I understand that in order to be considered for exemption, I must have the following:

- Completed the New York City Corrections, Firefighter, or Police Academy. (Student must also send the Academy transcript for review.)
- Earned a minimum of 28 liberal arts credits from an accredited college, university, or at John Jay College (excluding remedial/developmental courses).

I understand that this application will be reviewed for eligibility based on my academic credentials and is subject to approval. I further understand that approved exemption is not automatic eligibility for graduation as I would also need to complete all other graduation requirements.
