March 14, 2014
3:00 P.M
New Building, 9th Floor Conference Room

Call to Order:

The meeting was called to order by Carina Quintian at 3:05 PM.

Adoption of Agenda & Approval of Minutes:

There was a motion to approve the minutes from the November 22, 2013 HEO Council Meeting and that motion was seconded at 3:06pm

There was a motion to adopt the agenda for the meeting, and that motion was seconded at 3:07pm.

Announcements & Reports:

President of the HEO Council, Carina Quintian, opened the meeting by recognizing the extraordinary work of the Charter Review Committee: John Leebens, Kevin Nesbitt, Victoria Pitcavage, Inez Brown, Nilsa Lam, and Michele Doney. Ms. Quintian thanked the Charter Review Committee for their exceptional efforts on behalf of the council.

Vice President of the HEO Council, Sandrine Dikambi reminded the council about the Big Vote! Mark your calendars for Wednesday, May 7 at Noon in the Student Dining Hall for the next HEO Council General Meeting/Luncheon and most importantly, vote on the charter. Ms. Dikambi emphasized that in order to have a quorum we need 136 present at the May 7th meeting.

Old Business:

No old business was on the agenda.

New Business:

See document entitled "Proposed Changes to the HEO Council Charter Spring 2014"

Ms. Dikambi presented the council with all of the proposed charter changes except for Article II and the new article VII.

Secretary of the HEO Council, Michele Doney, explained Article II and the new Article VII.

Kevin Nesbitt emphasized that we, the HEO Council, will continue to have a diminished voice on campus if these charter revisions do not pass on May 7.

The idea of a Public Comment period on the charter was raised, so that HEOs can actively review and make suggestions before May 7.

Any proposals of changes to the charter can be submitted to Michele Doney via email.

Another comment was made about scheduling conflicts on May 7 and to encourage others to schedule around this very important meeting on May 7. The idea was raised for the HEO Council to write to the VPs and make them aware of this meeting and request their understanding and cooperation in allowing their HEOs to attend.

Ms. Doney explained the current proposal for fluctuating representation for the HEO Council. Please refer to the document titled "HEO Council Composition for 2014-2016 Term."

Michael Scaduto voiced his concerns with the new proposed system and how representatives would be nominated/selected. Specifically, he felt the ability to nominate representatives only from within your own division is too limiting.

Former HEO Council President, Irene O'Donnell, encouraged the council to pass this revised charter so that we can become a functioning body. She emphasized that this is the most amount and best caliber of work from the Charter Review Committee she has seen and that we cannot let these revisions slip away. Ms. O'Donnell also raised the question of what to do if the Charter Revisions do pass and how elections would be conducted.

Ms. Quintian stated that we need to start thinking about nominations now since the turn around will be quick if the new charter passes.

Ms. Doney proposed a call to have amendments submitted in advance. There is an Executive Board meeting in April, and that will provide an opportunity for further amendments to be considered and voted upon so we do not have to spend time debating them as individual motions on the day of the actual vote, when it will be difficult to maintain the quorum for very long.

Kathy Killoran proposed another model of representation that was still proportional, but didn't make the distinctions of representatives from the 5 divisions as presented.

Jennifer Lorenzo proposed having the Marketing department as their own division, and split from the President's Office/Legal.

Ms. Doney answered a question from the floor about what power the HEO Council has. She stated the HEO Council has the right to offer up resolutions, policy proposals and the like, to the College Council.

Ms. Doney also explained how amendments are voted on.

There was a question from the floor about voting in the proposed model: Do HEOs only voted for the reps in their division? This is not made clear at all in the document currently under consideration. If people can only nominate and vote for others within their own division, that needs to be clarified in the proposed charter.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 4:23 PM.

Respectfully submitted by Johanna Whitton.

Currently, every HEO on campus is automatically a part of the HEO Council and counts toward quorum whether they are interested in governance or not, hindering the ability of the HEO Council to conduct real business. Under the revised charter, the entire HEO Council switches to a system of proportional representation, with each division represented by a number of reps proportional to the number of HEOs in the division.
