SOCIETAL INFLUENCES

Vincent Palmeri, Nazeefa Hossain, Jesse Ahinful, Fanglin Zou, Adonis Valdez

Justice and Communications in Civic Life COM 155 FYS | Professor Beckett

How are you making decisions?

Stereotype

I. Stereotypes affect employment.
II. Stereotypes affect interpersonal relationships.
III. Stereotypes affect self-image and self-perception.

Corrective Justice

I. Corrective justice attempts to restore victims.
II. Corrective justice makes the punishment equal to the crime.
III. Corrective Justice focuses on the needs of both victim and offender.

Communication

I. iPhones make life easier.
II. iPhones have changed the society communicates.
III. Apple creates its own new markets.

Political Lobbying

I. Lobbying the government is legal.
II. Lobbyists use many tactics.
III. College students are involved in and affected by lobbying.

Media

I. Media influence on society is not new.
II. We are in constant in contact with media.
III. Media doesn’t tell you to think, but what to think about.