Perceptions of crime in certain areas or neighborhoods varies depending on the people. Also, there are different factors that affect the people’s attitude towards crime.

Tract Number 21.03 Yonkers NY

Quantitative
- Race:
  - White: 646,471
  - African American: 138,118
- Homes owned:
  - 17,814
- Renters:
  - 32,857
- Average income:
  - $46,000

Qualitative
- Many people in the neighborhood have two different perceptions of vandalism that is happening. Some choose to show that they care, while others want to sit and ignore it. Vandalism is a problem in the neighborhood and needs to be addressed by all citizens. If it’s addressed, people in the neighborhood will be aware of what’s happening, and do their best to stop it.

Tract Number 1146 Kings County NY

Quantitative
- Total Population: 2,999
  - Females: 1,558 (52%)
  - Males: 1,440 (48%)
- Race:
  - Hispanic or Latino: 1,877 (64.6%)
  - Black or African American: 1,036 (34.6%)

Qualitative
- Crime can impact a neighborhood in different ways. Not only can people define crime differently, but they can also perceive crime differently.

Tract Number 1245 Clifton NJ

Quantitative
- Age:
  - Under 18: 22.2%
  - 18 to 64: 62.8%
  - 64 and older: 15%
- Race:
  - White: 63.3%
  - Black or African American: 7.8%
  - Hispanic or Latino: 38%
- Homes owned:
  - 46%
- Renters:
  - 54%

Qualitative
- People in my census tract use different factors about a person to judge or categorize him/her. Often, people will judge each other negatively by saying that other are criminals or social deviants. People judging one another, eventually leads to segregation.

Conclusions
- The way people perceive crime varies depending on their situation and how much they care for the neighborhood. We all came to realize what people think about crime. We also found out how they would like to fix it before it gets worst.