Department	Title	Course Description	Prerequisites	General Course Information	How to Register	Program Notes
Criminal Justice (CRJ 780/781)	Fieldwork in Criminal Justice	Provides a supervised placement in an appropriate agency, reinforced by a weekly seminar on campus. Integrates the internship experience with the discipline's literature assigned for classroom discussion. Examines the similarities and differences between internship positions at group seminars. Offers a variety of patterns of involvement in terms of hours, location, and nature of responsibility and work.	None	150 HOURS PER SEMESTER, 3 CREDITS.	To register for this course just enter the registration code as you would for any other course.	Elective for those in Criminal Justice Program and the Criminal Justice BA/MA Program
Forensic Computing (FCM 780)	Capstone Seminar and Fieldwork	Supervised fieldwork on a forensic computing case or a computer security problem, sometimes with the participation of program faculty. The fieldwork is complemented with a biweekly seminar with a corporate partner of the graduate program. Students are assigned to work with either an agency or corporate partner of the graduate program.	Successful completion of FCM 753, FCM 760 and the program's Applied Digital Forensic Science Exam	200 HOURS PER SEMESTER WITH BIWEEKLY SEMINAR, 3 CREDITS.	Offered as an Independent Study, please contact program director.	Requirement for those in the Forensic Computing Program who do not have professional experience in law enforcement or significant organizational experience.
Psychology (PSY 780)	Fieldwork in Counseling I	Provides supervised experience assisting mental health professionals in the assessment, management and counseling of clients. Students work in an applied institutional setting, such as a prison, special treatment clinic, hospital, delinquency or rehabilitation setting. Training includes interviewing and taking case histories, observations, staff and case conferences. Fieldwork training is supplemented by conferences with a faculty adviser.	Completion of a minimum of 12 graduate credits in the graduate psychology program and permission of the program director. Forensic Mental Health Counseling students must complete PSY 758 prior to registering.	300 HOURS, INCLUDING WEEKLY SEMINARS WITH ADJUNCT CLINICAL FACULTY, 3 CREDITS.	To register for this course just enter the registration code as you would for any other course. Information as to which section you should register for depending on major is in the schedule of classes.	Requirement for those in the Forensic Psychology Program or Forensic Psychology BA/MA program who choose the externship track and a requirement for all in the Forensic Mental Health Counseling Program.
Psychology (PSY 781)	Fieldwork in Counseling II	This course is a continuation of PSY 780, for those students choosing additional fieldwork experience. Provides supervised experience assisting mental health professionals in the assessment, management and counseling of clients. Students work in an applied institutional setting, such as a prison, special treatment clinic, hospital, delinquency or rehabilitation setting. Training includes interviewing and taking case histories, observations, staff and case conferences. Fieldwork training is supplemented by conferences with a faculty adviser.	PSY 780 and permission of the program director. Forensic Mental Health Counseling students must complete PSY 758 prior to registering.	300 HOURS, INCLUDING WEEKLY SEMINARS WITH ADJUNCT CLINICAL FACULTY, 3 CREDITS. (OFFERED EVERY SEMESTER)	To register for this course just enter the registration code as you would for any other course. Information as to which section you should register for depending on major is in the schedule of classes.	Requirement for those in the Forensic Mental Health Counseling Program.
Forensic Science (FOS 780/781)	Fieldwork in Forensic Science	This course provides the student with supervised fieldwork experience in appropriate institutional settings. A variety of patterns of involvement is available, varying in terms of hours of work, location, nature of assignment, etc.	GPA of 3.0 or higher and permission of the program director	400 HOURS PER SEMESTER (2-SEMESTER COURSE), WEEKLY SEMINAR, 3 CREDITS.	To register for this course just enter the registration code as you would for any other course. You may need to get permission from the program director prior to registering.	Elective for Forensic Science Program
International Crime and Justice (ICJ 780)	Internship in International Crime and Justice	This course aims to connect academic knowledge in the field of international crime and justice with the realities of the field. By participating in a field placement, students should better understand the connections of the local to the global, and their role a professionals in this evolving field of study. This course is delivered online.	Students must have completed all the core courses of the MA in ICJ program, have a 3.5 GPA and have received the permission of the director to pursue the internship track.	280 HOURS PER SEMESTER, 3 CREDITS.	To register for this course just enter the registration code as you would for any other course. You may need to get permission from the course director prior to registering.	Requirement for those in the International Crime and Justice Program who choose the Internship Track.
Public Administration (PAD/CRJ 780/781)	Public Administration Internship	Students intern in a government agency or nonprofit organization and meet once a week in a seminar to integrate the student's internship experience with the assigned readings for classroom discussion. While all students will benefit from gaining substantive work experience in their particular area of interest, pre-service students are especially encouraged to complete an internship. Placement is arranged by instructor in consultation with the individual students..	None	REQUIRES 300 INTERNSHIP HOURS PER SEMESTER AND WEEKLY SEMINAR SESSIONS. 3 CREDITS. SUMMER.	To register for this course just enter the registration code as you would for any other course.	Elective for the Public Administration Program and the Public Administration BA/MA Program.