This two-year program is a collaboration between the Department of Latin American and Latina/o Studies at John Jay College of Criminal Justice and the Ronald H. Brown Law School Prep Program at St. John’s University School of Law. It is designed to help increase underrepresented groups in legal education by providing eligible John Jay students (please see guidelines below) with an intensive summer program in the study of law at St. John’s University School of Law. The overall Program is a two-year Program that runs throughout the academic year and over the course of two consecutive summers.

Dates:
May 27 – July 29, 2014

Requirements for Admission:
- Genuine interest in pursuing a law degree;
- 3.0 or better grade point average;
- Sophomore or lower junior standing (45 to 75 credits)
- Undergraduate students who are either:
  - Low income and first generation or
  - Members of a group underrepresented in law school, such as Latinas/os, African Americans, and Native Americans.

Students are not allowed to work or attend any other summer program/school for the duration of the summer programs.

Application Deadline Extended:
Friday, February 14, 2014

Applications are available in room 8.62.02

For more information, please contact Prof. Jodie Roure, JJC Director, via e-mail at jroure@jjay.cuny.edu or Prof. Francois Restrepo, JJC Assistant Director, at 212-237-8710 or via e-mail to frestreposerrano@jjay.cuny.edu. JJC RHB is a CUNY BMI funded program