John Jay College 2015 Summer Session
Registration Instructions
Summer Session begins May 27, 2015

1) If you are a current CUNY student from another CUNY campus (E-Permit Student):
You are welcome to study at John Jay college under an E-Permit. An E-Permit enables you to study on a CUNY campus other than your home campus. Apply for an E-Permit.

2) If you are a non-CUNY student from another college/university (Visiting Student/Non-Degree Student):
You are welcome to study to John Jay College as a visiting, non-degree student. Apply as an Undergraduate Visiting, Non-Degree Student. Apply as a Graduate Visiting, Non-Degree Student.

PLEASE NOTE: Visiting, non-degree students are not entitled to receive financial aid and pay a higher rate of tuition than degree students. Completed applications are due by May 15th and there is an application fee of $65. Once your application has submitted and processed, you will receive a notification from the Admissions Office as to when you may register for summer classes. Registration may be conducted online or in person. For more details, please click here.
