Angy Rivera is a Colombian-born New York-raised undocumented immigrant. She came at the age of three with her mother. Since high school, Angy has always been involved in her community. During her senior year of high school she first heard about the Dream Act and the New York State Youth Leadership Council (NYSYLC). She joined the organization in 2009 and in 2010 came out as undocumented in a public way for the first time. She started the country’s first undocumented youth advice column called Ask Angy. Her favorite color is yellow, she loves animals and chocolate! Follow her on twitter @AskAngy.
