SPRING 2009 COLLOQUIUM SERIES

A Conversation with Bob Crow

General Secretary of the RMT Specialist Transport
Trade Union, London

Monday, March 16, 2009

3:00pm

Suite 636B

Conference Area, Doctoral Program in Criminal Justice

Bob Crow is General Secretary of the British RMT - the National Union of Rail, Maritime and Transport Workers. This is Britain's fastest growing trade union, representing more than 80,000 members in almost every sector of the transport industry, from mainline and underground rail to shipping and offshore, buses and road-freight. Bob Crow was one of a number of militant trade union leaders elected to national office in recent years who were committed to extend the power of labor and the struggle for social justice.
