of examinations;
   h. the proposed acquisition, sale or lease of real property or the proposed acquisition of securities, or sale or exchange of securities held by such public body, but only when publicity would substantially affect the value thereof.
2. Attendance at an executive session shall be permitted to any member of the public body and any other persons authorized by the public body.

106. Minutes.
1. Minutes shall be taken at all open meetings of a public body, which shall consist of a record or summary of all motions, proposals, resolutions and any other matter formally voted upon and the vote thereon.
2. Minutes shall be taken at executive sessions of any action that is taken by formal vote, which shall consist of a record or summary of the final determination of such action, and the date and vote thereon; provided, however, that such summary need not include any matter, which is not required to be made public by the freedom of information law as added by article six of this chapter.
3. Minutes of meetings of all public bodies shall be available to the public in accordance with the provisions of the freedom of information law within two weeks from the date of such meeting except that minutes taken pursuant to subdivision two hereof shall be available to the public within one week from the date of the executive session.

107. Enforcement.
1. Any aggrieved person shall have standing to enforce the provisions of this article against a public body by the commencement of a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, and/or an action for declaratory judgment and injunctive relief. In any such action or proceeding, the court shall have the power, in its discretion, upon good cause shown, to declare any action or part thereof taken in violation of this article void in whole or in part. An unintentional failure to fully comply with the notice provisions required by this article shall not alone be grounds for invalidating any action taken at a meeting of a public body. The provisions of this article shall not affect the validity of the authorization, acquisition, execution or disposition of a bond issue or notes.
2. In any proceeding brought pursuant to this section, costs and reasonable attorney fees may be awarded by the court, in its discretion, to the successful party.
3. The statute of limitations in an article seventy-eight proceeding with respect to an action taken at executive session shall commence to run from the date the minutes of such executive session have been made available to the public.

108. Exemptions. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed as extending the provisions hereof to:
1. Judicial or quasi-judicial proceedings, except proceedings of the public service commission and zoning boards of appeals;
2. a. deliberations of political committees, conferences and caucuses.
   b. for purposes of this section, the deliberations of political committees, conferences and caucuses means a private meeting of members of the senate or assembly of the state of New York, or of the legislative body of a county, city, town or village, who are members or adherents of the same political party, without regard to (i) the subject matter under discussion, including discussions of public business, (ii) the majority or minority status of such political committees, conferences and caucuses or (iii) whether such political committees, conferences and caucuses invite staff or guests to participate in their deliberations;

3. any matter made confidential by federal or state law.

109. Committee on open government.
The committee on open government, created by paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section eighty-nine of this chapter, shall issue advisory opinions from time to time as, in its discretion, may be required to inform public bodies and persons of the interpretations of the provisions of the open meetings law.

110. Construction with other laws.
1. Any provision of a charter, administrative code, local law, ordinance, or rule or regulation affecting a public body, which is more restrictive with respect to public access than this article shall be deemed superseded hereby to the extent that such provision is more restrictive than this article.

2. Any provision of general, special or local law or charter, administrative code, ordinance, or rule or regulation less restrictive with respect to public access than this article shall not be deemed superseded hereby.

3. Notwithstanding any provision of this article to the contrary, a public body may adopt provisions less restrictive with respect to public access than this article.

111. Severability.
If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is adjudged invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction such judgment shall not affect or impair the validity of the other provisions of the article or the application thereof to other persons and circumstances. JOHN JAY COLLEGE POLICY ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Final Version with suggested changes relating to www.turnitin.com

A. Summary of the CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity
Academic Dishonesty is prohibited in The City University of New York and is punishable by penalties, including failing grades, suspension, and expulsion, as provided herein. The following text is excerpted from The CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity.

Definitions and Examples of Academic Dishonesty
Cheating is the unauthorized use or attempted use of material, information, notes, study aids, devices or communication during an academic exercise.
The following are some examples of cheating, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

• Copying from another student during an examination or allowing another to copy your work.
• Unauthorized collaboration on a take home assignment or examination.
• Using notes during a closed book examination.
• Taking an examination for another student, or asking or allowing another student to take an examination for you.
• Changing a graded exam and returning it for more credit.
• Submitting substantial portions of the same paper to more than one course without consulting with each instructor.
• Preparing answers or writing notes in a blue book (exam booklet) before an examination.
• Allowing others to research and write assigned papers or do assigned projects, including use of commercial term paper services.
• Giving assistance to acts of academic misconduct/ dishonesty.
• Fabricating data (all or in part).
• Submitting someone else’s work as your own.
• Unauthorized use during an examination of any electronic devices such as cell phones, palm pilots, computers or other technologies to retrieve or send information.

Plagiarism is the act of presenting another person’s ideas, research or writings as your own.
The following are some examples of plagiarism, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

• Copying another person’s actual words without the use of quotation marks and footnotes attributing the words to their source.
Presenting another person’s ideas or theories in your own words without acknowledging the source.

Using information that is not common knowledge without acknowledging the source.

Failing to acknowledge collaborators on homework and laboratory assignments.

Internet plagiarism includes submitting downloaded term papers or parts of term papers, paraphrasing or copying information from the Internet without citing the source, and “cutting & pasting” from various sources without proper attribution.

Obtaining Unfair Advantage is any activity that intentionally or unintentionally gives a student an unfair advantage in his/her academic work over another student.

The following are some examples of obtaining an unfair advantage, but by no means it is an exhaustive list:

- Stealing, reproducing, circulating or otherwise gaining advance access to examination materials.
- Depriving other students of access to library materials by stealing, destroying, defacing, or concealing them.
- Retaining, using or circulating examination materials, which clearly indicate that they should be returned at the end of the exam.
- Intentionally obstructing or interfering with another student’s work.

Falsification of Records and Official Documents.

The following are some examples of falsification, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Forging signatures of authorization. Falsifying information on an official academic record.
- Falsifying information on an official document such as a grade report, letter of permission, drop/add form, ID card or other college document.

2. Responsibility for Implementation

The primary academic governance committee for undergraduate implementation of the policy is the Committee on Standards. The primary academic governance committee for graduate implementation of the policy is the Committee on Graduate Studies. These committees act by initially developing these procedures and submitting them to the College Council for approval, and by proposing modifications to the procedures as may become necessary. The committees will also develop and the College Council will approve the associated documents and statements, such as statements in the College Bulletins.

This procedure also assigns or recognizes support responsibilities to the following academic and administrative offices:

- Maintenance of electronic plagiarism prevention services:
  - Director of Educational Technology
  - Academic Integrity Officer (AIO), Division of Student Development
- Faculty /Student Disciplinary Process:
  - Dean of Students, Division of Student Development
- Undergraduate Academic Sanction Appeals:
  - Academic Departments
- Graduate Academic Sanction Appeals: Committee on Graduate Studies
- Faculty Orientation: The Office of the Provost
- Student Orientation: The Dean of Students and the Dean of Graduate Studies

The committees should coordinate with academic and administrative units to ensure that the assigned responsibilities are carried out. The College will establish and maintain membership in the Center for Academic Integrity. Liaisons to the Center shall be designated from the membership of the Standards Committee and the Committee on Graduate Studies.

3. Informal Resolution by the Faculty Member

When a faculty member suspects or determines that a student has committed a violation of the CUNY and/or the College Academic Integrity Policy, the faculty member shall review with the student the facts and circumstances of the suspected violation whenever possible. The faculty member and the student may arrive at an informal resolution appropriate to the facts and circumstances.

4. Faculty Report of Alleged Violation of Academic Integrity Policies

The Faculty Report of Alleged Violation of Academic Integrity Policies is a form to be completed by a faculty member. The form shall be completed when the faculty member suspects that a violation of academic integrity policy has taken place that warrants formal intervention. The filing of the form is at the discretion of the faculty member, except that in all cases of major violations, the faculty member is strongly urged to file the form. The form is submitted to the Academic Integrity Officer (AIO). Upon receipt of the form, the AIO sends a copy of the form to the Registrar, so that the Registrar can enter a PEN grade, as explained below:

- sends a copy to the student by mail and by official college email, along with a written explanation of the student’s opportunities to appeal the allegation;
- files the report in a confidential academic integrity file;
- reviews the AIO’s records of such forms for prior instances of academic integrity violations by the student;
- sends a receipt to the faculty member; and informs the faculty member if the AIO’s records include reports of prior instances;
- makes any records of prior violations available for review by the faculty member at the office of the AIO; and
- resolves PEN grades, when not otherwise resolved though regular adjudication and appeal processes by the deadline applicable for IN grades, by contacting the faculty member who shall determine the final grade, and by noting the Registrar of the faculty member’s determination.

If either the grade appeals process or the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that no violation occurred, the Academic Integrity Official shall remove and destroy all material relating to that incident from the student’s confidential academic integrity file.

A version of this form is available for online completion and submission.

The AIO will prepare an annual report, distributed to the College Council, Committee on Academic Standards, Committee on Graduate Studies and the Department Chairs. The report shall include statistics on numbers of cases and their dispositions.

5. PEN (Pending) Grade

The PEN grade shall be assigned by the faculty member when there is an unresolved integrity issue for a student in the faculty member’s course. A PEN grade is defined as follows:

The PEN grade is recorded when a faculty member suspects or determines that an academic integrity violation has taken place that warrants formal intervention. The grade is recorded by the Registrar based on receipt, from the AIO, of a Faculty Report of Alleged Violation of Academic Integrity Policies. The PEN grade is recorded, based on the report, under four circumstances.

- The faculty member suspects a violation, but the assessment and faculty/student consultation is not complete. The effect of the PEN grade is to bar withdrawal from the course pending resolution of the suspected violation.
- The faculty member and the student agree on a resolution of the situation, and the faculty member elects to invoke the PEN grade to preserve the agreement by barring withdrawal from the course.
- The faculty member finds that a violation has occurred and the faculty member imposes an academic sanction, and the student appeals the sanction.
- The faculty member suspects an integrity violation and decides to refer the case to the Student Discipline process, and the case is pending before that process.

A PEN grade is removed or changed when the applicable consultation, appeal, and/or adjudication processes are complete. When a PEN grade is not otherwise resolved though regular adjudication and appeal processes by the deadline applicable for IN grades, the AIO contacts the faculty member who shall determine the final grade, and then the AIO notifies the Registrar of the faculty member’s determination.

When a faculty member suspects or determines that an academic integrity violation has taken place that warrants formal intervention, the faculty member shall file the designated form with the Academic Integrity Official. Upon receipt of the faculty member’s submission, the Official shall notify the Registrar, so that the Registrar can file a PEN grade to prevent withdrawal from the course by a student seeking to evade responsibility for the alleged violation. In the event that the alleged violation is withdrawn in the student’s favor, the student will have the right to withdraw based on the time that the violation form was filed.

6. Electronic Plagiarism Prevention

The College has contracted with www.turnitin.com for electronic plagiarism prevention services. The following is the College’s official policy with respect to this service.

John Jay College of Criminal Justice is committed to the fundamental values of preserving academic integrity as defined in CUNY and John Jay College policies. John Jay College has contracted with turnitin.com, a plagiarism prevention system that uses proprietary search technology to check assignments against Internet resources, proprietary databases, and previously submitted student assignments. Faculty members reserve the right to use this and other electronic means to detect and help prevent plagiarism. By registering for courses offered by the College, students consent that all assignments are subject to submission for textual similarity review to www.turnitin.com. Assignments submitted to www.turnitin.com may be included in www.turnitin.com’s restricted access database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism. The faculty member may require students to submit their assignments electronically to www.turnitin.com, or the faculty member may submit all or some student assignments to www.turnitin.com. The terms that apply to the College’s use of the www.turnitin.com service are further described on the www.turnitin.com website.

Faculty members are authorized to use this service, and the following procedures apply:

- The Director of Educational Technology is designated as the administrator of the www.turnitin.com service for the College.
- Faculty members must apply for accounts through the Director and obtain the College’s Turnitin account ID and join password from the Director.
- The College’s Turnitin account ID and join password may not be further disclosed or distributed without the written permission of the Director. Should the College’s Turnitin Account ID or join password be inadvertently disclosed, the Director must be notified.
- Faculty members must notify students, in their course syllabi, how written assignments may be subjected to review by www.turnitin.com. The course syllabus should address the following points:
  - Whether the faculty member requires students to submit written assignments directly to www.turnitin.com, and/or whether the faculty member may submit all or some written assignments to www.turnitin.com.
  - The faculty member’s decisions relating to other Turnitin options at the faculty member’s discretion, such as the opportunity to submit papers to Turnitin for reporting in advance of the final assignment deadline.
  - Whether students must be prepared to submit to www.turnitin.com or to the faculty member electronic file versions of their written assignments (Word, Wordperfect, RTF, PDF, or HTML format) in addition to any paper version that may be required to be turned in to the faculty member.
  - The faculty member’s policy for the course with respect to use of the student’s original written material that has been or is being used for written assignments in other courses — such as the submission of a paper or report in multiple courses that contain the same or substantially the same text.

If a faculty member suspects plagiarism based on a www.turnitin.com originality report, and the faculty member intends to base a grading decision substantially on the report or file disciplinary charges based on report, the faculty member will provide the student with access to the www.turnitin.com report if the student does not already have such access.

7. Notice

The College will publish the CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity, and related appropriate College policies, procedures and forms in the following documents:

- Undergraduate Bulletin, Graduate Bulletin, Student Handbook,
- Faculty Handbook, Orientation Packet for New Full-time Faculty,
- Orientation Packet for New Adjunct Faculty

In addition, the College will maintain a web page that provides the policy summary as well as additional information about student, faculty and administrative responsibilities under the procedure, along with associated forms and documents.

All such notices and associated forms and procedures shall be approved in advance of posting or publication by the undergraduate Committee on Academic Standards and the Committee on Graduate Studies.

C. Procedure for Imposition of Sanctions for Violations

The following procedure is based on the CUNY procedure, adapted to John Jay College based on specific assignments of responsibility to academic and administrative units in this procedure.

1. Introduction

These procedures provide for alternative approaches depending on the severity of the sanction(s) being sought. If the instructor desires solely an “academic” sanction, that is, a grade reduction, less process is due than if a “disciplinary” sanction, such as suspension or expulsion, is sought.

A faculty member who suspects that a student has committed a violation of the CUNY and/or the College Academic Integrity Policy shall review with the student the facts and circumstances of the suspected violation whenever possible. The decision whether to seek an academic sanction only, rather than a disciplinary sanction or both types of sanctions, will rest with the faculty member in the first instance. The College retains the right under extreme or unusual circumstances to bring disciplinary charges against the student, even though neither the student nor the faculty member invoked the process.
Among the factors the College should consider in determining whether to seek a disciplinary sanction are whether the student has committed one or more prior violations of the Academic Integrity Policy and mitigating circumstances, if any.

Every instance of suspected violation should be reported to the Academic Integrity Official on a form provided by the College. Among other things, this reporting will allow the College to determine whether it wishes to seek a disciplinary sanction even where the instructor may not wish to do so.

When the form is submitted, the AIO will provide a copy to the student, along with an explanation of the student’s opportunity to provide a written explanation.

2. Procedures In Cases Where The Instructor Seeks An Academic Sanction Only

Student Accepts Guilt And Does Not Contest The Academic Sanction: If the faculty member wishes to seek only an academic sanction (i.e., a reduced grade¹ only), and the student does not contest either his/her guilt or the particular reduced grade the faculty member has chosen, then the student shall be given the reduced grade, unless the College decides to seek a disciplinary sanction. The reduced grade may apply to the particular assignment as to which the violation occurred or to the course grade, at the faculty member’s discretion.

Student Denies Guilt And/or Contests The Academic Sanction: If the student denies guilt or contests the particular grade awarded by the faculty member, then the matter shall be handled using the College’s grade appeals process, including departmental grading committees for undergraduate courses and the Graduate Studies Committee for graduate courses. In either case, the process must, at a minimum, provide the student with an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence.

When a faculty member determines that an academic integrity violation has taken place that warrants formal intervention, the faculty member shall complete the “Faculty Report of Alleged Violation of Academic Integrity Policies” (See 3.b above.) and submit the form to the Academic Integrity Officer, who sends a copy to the student by mail and by official college email, along with a written explanation of the student’s opportunities to appeal the allegation. If the form is submitted before the last four weeks of the semester, the student may appeal the factual determination (as distinct from any sanction) through the applicable grade appeal process. The departmental or Graduate Studies Committee shall resolve with appeal within 30 days. In the event that the factual determination is sustained or not appealed, the student also may appeal the academic sanction after the course is completed, through the normal grade appeal process.

Footnote 1. A reduced grade can be an “F,” a “D-,” or another grade that is lower than the grade that would have been given but for the violation.

3. Procedures In Cases Where A Disciplinary Sanction Is Sought

If a faculty member suspects a violation and seeks a disciplinary sanction, the faculty member shall refer the matter to the College’s Academic Integrity Official using the Faculty Report form, as described in the third Recommendation for Promoting Academic Integrity above, to be adjudicated by the College’s Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee under Article 15 of the CUNY Bylaws. As provided for therein, the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee may, among other things, investigate, conciliate, or hear evidence on cases in which disciplinary charges² are brought. Under certain circumstances, college officials other than the Academic Integrity Official may seek disciplinary sanctions following the procedures outlined above. If a reduced grade is also at issue, then that grade should be held in abeyance, pending the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee’s action.

Footnote 2. Typically, disciplinary sanctions would be sought in cases of the most egregious, or repeated, violations. For example: infraction in ways similar to criminal activity such as forging a grade form; stealing an examination from a professor or university office; or forging a transcript; having a substitute take an examination or taking an examination for someone else; sabotaging another student’s work through action designed to prevent the student from successfully completing an assignment, dishonesty that affects a major or essential portion of work done to meet course requirements. [These examples have been taken from a list of violations compiled by Rutgers University]

4. Procedures In Cases In Which Both A Disciplinary and an Academic Sanction are Sought

If a faculty member or the College seeks to have both a disciplinary and an academic sanction imposed, the process should begin with the disciplinary proceeding seeking imposition of a disciplinary sanction and await its outcome before addressing the academic sanction. If the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that the alleged violation occurred, then the faculty member may reflect that finding in the student’s grade. If the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that the alleged violation did not occur, then no sanction of any kind may be imposed. The decision whether to pursue both types of sanctions will ordinarily rest with the faculty member.

5. Reporting Requirements

By The Faculty Member To The Academic Integrity Official:
In cases where a violation of academic integrity has been found to have occurred, whether by admission or a fact-finding process, the faculty member shall promptly file with the Academic Integrity Official a report of the adjudication in writing on a Faculty Report form provided by the College as previously described.

The Academic Integrity Official shall maintain a confidential file for each student about whom a suspected or adjudicated violation is reported. If either the grade appeals process or the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that no violation occurred, the Academic Integrity Official shall remove and destroy all material relating to that incident from the student’s confidential academic integrity file. Before determining what sanction(s) to seek, the faculty member or the Academic Integrity Official may consult the student’s confidential academic integrity file, if any, to determine whether the student has been found to have previously committed a violation of the Academic Integrity Policy, the nature of the infraction, and the sanction imposed or action taken.

By the Academic Integrity Official To the Faculty Member: Where a matter proceeds to the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee, the Academic Integrity Official shall promptly report its resolution to the faculty member and file a record of the resolution in the student’s confidential academic integrity file, unless, as indicated above, the suspected violation was held to be unfounded, in which case all reporting forms concerning that suspected violation shall be destroyed.

CUNY POLICY ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic Dishonesty is prohibited in The City University of New York and is punishable by penalties, including failing grades, suspension, and expulsion, as provided herein.

I. DEFINITIONS AND EXAMPLES OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Cheating is the unauthorized use or attempted use of material, information, notes, study aids, devices or communication during an academic exercise.

The following are some examples of cheating, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Copying from another student during an examination or allowing another to copy your work;
- Unauthorized collaboration on a take home assignment or examination;
- Using notes during a closed book examination;
- Taking an examination for another student, or asking or allowing another student to take an examination for you;
- Changing a graded exam and returning it for more credit;
- Submitting substantial portions of the same paper to more than one course without consulting with each instructor;
- Preparing answers or writing notes in a blue book (exam booklet) before an examination;
- Allowing others to research and write assigned papers or do assigned projects, including use of commercial term paper services;
- Giving assistance to acts of academic misconduct/dishonesty;
- Fabricating data (all or in part);
- Submitting someone else's work as your own;
- Unauthorized use during an examination of any electronic devices such as cell phones, palm pilots, computers or other technologies to retrieve or send information.

Plagiarism is the act of presenting another person’s ideas, research or writings as your own.

The following are some examples of plagiarism, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Copying another person's actual words without the use of quotation marks and footnotes attributing the words to their source;
- Presenting another person’s ideas or theories in your own words without acknowledging the source;
- Using information that is not common knowledge without acknowledging the source;
- Failing to acknowledge collaborators on homework and laboratory assignments.

Internet plagiarism includes submitting downloaded term papers or parts of term papers, paraphrasing or copying information from the Internet without citing the source, and "cutting & pasting" from various sources without proper attribution.

Obtaining Unfair Advantage is any activity that intentionally or unintentionally gives a student unfair advantage in his/her academic work over another student.

The following are some examples of obtaining an unfair advantage, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Stealing, reproducing, circulating or otherwise gaining advance access to examination materials.
- Depriving other students of access to library materials by stealing, destroying, defacing, or concealing them.
II. METHODS FOR PROMOTING ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

- Orientation sessions for all new faculty (full and part-time) and students should incorporate a discussion of academic integrity. Packets containing information explaining the policy, the procedures that are in place, and examples of infractions should be distributed. These packets should be readily available, throughout the academic year, in the appropriate offices of the college and the locations of those offices should be widely publicized. Colleges using additional resources to detect plagiarism should publicize these resources widely.

- All college catalogs, student handbooks, and college websites should include the CUNY and college Academic Integrity Policy and the consequences of not adhering to it. The Policy on Academic Integrity, as adopted by the Board, shall be distributed to all students. All syllabi and schedules of classes should make reference to the CUNY and college’s academic integrity policy and where they are published in full.

- A “Faculty Report” form should be used throughout the University to report incidents of suspected academic dishonesty. (It is strongly recommended that the faculty member should report all such incidents by completing and submitting the form to the chief student affairs officer, the Academic Integrity Committee if the college has established one (see recommendation below), or other appropriate academic integrity official whom the college may designate (collectively referred to hereinafter as the “Academic Integrity Official”). A follow-up form should be submitted to the student’s academic integrity file by the adjudicating person or body once the suspected incident has been resolved pursuant to one of the methods described below. Although forms need not be uniform across the University, they need to be uniform within each college. The form should provide at least minimal information such as the name of the instructor and student, course name and number, date of incident, explanation of incident and the instructor’s telephone/email contact information; it should be easy to use and process. Except as otherwise provided in the CUNY Procedures, the Academic Integrity Official of each college should retain the forms for the purposes of identifying repeat offenders, gathering data and assessing and reviewing policies.

- CUNY will develop a website on Academic Integrity. This website will include suggestions for faculty, students and administrators to reduce cheating or plagiarism, resources on academic integrity and links to relevant sites. Future plans also include the development of an online training program to raise awareness about academic integrity.

- The Committee recommends that this CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity, dated Spring 2004, be adopted by the Board of Trustees.

- Colleges should adopt the "PEN" (Pending) grade to facilitate the implementation of the Procedures for Imposition of Sanctions. This grade already exists in the University’s Glossary of Grades.

- Colleges may wish to consider issuing a Student Guide to Academic Integrity. An excellent example is a document that students at Baruch College developed called Student Guide to Academic Integrity at Baruch College. The Guide is in its final stages of approval.

- Each college should consider joining the Center for Academic Integrity.

- Colleges should consider subscribing to an electronic plagiarism detection service. Any college that does subscribe must notify every student each semester of the fact that such a service is available for use by the faculty.

- Colleges should consider establishing an Academic Integrity Committee, to serve in lieu of grade appeals committees in cases of academic dishonesty, which would hear and decide contested grade reductions that faculty members award because of students violations of the Academic Integrity Policy and collect and maintain files of Faculty Report forms of suspected and adjudicated violations of the Academic Integrity Policy.

- Establish a mechanism for preventing students from dropping a class in order to avoid an investigation and/or imposition of a sanction for a violation of academic integrity.

Falsification of Records and Official Documents

The following are some examples of “falsification,” but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Forging signatures of authorization;
- Falsifying information on an official academic record;
- Falsifying information on an official document such as a grade report, letter of permission, drop/add form, ID card or other college document.

III. PROCEDURES FOR IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS FOR VIOLATIONS OF CUNY POLICY ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

A. Introduction

As a legal matter, in disciplining students for violations of policies of academic integrity, CUNY, as a public institution, must conform to the principles of due process mandated by the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution — generally speaking, to provide notice of the charges and some opportunity to be heard. In the context of court-litigated violations, questions as to how much and what kind of process was “due” turn on the courts’ judgment whether the decision on culpability was “disciplinary” (a question of fact) or “academic” (a question of the instructor’s expert judgment). This distinction has proved difficult to apply on campus. Accordingly, these procedures provide for alternative approaches depending on the severity of the sanction(s) being sought. If the instructor desires solely an “academic” sanction, that is, a grade reduction, less process is due than if a “disciplinary” sanction, such as suspension or expulsion, is sought.

A faculty member who suspects that a student has committed a violation of the CUNY or the college Academic Integrity Policy shall review with the student the facts and circumstances of the suspected violation whenever possible. The decision whether to seek an academic sanction only, rather than a disciplinary sanction or both types of sanctions, will rest with the faculty member in the first instance, but the college retains the right to bring disciplinary charges against the student. Among the factors the college should consider in determining whether to seek a disciplinary sanction are whether the student has committed one or more prior violations of the Academic Integrity Policy and mitigating circumstances if any. It is strongly recommended that every instance of “suspected” violation should be reported to the Academic Integrity Official on a form provided by the college as described in the third Recommendation for Promoting Academic Integrity, above. Among other things, this reporting will allow the college to determine whether it wishes to seek a disciplinary sanction even where the instructor may not wish to do so.

B. Procedures In Cases Where The Instructor Seeks An Academic Sanction Only

1. Student Accepts Guilt And Does Not Contest The Academic Sanction

If the faculty member wishes to seek only an academic sanction (i.e., a reduced grade only), and the student does not contest either his/her guilt or the particular reduced grade the faculty member has chosen, then the student shall be given the reduced grade, unless the college decides to seek a disciplinary sanction, see Section I above and IV below. The reduced grade may apply to the particular assignment as to which the violation occurred or to the course grade, at the faculty member’s discretion.

Footnote 1. A reduced grade can be an “F,” a “D-,” or another grade that is lower than the grade that would have been given but for the violation.

2. Student Denies Guilt And/Or Contests The Academic Sanction

If the student denies guilt or contests the particular grade awarded by the faculty member, then the matter shall be handled using the college’s grade appeals process, including departmental grading committees where applicable, or the Academic Integrity Committee. In either case, the process must, at a minimum, provide the student with an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence.

C. Procedures In Cases Where A Disciplinary Sanction Is Sought

If a faculty member suspects a violation and seeks a disciplinary sanction, the faculty member shall refer the matter to the college’s Academic Integrity Official using the Faculty Report form, as described in the third Recommendation for Promoting Academic Integrity above, to be adjudicated by the college’s Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee under Article 15 of the CUNY Bylaws. As provided for therein, the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee may, among other things, investigate, conciliate, or hear evidence on cases in which disciplinary charges are brought. Under certain circumstances, college officials other than the Academic Integrity Official may seek disciplinary sanctions following the procedures outlined above. For the reasons discussed in Item IV below, if a reduced grade is also at issue, then that grade should be held in abeyance, pending the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee’s action.

Footnote 2. Typically, disciplinary sanctions would be sought in cases of the most egregious, or repeated, violations. For example, infraction in ways similar to criminal activity (such as forging a grade form; stealing an examination from a professor or a university office; or forging a transcript); having a substitute take an examination or taking an examination for someone else; sabotaging another student’s work through actions designed to prevent the student from successfully completing an assignment; dishonesty that affects a major or essential portion of work done to meet course requirements. [These examples have been taken from a list of violations compiled by Rutgers University.]
D. Procedures In Cases In Which Both A Disciplinary And An Academic Sanction Are Sought

If a faculty member or the college seeks to have both a disciplinary and an academic sanction imposed, it is not advisable to proceed on both fronts simultaneously lest inconsistent results ensue. Thus, it is best to begin with the disciplinary proceeding seeking imposition of a disciplinary sanction and await its outcome before addressing the academic sanction. If the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that the alleged violation occurred, then the faculty member may reflect that finding in the student’s grade. If the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that the alleged violation did not occur, then no sanction of any kind may be imposed. The decision whether to pursue both kinds of sanctions will ordinarily rest with the faculty member.

E. Reporting Requirements

1. By The Faculty Member To The Academic Integrity Official

In cases where a violation of academic integrity has been found to have occurred (whether by admission or a fact-finding process), the faculty member should promptly file with the Academic Integrity Official a report of the adjudication in writing on a Faculty Report form provided by the college as described above. The Academic Integrity Official shall maintain a confidential file for each student about whom a suspected or adjudicated violation is reported. If either the grade appeals process or the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that no violation occurred, the Academic Integrity Official shall remove and destroy all material relating to that incident from the student’s confidential academic integrity file. Before determining what sanction(s) to seek, the faculty member or the Academic Integrity Official may consult the student’s confidential academic integrity file, if any, to determine whether the student has been found to have previously committed a violation of the Academic Integrity Policy, the nature of the infraction, and the sanction imposed or action taken.

2. By the Academic Integrity Official To the Faculty Member

Where a matter proceeds to the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee, the Academic Integrity Official shall promptly report its resolution to the faculty member and file a record of the resolution in the student’s confidential academic integrity file, unless, as indicated above, the suspected violation was held to be unfounded, in which case all reporting forms concerning that suspected violation shall be destroyed.

Threatening behavior towards people or property will not be tolerated. Violence, threats of violence, intimidation, harassment, coercion, or other misconduct is not tolerated. The City University of New York prohibits workplace violence. Violence includes, but is not limited to, normal work activities (such as yelling, using profanity, verbally abusing others, or waving arms and fists).

Any user who is found to be in violation of these rules shall be subject to the following:
- Suspension and/or termination of computer privileges;
- Disciplinary action by appropriate college and/or University officials;
- Referral to law enforcement authorities for criminal prosecution;
- Other legal action, including action to recover civil damages and penalties.

Complaints involving workplace violence will not be ignored and will be given the serious attention they deserve. Individuals who violate this policy may be removed from University property and are subject to disciplinary action and/or personnel action up to and including termination, consistent with University policies, rules and collective bargaining agreements, and/or referral to enforcement authorities for criminal prosecution. Complaints of sexual harassment are covered under the University’s Policy Against Sexual Harassment. The University, at the request of an employee or student, or at its own discretion, may prohibit members of the public, including family members, from seeing an employee or student on University property unless necessary to transact University-based business. This policy particularly applies in cases where an employee or student suspects that an act of violence will result from an encounter with said individual(s).

Scope
All faculty, staff, students, vendors, contractors, consultants, and others who do business with the University, whether in a University facility or off-campus location where University business is conducted, are covered by this policy. This policy also applies to other persons not affiliated with the University, such as former employees, former students and visitors. When students have complaints about other students, they should contact the Office of Student Affairs at their campus.

Definitions
Workplace violence is any behavior that is violent, threatens violence, coerces, harasses or intimidates others, interferes with an individual’s rights of movement or expression, or disrupts the workplace, the academic environment, or the University’s ability to provide services to the public. Examples of workplace violence include, but are not limited to:

1. Disruptive behavior intended to disturb, interfere with or prevent normal work activities (such as yelling, using profanity, verbally abusing others, or waving arms and fists).
2. Intentional physical contact for the purpose of causing harm (such as slapping, stabbing, punching, striking, shoving, or other physical attack).
3. Menacing or threatening behavior (such as throwing objects, pounding on a desk or door, damaging property, stalking, or otherwise acting aggressively; or making oral or written statements specifically intended to frighten, coerce, or threaten), where a reasonable person would interpret such behavior as constituting evidence or intent to cause harm to individuals or property.

Footnote 1. Computer Resources is an inclusive term referring to any and all computing/ information technology: hardware, software and access. Hardware includes, but is not limited to, terminals, personal computers, workstations, printers, mice, monitors, cabling, peripheral devices. Software includes, but is not limited to, mainframe shared software, networked software, and stand-alone software residing on personal computers. Access includes, but is not limited to, accounts on timesharing systems as well as access to stand-alone personal computing systems and other relevant technology.

Appendix

THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK WORKPLACE VIOLENCE POLICY AND PROCEDURES

The City University of New York has a longstanding commitment to promoting a safe and secure academic and work environment that promotes the achievement of its mission of teaching, research, scholarship and service. All members of the university community — students, faculty and staff — are expected to maintain a working and learning environment free from violence, threats of harassment, violence, intimidation or coercion. While these behaviors are not prevalent at the University, no organization is immune. The purpose of this policy is to address the issue of potential workplace violence in our community, prevent workplace violence from occurring to the fullest extent possible, and set forth procedures to be followed when such violence has occurred.

Policy
The City University of New York prohibits workplace violence. Violence, threats of violence, intimidation, harassment, coercion, or other threatening behavior towards people or property will not be tolerated.
4. Possessing firearms, imitation firearms, knives or other dangerous weapons, instruments or materials. No one within the University community shall have in their possession a firearm or other dangerous weapon, instrument or material that can be used to inflict bodily harm on an individual or damage to University property without specific written authorization from the Chancellor or the college President regardless of whether the individual possesses a valid permit to carry the firearm or weapon.

Reporting of Incidents

1. General Reporting Responsibilities. Incidents of workplace violence, threats of workplace violence, or observations of workplace violence are not to be ignored by any member of the University community. Workplace violence should promptly be reported to the appropriate University official (see below). Additionally, faculty, staff and students are encouraged to report behavior that they reasonably believe poses a potential for workplace violence as defined above. It is important that all members of the University community take this responsibility seriously to effectively maintain a safe working and learning environment.

2. Imminent or Actual Violence. Any person experiencing or witnessing imminent danger or actual violence involving weapons or personal injury should call the Campus Public Safety Office immediately, or call 911.

3. Acts of Violence Not Involving Weapons or Injuries to Persons. Any person who is the subject of a suspected violation of this policy involving violence without weapons or personal injury, or is a witness to such suspected violation, should report the incident to his or her supervisor, or in lieu thereof, to their respective Campus Public Safety Office. Students should report such incidents to the Office of Student Affairs at their campus or in lieu thereof, their Campus Public Safety Office. The Campus Public Safety Office will work with the Office of Human Resources and the supervisor or the Office of Student Affairs on an appropriate response.

4. Commission of a Crime. All individuals who believe a crime has been committed against them have the right, and are encouraged, to report the incident to the appropriate law enforcement agency.

5 False Reports. Members of the University community who make false and malicious complaints of workplace violence, as opposed to complaints which, even if erroneous, are made in good faith, will be subject to disciplinary action and/or referral to civil authorities as appropriate.

6. Incident Reports. The University will report incidents of workplace violence consistent with the College policies for Incident Reporting Under the Campus Security Policy and Statistical Act (Cleary Act).

Responsibilities

1. Presidents. The President of each constituent college of The City University of New York, the Chief Operating Officer at the Central Office, and the Deans of the Law School and Sophie Davis School of Biomedical Education shall be responsible for the implementation of this policy on his or her respective campus. The responsibility includes dissemination of this policy to members of the college community, ensuring appropriate investigation and follow-up of all alleged incidents of workplace violence, constituting a Workplace Violence Advisory Team (see #7), and ensuring that all administrators, managers, and supervisors are aware of their responsibilities under this policy through internal communications and training.

2. Campus Public Safety Office. The Campus Public Safety Office is responsible for responding to, intervening, and documenting all incidents of violence in the workplace. The Campus Public Safety Office will immediately log all incidents of workplace violence and will notify the respective supervisor of an incident with his/her employee, or notify the appropriate campus official of an incident with a student. All officers should be knowledgeable of when law enforcement action may be appropriate. Public Safety will maintain an internal tracking system of all threats and incidents of violence. Annual reports will be submitted to the President (at the same time as the report noted below) detailing the number and description of workplace violence incidents, the disposition of the incidents, and recommend policy, training issues, or security procedures that were or should be implemented to maintain a safe working and learning environment. The incidents will be reported in the Annual Report of the College Advisory Committee on Campus Security consistent with the reporting requirements of Article 129A Subsection 6450 of the NYS Education Law (Regulation by Colleges of Conduct on Campuses and Other College Property for Educational Purposes).

Officers will be trained in workplace violence awareness and prevention, non-violent crises intervention, conflict management and dispute resolution.

Officers will work closely with Human Resources when the possibility of workplace violence is heightened, as well as on the appropriate response to workplace violence incidents consistent with CUNY policies, rules, procedures and applicable labor agreements, including appropriate disciplinary action up to and including termination.

When informed, Public Safety will maintain a record of any Orders of Protection for faculty, staff and students. Public Safety will provide escort service to members of the college community within its geographical confines, when sufficient personnel are available. Such services are to be extended at the discretion of the Campus Public Safety Director or designee. Only the President, or designee, in his/her absence, can authorize escort service outside of the geographical confines of the college.

3. Supervisors. Each dean, director, department chairperson, executive officer, administrator, or other person with supervisory responsibility (hereinafter “supervisor”) is responsible within his/her area of jurisdiction for the implementation of this policy. Supervisors must report to their respective Campus Public Safety Office any complaint of workplace violence made to him/her and any other incidents of workplace violence of which he/she becomes aware or reasonably believes to exist. Supervisors are expected to inform their immediate supervisor promptly about any complaints, acts, or threats of violence even if the situation has been addressed and resolved. After having reported such complaint or incident to the Campus Public Safety Director and immediate supervisor, the supervisor should keep it confidential and not disclose it further, except as necessary during the investigation process and/or subsequent proceedings. Supervisors are required to contact the Campus Public Safety Office immediately in the event of imminent or actual violence involving weapons or potential physical injuries.

4. Faculty and Staff. Faculty and staff must report workplace violence, as defined above, to their supervisor. Faculty and staff who are advised by a student that a workplace violence incident has occurred or has been observed, must report this to the Campus Public Safety Director immediately. Recurring or persistent workplace violence that an employee reasonably believes is not being addressed satisfactorily, or violence that is, or has been, engaged in by the employee’s supervisor should be brought to the attention of the Campus Public Safety Director. Employees who have obtained Orders of Protection are expected to notify their supervisors and the Campus Public Safety Office of any orders that list CUNY locations as protected areas. Victims of domestic violence who believe the violence may extend into the workplace, or employees who believe that domestic or other personal matters may result in their being subject to violence extending into the workplace, are encouraged to notify their supervisor, or the Campus Public Safety Office. Confidentiality will be maintained to the extent possible. Upon hiring, and annually thereafter, faculty and staff will receive copies of this policy. Additionally, the policy will be posted throughout the campus and be placed on the CUNY website and on the college’s website, as appropriate.

5. Office of Human Resources. The Office of Human Resources at each campus is responsible for assisting the Campus Public Safety Director and supervisors in responding to workplace violence; facilitating appropriate responses to reported incidents of workplace violence; notifying the Campus Public Safety Office of workplace violence incidents reported to that office; and consulting with, as necessary, counseling services to secure professional intervention. The Office of Human Resources is responsible for providing new employees or employees transferred to the campus with a copy of the Workplace Violence Policy and Procedures and insuring that faculty and staff receive appropriate training. The Office of Human Resources will also be responsible for annually disseminating this policy to all faculty and staff at their campus, as well as posting the policy throughout the campus and on the college’s website, as appropriate.

6. Students. Students who witness violence, learn of threats, or are victim of violence by employees, students or others should report the incident immediately to the Campus Public Safety Office. If there is no imminent danger, students should report threatening incidents by employees, students or others as soon as possible to the Campus Public Safety Office or the Office of Student Affairs. Students will be provided with workplace violence awareness information (including information regarding available counseling services) upon registration each year.

7. Workplace Violence Advisory Team A college President shall establish a Workplace Violence Advisory Team at his/her college. This Team, working with the College Advisory Committee on Campus Security, will assist the President in responding to workplace violence; facilitating appropriate responses to reported incidents of workplace violence; assessing the potential problem of workplace violence at its site; assessing the college’s readiness for dealing with workplace violence; evaluating incidents to prevent future occurrences; and utilizing prevention, intervention, and interviewing techniques in responding to workplace violence. This Team will also develop workplace violence prevention tools (such as pamphlets, guidelines and handbooks) to further assist in recognizing and preventing workplace violence on campus. It is recommended that this Team include representatives from Campus Public Safety, Human Resources, Labor Relations, Counseling Services, Occupational Health and Safety, Legal and others, including faculty, staff and students, as deemed appropriate by the President. In lieu of establishing the Workplace Violence Advisory Team, a President may opt to expand the College Advisory Committee on Campus Security with representatives from the areas recommended above to address workplace violence issues at the campus and perform the functions outlined above.

8. University Communications. All communications to the University community and outside entities regarding incidents of workplace violence will be made through the University Office of University Relations after consultation with the respective President or his/her designee.

Education
Colleges are responsible for the dissemination and enforcement of this policy as described herein, as well as for providing for training in the prevention and awareness of workplace violence. The Office of Faculty and Staff Relations will provide assistance to the campuses in identifying available training opportunities, as well as other resources and tools (such as reference materials detailing workplace violence warning signs) that can be incorporated into campus prevention materials for dissemination to the college community. Additionally, the Office of Faculty and Staff Relations will offer periodic training opportunities to supplement the college’s training programs.

Confidentiality
The University shall maintain the confidentiality of investigations of workplace violence to the extent possible. The University will act on the basis of anonymous complaints where it has a reasonable basis to believe that there has been a violation of this policy and that the safety and well being of members of the University community would be served by such action.

Retaliation
Retaliation against anyone acting in good faith who has made a complaint of workplace violence, who has reported witnessing workplace violence, or who has been involved in reporting, investigating, or responding to workplace violence is a violation of this policy. Those found responsible for retaliatory action will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination.

NOTICE OF ACCESS TO CAMPUS CRIME STATISTICS, THE CAMPUS SECURITY REPORT, AND INFORMATION ON REGISTERED SEX OFFENDERS

The College Advisory Committee on Campus Safety will provide upon request all campus crime statistics as reported to the U.S. Department of Education, as well as the annual campus security report. The campus security report includes: (1) the campus crime statistics for the most recent calendar year and the two preceding calendar years; (2) campus policies regarding procedures and facilities to report criminal actions or other emergencies on campus; (3) policies concerning the security of and access to campus facilities; (4) policies on campus law enforcement; (5) a description of campus programs to inform students and employees about campus security procedures and practices and to encourage students and employees to be responsible for their own security and the security of others; (6) campus crime prevention programs; (7) policy concerning the monitoring through the police of criminal activity at off-campus locations of student organizations officially recognized by the College; (8) policies on illegal drugs, alcohol and underage drinking; (9) where information provided by the state on registered sex offenders may be obtained (also, see below); and (10) policies to be followed when a sex offense occurs. This information is maintained pursuant to the federal Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act.

The campus crime statistics and the annual campus security report are available at the reference desk of the library and the college website at www.jjay.cuny.edu.

If you wish to be mailed copies of the campus crime statistics and the annual campus security report, you should contact Brian Murphy, Director of Campus Safety and Security at 212-237-8524 and copies will be mailed to you within 10 days. The U.S. Department of Education’s website address for campus crime statistics is: www.ed.gov/security/InstDetail.asp (then input the name of the school).

In accordance with the federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act, registered sex offenders are now required to register the name and address of any college at which he or she is a student or employee. The New York State Division of Criminal Justice maintains a registry of convicted sex offenders and informs the college’s chief security (public safety) officer of the presence on campus of a registered sex offender as a student or employee. You may contact the College’s chief security officer Brian Murphy, Director of Campus Safety and Security, 212-237-8524, to obtain information about Level 2 or Level 3 registered sex offenders on campus. To obtain information about Level 3 offenders, you may contact the Division’s registry website at www.criminaljustice.state.ny.us/nsor/sor-ab_out.htm and then click on Search for “Level 3 Sex Offenders” or access the directory at the College’s public safety department or police department, local police precinct in which the offender resides or attends college, or the Division’s sex offender registry at 800-262-3257.
ATHLETIC PROGRAM PARTICIPATION NOTICE
The College files an annual report with the U.S. Secretary of Education on intercollegiate athletics, which includes information on the participation of males and females on its teams, and the expenditures and revenues of those teams. Copies of the annual report on intercollegiate athletics are available at the reference desk of the library and the college website.

NEW YORK STATE DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS REGULATIONS OF THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
Part 53 of the New York State Education Rules and Regulations require that all degree-granting postsecondary institutions make the following information available to currently enrolled and prospective students. Prospective students are defined as persons who have contacted the institution requesting information for the purpose of enrollment.

1. General Procedures for Dissemination of Information
The following information required by Part 53 shall be included in the catalog or bulletin of the institution and the following procedures must be followed:
A. When a catalog or bulletin is published less often than annually, a statement shall warn of the possibility of out-of-date information and provide the name and address or telephone number of the person or office to be contacted for the most recent information.
B. The information required by Part 53 shall be clearly and precisely described and any statistical displays shall be easy to read and understand.
C. Advertisements, brochures, or solicitations to prospective students shall clearly note the availability of more extensive information in the catalog or bulletin.
D. Where more than one catalog or bulletin is published for separate programs or schools, only information required by Part 53 that pertains to the individual programs or schools concerned need to be included. In this case, a statement shall be made to indicate that separate catalogs or bulletins are in use.

II. Financial Assistance Available to Students
A. The institution must provide the following information for every category of aid:
1. Application procedures, including a description of the forms and preparation instructions;
2. Method of selection of recipients;
3. Allocation of awards;
4. Award schedule; and
5. Rights and responsibilities of recipients.
B. Categories of aid include state, federal and local institutional programs. The institution must provide information to eligible students for each of the following.
1. State Programs
a. Tuition Assistance Program (TAP);
b. Regents College Scholarships;
c. Regents Nursing Scholarships;
d. Regents Awards for Children of Deceased or Disabled Veterans
e. State Assistance for Native Americans;
f. Guaranteed Student Loans;
g. Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP);
h. Education Opportunity Program (EOP);
i. Search for Education and Elevation through Knowledge (SEEK);
j. College Discovery Program (CD);
k. Work incentive program (WIN);
l. Any other state program that accounts for 10 percent or more of the total state student aid administered by the institution.
2. Federal Programs
a. Educational Opportunity Grants program (EEOG);
b. Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (SEOG);
c. National Direct Student Loans (NDSL);
d. College Work Study Programs (CWS);
e. Social Security payments to children of deceased or disabled veterans;
f. Federal aid to Native Americans;
g. Veterans Administration educational benefits;
h. Any other federal program, which accounts for 10 percent or more of the total federal student aid administered by the institution.
3. Local Institutional Programs
a. Information on grants, scholarships, waivers, deferrals, loans, including small emergency loans, and work-study arrangements administered by the institution shall be provided;
b. Programs involving awards of $300 or more per year shall be individually listed, including any restrictions;
c. The number and average value of programs with awards of less than $300 per year shall be provided, along with the name, address and telephone number of an institutional office from which more detailed information can be obtained.
III. Costs of Attending the Institution

The institution shall provide the costs of attendance for each of the cost categories listed below. Estimates may be used if exact figures are unavailable or inappropriate. Where only summary information is provided, the institution must identify the name of an institutional office where detailed information can be obtained.

1. Tuition and Fees
   a. All assessments against students for direct educational and general purposes;
   b. Description of the purpose of a mandatory fee, if not apparent from its name;
   c. Clearly identified course and lab fees; and
   d. Clearly stated condition under which non-mandatory fees need not be paid.

2. Books and Supplies
   a. Costs of textbooks, books, manuals, consumable supplies and equipment that are corollary to instruction and necessary for the student;
   b. In the case of major program categories for which such costs vary more than 25 percent from the average, separate estimates shall be provided.

3. Room, Board and Other Living Expenses
   a. Costs of housing services;
   b. Costs of food services;
   c. Estimated costs of similar accommodations available in the community;
   d. Estimated cost of personal expenses applicable to students pursuing primarily educational objectives.

IV. Refund Policy

The institution must state its policy concerning refunds due to a student’s failure to complete an academic term for any reason. The policy must include the following, which is to be refunded after a specified elapsed period of time:

1. Tuition
2. Fees
3. Room and Board
4. Other Assessments

V. Instructional Programs

A. A list of degree, certificate and diploma programs shall be provided. The list must be consistent with the inventory of registered degree and certificate programs maintained by the Education Department. The list shall contain at least the following:

1. Official program titles;
2. Degree and HEGIS code numbers;
3. A statement that enrollment in other than registered or otherwise approved programs may jeopardize a student’s eligibility for certain student aid awards;
4. A description of each degree, certificate and diploma program, including prerequisites and requirements for completion;
5. An indication of which academic year each instructional offering (course) is expected to be taught.

B. A general description of instructional, laboratory and other facilities directly related to the academic program shall be provided. The description shall include:

1. A description of the total physical plant;
2. Narrative and/or statistical information about library collections and facilities, student unions and institution-operated eating facilities;
3. Hours of operation, including holiday and vacation schedules.

C. The following information about faculty and other instructional personnel must be provided:

1. A listing by rank of regular resident faculty;
2. Identity of each resident faculty member’s highest degree held, by which institution that degree was granted, and the department or major program area to which faculty is assigned;
3. Estimated number of adjunct faculty and teaching assistants in each department or major program area,

D. The institution shall provide information on student retention and graduation rates for at least full-time undergraduates based on a summary of the most recent cohort survival statistics available to the institution.

E. The institution shall provide summaries of job placement and graduate school placement statistics compiled by the institution, along with information about its placement center.

FEDERAL DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

According to federal law, institutions of higher education must provide the following consumer information to students:

A. Financial Assistance Information

1. How the eligibility for student financial aid is determined;
2. How the institution distributes aid among students;
3. Rights and responsibilities of students receiving aid;
4. How and when financial aid will be disbursed;
5. The terms and conditions of any employment that is part of the financial aid package;
6. The terms of, the schedules for, and the necessity of loan repayment;
7. Required loan exit counseling;
8. The criteria for measuring satisfactory academic progress, and how a student who has failed to maintain satisfactory progress may rees-establish eligibility for financial aid.

B. Information about the Institution

1. The names of associations, agencies and/or governmental bodies that accredit, approve or license the school and its programs, and the procedures by which a student may receive a copy for review of the school’s accreditation, licensure, or approval;
2. Special facilities and services available to disabled students;
3. A statement of the requirements for the return of Federal Student Aid program funds when a student withdraws from school, information about any refund policy with which the school must comply, and

INSTITUTIONAL COMPLAINT PROCESS

Section 494C(j) of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, provides that a student, faculty member, or any other person who believes he or she has been aggrieved by an institution of higher education has the right to file a written complaint.

In New York State, a complaint may be filed by any person with reason to believe that an institution has acted contrary to its published standards or conditions or that conditions at the institution appear to jeopardize the quality of the institution’s instructional programs or the general welfare of its students. Any person who believes that he or she has been aggrieved by an institution on or after May 4, 1994, may file a written complaint with the department within three years of the alleged incident.

How to File a Complaint

1. The person should first try to resolve the complaint directly with the institution by following the internal complaint procedures provided by the institution. An institution of higher education is required to publish its internal complaint procedure in a primary information document such as the catalog or student handbook. (The Department suggests that the complainant keep copies of all correspondence with the institution.)

2. If a person is unable to resolve the complaint with the institution or believes that the institution has not properly addressed the concerns, he or she may send a letter or telephone the Postsecondary Complaint Registry to request a complaint form. Please telephone 212-951-6493 or write to:

New York State Education Department
Postsecondary Complaint Registry
One Park Avenue, 6th Floor
New York, NY 10016

3. The Postsecondary Complaint Registry Form should be completed, signed, and sent to the above address. The completed form should indicate the resolution being sought and any efforts that have been made to resolve the complaint through the institution’s internal complaint processes. Copies of all relevant documents should be included.

4. After receiving the completed form, the Department will notify the complainant of its receipt and make any necessary request for further information. When appropriate, the Department will also advise the institution that a complaint has been made and, when appropriate, the nature of the complaint. The complainant will also be notified of the name of the evaluator assigned to address the specific complaint. The evaluator may contact the complainant for additional information.

5. The Department will make every effort to address and resolve complaints within ninety days from receipt of the complaint form.

Complaint Resolution

Some complaints may fall within the jurisdiction of an agency or organization other than the State Education Department.

These complaints will be referred to the entity with appropriate jurisdiction. When a complaint concerns a matter that falls solely within the jurisdiction of the institution of higher education, the complainant will be notified and the Department will refer the complaint to the institution in question and request that the matter receive a review and a response.
Upon conclusion of the Department’s complaint review or upon a disposition of the complaint by referral to another agency or organization, or to the institution of higher education, the Department will issue a written notice to the complainant describing the resolution of the complaint. The complainant may contact the Department evaluator directly for follow-up information or for additional assistance.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE JOHN JAY COLLEGE OF JUSTICE FACULTY SENATE

Preamble
The Faculty of John Jay College of Criminal Justice, having been entrusted by the bylaws of The City University of New York with responsibility for policy relating to admission and retention of students, health and scholarship standards, attendance, curriculum, awarding of college credit, granting of degrees, and the conduct of educational affairs customarily cared for by a college faculty, hereby establishes the John Jay College of Criminal Justice Faculty Senate in order to provide a formal means of representing faculty concerns to the administration of the College and the University and to provide a democratic forum for the deliberation of such matters and other matters upon which deliberation by the academic community may contribute to the well being of the University and the society which sustains it and looks to it for enlightenment.

Article I: Powers of the John Jay College Faculty Senate
The John Jay College Faculty Senate shall serve as one of the bodies of the College in the shaping of academic and educational policies. The John Jay Faculty Senate shall concern itself with matters of teaching, scholarship, research and any and all other matters related to faculty concerns as part of the educational mission of John Jay College. The Faculty Senate, acting through resolutions voted upon, shall be considered the voice of the faculty when making recommendations to the College Council, to administrative officials, or to other components of the College and the University, consistent with CUNY bylaws, the Professional Staff Congress contract and academic freedom.

Article II: Representation of the John Jay College Faculty Senate
The John Jay College Faculty Senate shall be composed of those faculty members elected to the John Jay College Council, 13 full-time faculty members elected at large, and four adjunct faculty members elected at-large. Faculty members may be self nominated or nominated by any other faculty member.
No member of the faculty shall serve simultaneously as an at-large member of the Faculty Senate and as a member of the College Council except for the at-large faculty representatives on the College Council who shall be elected by the Faculty Senate from among the at-large members of the Faculty Senate. This election shall take place in May after elections to the Senate have taken place and the Senate has been convened. The term of office shall be for one year.
Election to the Faculty Senate for at-large positions shall take place in the spring prior to elections for departmental representatives to the College Council. Only full-time faculty members may vote for full-time faculty nominees. Only adjunct faculty may vote for adjunct nominees. The term of office shall begin in May after the new Senate has been elected and shall be for one year.
The Senate may declare a vacancy in membership or in an office of the Senate by adopting a resolution to that effect if a member resigns, can no longer serve, no longer meets the requirements for membership or for cause. A member may resign from the Senate by submitting notice in writing to the President of the Senate. A motion to declare a vacancy must be passed by a two-thirds vote of members present and voting at a meeting of the Senate. After declaring a vacancy, the Senate shall determine what action, if any, is to be taken to fill the vacancy, except that a vacancy in the office of the President shall be filled by succession of the Vice President to the office of the President.

Article III: Voting and Participation
Each member of the John Jay College Faculty Senate shall have one vote on official matters. Motions shall be deemed to have been passed, or not passed, in accordance with Robert’s Rules of Order, Revised. All meetings shall be open to all members of the teaching faculty. Any member of the teaching faculty may speak at a meeting, although voting is limited to members of the Senate. Other members of the College or University community, as well as any other persons, may attend a meeting of the Senate and participate in discussions only by invitation of the Senate or its Executive Committee.

Article IV: Officers of the John Jay College Faculty Senate
The officers of the John Jay College Faculty Senate shall be as follows: 1. President. The President shall preside at all meetings. In the event that a President is unable to complete a term, the Senate shall determine by vote that the office is vacant and thereupon the Vice President shall succeed automatically to the office of President.
2. Vice President. The Vice President shall assume the duties of the President in presiding over the Senate when the President is not present or when the President yields in order to participate in discussion on a motion. If the Vice President is unable to complete a term or succeeds to the office of the President, the Senate shall elect a new Vice President.
3. Recording Secretary(ies). The Recording Secretary(ies) shall record and transmit the minutes of all meetings of the Faculty Senate to the Corresponding Secretary for distribution.
4. Corresponding Secretary. The Corresponding Secretary shall distribute minutes of Senate meetings, forward official correspondence of the President and of Senate committees, receive copies of official committee reports from committee secretaries, and maintain archives of minutes, committee records and correspondence.
5. Officers-At-Large. Two (2) Officers-At-Large shall assist the other executive officers in the execution of their responsibilities.
All officers shall be elected in May, after the new Senators have been elected and the Senate has been convened. Their terms of office shall be for one year.

Article V: Executive Committee
The Executive Committee shall consist of the officers of the Senate. The Executive Committee shall determine when meetings of the Senate are to be held in accordance with Article VI. The Executive Committee shall receive agenda items from members of the faculty and shall establish the priority of agenda items. The Executive Committee may recommend limiting discussion, subject to approval by a vote of the Senate. The agenda may be revised at any time upon a motion from the floor and an affirmative vote at a meeting of the Senate.

Article VI: Regular and Special Meetings
The Faculty Senate shall meet every month of the fall and spring semesters. Additional meetings or any other changes in schedule may take place upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee of the Senate.

Article VII: Committees
The Faculty Senate shall create committees, which are necessary to advance the activities of the Senate. Standing or ad hoc committees may be established, as needed. Members of standing committees shall annually be self-nominated or nominated by a member of the Senate, and the Executive Committee shall then recommend to the Senate membership slates for election by the full Senate. The Executive Committee shall designate Chairs for all committees. Each committee shall elect its own Assistant Chairperson and Recording Secretary, as it deems necessary. All committees shall have members of the Executive Committee as liaisons.
A committee may act upon items referred to it by the Senate as a whole, by the Executive Committee or by any member of the faculty.
All committees shall report directly to the Senate as a whole, providing reports and offering motions at meetings of the Senate.
Positions on College or University committees designated for Faculty Senate shall be filled as follows: individuals shall be nominated by the Executive Committee and approved by a majority vote of the Senate.

Article VIII: Agenda
Any member of the faculty may present items for the Senate agenda by forwarding items in writing to any member of the Executive Committee at least ten school days prior to a regular meeting of the Senate.
Items received too late will be held for the next meeting of the Senate.
A written agenda shall be available from any member of the Executive Committee five days prior to a regular meeting of the Senate and, wherever feasible, shall be published and distributed prior to the meeting. In emergencies, the Executive Committee may call a special meeting of the Senate without prior written agenda.

Article IX: Quorum
A quorum of the Senate shall consist of a majority of its voting members. The same rule applies for its committees.

Article X: Governance
The Faculty Senate and its committees shall be governed by Robert’s Rules of Order, Revised, unless otherwise specified in this constitution.

Article XI: Amendments
This constitution can be amended through a motion made and passed by a vote of at least two-thirds of members present and voting at two consecutive regular meetings of the Senate.
